Administration Commission

The new kitchen freezer has been installed. Flocknote has been changed from St. Joseph to the Pastorate for both St. Mary and St. Joseph. The new login for Flocknote is stmarystjosephpastorate.flocknote.com. Previous users will be redirected for 30 days and after that users will need to use the correct login. If you or your ministry would like something published in the bulletin, the deadline is Monday at noon prior to the publication date. Please keep in mind that with the joint bulletin there is limited space. Livestreaming is going well. There were over 400 views for the Christmas Mass. The total pledged to date for the Catholic Ministries Appeal is $99,280 of the parish goal of $87,305. $56,331 has been paid towards those pledges.

Outreach Commission

Legion of Mary continues to reach out via phone and cards to parishioners. All parishioners are encouraged to pray for the return of all Catholics to the sacraments. Saint Vincent de Paul has submitted the following 1st Quarter summary (oct, Nov, Dec) for 5 Loaves & 2 Fishes:

- Number of Families served: 674/1686 individuals
- Volunteer hours: 567
- Veterans served: 125
- Zip Codes other than 46052: 25

Formation Commission

Formation Commission has a new member. Mario Delgado, Director of Evangelization for our pastorate was introduced to members. His priorities is Vocations, Prayer, Bible Study, Catechetical Formation, Sacramental Prep and Hispanic Ministry. Please welcome him! Eleven children received their first reconciliation on December 15th. Parent’s suggestions would like to prioritize the children to help them with their comfort since it was celebrated within the parish Advent Penance Service. Destination Jesus will be hosted for our parish high school youth here at St. Joseph on February 13, 2021.
