

Happy Tuesday Everyone! We wanted to make a few announcements in regards to things that will be going on here at the parish (i.e. or live streaming) as we continue to move forward with no public Masses

✝ Tomorrow is the Feast of the Annunciation! We will be live streaming a Mass tomorrow evening at 7pm on our Facebook page again. Please tune in and join us!

✝ On March 26th, we still plan on starting the Marian Consecration. If you have not grabbed your book yet, we will have some in the church and in the parish office. All the books are wrapped in plastic and we can continue social distancing as it is being asked of us. Please let us know if in the office if you take a book. You can leave a message on the Voicemail if you would like.

✝ We are asking that you please continue to remember that the church runs solely on your contributions. We are asking, if you are able, to please continue to contribute to the Church of St. Joseph. You can mail your contributions into the parish office, drop them in our 24 hour drop box (says "LETTERS") outside of the front rectory door, or you can make an online contribution here:
<https://www.stjosephmandan.com/contributions>

✝ The parish office will stay open for regular business hours for the time being. If you need to purchase SCRIPS, we will be happy to help you. Also, in regard to SCRIP, please see the bulletin for a new way of purchasing SCRIP that we are offering.

✝ The church will remain open for all of you to come and pray. Open hours will be Monday - Friday from 8:30am to 9pm. Our Lord is still in the tabernacle. Please come and visit!

✝ Confessions will continue to be heard from 3pm - 4pm on Saturdays. Please respect the social distancing and stay behind the screen.

✝ If you have a sacramental emergency, please reach out to Fr. Waltz at 701-471-5758. We miss you all here at the Church of St. Joseph! We will hopefully continue to put updates here and on our website as we need them. For now, stay healthy, stay safe, and God Bless you all! St. Joseph, PRAY FOR US!
