two small coins

was all she had

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: I Kings 17:10-16

Elijah asked a widow for a cup of water and a piece of bread. She told him she was almost out of flour, and that she and her son would soon starve. Elijah told her not to be afraid, as God had told him the jar of flour would not go empty. So she did as he had asked and prepared bread from the last of her flour. As God had said, her jar did not go empty, and she and her son had plenty to eat.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

The high priests entered the sanctuary each year and offered a sacrifice, but not a sacrifice of their own blood. Just as people die once and are judged, Christ was offered up once for the sins of many.

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

Jesus expressed disgust over the hypocrisy of some of the scribes for wanting special treatment from the people. He watched the wealthy put large contributions into the collection box, but explained that what they gave was surplus wealth, and not a real sacrifice. He told them the biggest donation was a small amount from a widow, because she had given up the only money that she had to live on.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put two small coins worth a few cents...They have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.... ‘The jar of flour shall not run empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day the Lord sends rain upon the earth.’”

The psalmist asked ‘What return shall I Give the Lord for all He has given me?’ It is a question best left unanswered, as I ask myself ‘what do I have that is not a gift of God to me?’

The gift of life, of health, of family and friends, the gift to be able to get up, to pray, to do good for others. I should, not could, spend a long time pondering this question.

The two widows of the scriptures, the biblically dependent and persons who should be the object of our charity, gave the few cents, drops of oil and quantity of flour, and made a difference.

I claim to be a disciple, but often do the minimum of what is asked of me, worry about tomorrow when someone is in need today. Pope Francis speaks of a church of the poor to serve the poor. It might not be a copper coin or oil or flour, but certainly I can give of myself, as the celebrated women of the scriptures did to teach me.

TRIGESIMOSEGUNDO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Primera Lectura: 1 Reyes 17:10-16

Elías le pide a una viuda un vaso de agua y un pedazo de pan. Ella le dice que ya casi no tenía harina, y que ella y su hijo se morirían de hambre. Elías le dijo que no temiera, porque Dios le dijo que no se acabaría la harina. Hizo ella como se le pidió y preparó pan con lo último que quedaba de la harina. Como Dios había dicho, no se acabó la harina y ella y su hijo tuvieron suficiente para comer.

Segunda Lectura: Hebreos 9:24-28

Los grandes sacerdotes entraban al santuario cada año a ofrecer un sacrificio, pero no un sacrificio de su propia sangre. Así como la gente es juzgada al nomás morir, Cristo fué ofrecido una vez por los pecados de muchos.

Evangelio: San Marcos 12:38-44

Jesús expresó disgusto por la hipocresía de algunos de los escribas por desear tratamiento especial de la gente. Veía como los ricos ponían grandes contribuciones en la colecta, pero explicó que lo que daban era lo que tenían de más y no era verdadero sacrificio. Les dijo que la mayor donación fué una pequeña cantidad de una viuda, porque ella había dado el poco dinero que tenía para vivir.
