Pastor's Letter
Notas del Pastor

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Ascension,

This weekend in the church we begin a new liturgical season and a new liturgical year. This weekend we begin the Season of Advent. Advent has a two-fold character. The first part of Advent (First Sunday of Advent until December 16th) directs us to await Christ's second coming at the end of time. Advent, therefore, is a period of devout and joyful expectation. The second part of Advent is from December 17th until December 24th. On those days, the readings are very specifically meant to help us prepare to celebrate the first coming of Christ in history, his birth. Hopefully this Advent Season will be a time of heightened prayer and expectation for all of us.

Ascension will be having a discussion of Pope Francis' encyclical, Laudato Si (Praised Be), On Care for our Common Home. In this lengthy encyclical, broadly addressed to "every person" who lives on Earth, the pope lays out a moral case for supporting sustainable economic and population growth as part of the church's mission and humanity's responsibility to protect God's creation for future generations. While saying that there have been natural causes to climate change over the earth's history, the letter also says in strong words that human activity and production of greenhouse gases are also to blame. The discussion on this encyclical and its meaning will be facilitated by a parishioner, Erin Lothes Bibiano, who is an assistant professor of theology at the College of Saint Elizabeth. Our discussion of the encyclical will, we hope, lead to prayer and action in support of our common home, the earth. The discussion will take place in the rectory at 7p.m. on Monday, December 7th. Please encourage others to come and by all means, come prepared with questions and observations.

This afternoon, the Charismatics of the parish are hosting their annual Advent Retreat. This day of prayer will begin with the 12:30 Mass. After the Mass, all are invited to the Center. The afternoon of prayer will continue until 5:00p.m. All are invited to attend.

A prayerful and blessed Advent to all.

Peace, Fr. Kearney

Queridos Feligreses y Amigos de la Ascensión,

Este fin de semana en la iglesia, iniciamos un nuevo tiempo litúrgico y un nuevo año litúrgico. Este fin de semana comenzamos el tiempo de Adviento. El Adviento tiene un doble carácter. La primera parte del Adviento (el primer domingo de Adviento hasta el 16 de diciembre) nos dirige a esperar la segunda venida de Cristo al final de los tiempos. El Adviento es, pues, un período de devota y alegre expectativa. La segunda parte del Adviento es a partir del 17 de diciembre hasta el 24 de diciembre. En esos días, las lecturas son muy especialmente pensadas para ayudarnos a prepararnos para celebrar la primera venida de Cristo en la historia, - su nacimiento. Esperemos que este tiempo de Adviento sea un momento de intensificación de la oración y la esperanza para todos nosotros.

Ascensión tendrá una discusión del Encíclica Laudato Si "del papa San Francisco", (alabado sea), sobre el cuidado de nuestro hogar común. En esta larga carta encíclica, ampliamente dirigida a "toda persona" que vive en la tierra, el papa se establece un caso moral para apoyar el desarrollo económico y el crecimiento de la población como parte de la misión de la iglesia y de la humanidad tiene la responsabilidad de proteger la creación de Dios para las futuras generaciones. Mientras decía que existían causas naturales para el cambio climático de la historia de la tierra, la carta también dice en palabras más fuertes que la actividad humana y la producción de gases de efecto invernadero también son responsables. El debate sobre esta encíclica y su significado será facilitado por un feligrés, Erin Lothes Bibiano, quien es un asistente profesora de la facultad de teología de la Universidad de San Elizabeth. Nuestra discusión de la encíclica, esperamos, conducirá a la oración y la acción en apoyo de nuestro hogar común, la tierra. El debate tendrá lugar en la rectoría a las 7:00 PM el Lunes, 7 de diciembre. Por favor anime a otros a venir y por todos los medios, venga preparado con preguntas y observaciones.

Esta tarde, los carismáticos de la parroquia están organizando su retiro anual en el tiempo de Adviento. Esta jornada de oración comenzará en la Misa de 12:30 PM. Después de la Misa, todos están invitados al Centro. La tarde de oración continuará hasta las 5:00 PM. Todos están invitados a asistir.

Un devoto y bendecido adviento para todos.

Paz, Padre Kearney

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
