When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. - Lk 19:5-6
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The boundless love that God has for sinners shows forgiveness, with open arms even to the worst of us. In our story today Zacchaeus might have been the hated man in the community as a tax collector, yet Jesus made him feel special. “Hurry, come down, I must stay at your house today.” The encounter with Jesus made him mend his ways. He saw something more worthwhile in life than living with his money and possessions. His close contact with Jesus had awakened in him religious freedom to live freely with the light of Christ and the beautiful hope of salvation God gave us. Is there anybody beyond salvation? The message of Jesus is clear...the power to save has no limits, no boundaries. No past sins are ever shameful, no sin that cannot be cleansed, “for the Son of Man came to seek out and save the lost.” Let us show the world of His love!

La salvación ofrecida

El amor ilimitado que Dios tiene por los pecadores se manifiesta en el perdón, con los brazos abiertos incluso para los peores de nosotros. En nuestra historia de hoy, Zaqueo podría haber sido el hombre odiado en la comunidad como recaudador de impuestos, pero Jesús lo hizo sentir especial. “Date prisa, baja, debo quedarme en tu casa hoy”. El encuentro con Jesús lo hizo enmendar su vida. Descubrió algo más valioso en la vida que vivir con su dinero y posesiones. Su contacto cercano con Jesús había despertado en él la libertad religiosa de vivir libremente con la luz de Cristo y la hermosa esperanza de salvación que Dios nos dio. ¿Hay alguien que quede fuera del plan de salvación? El mensaje de Jesús es claro ... el poder de salvar no tiene límites. No tiene reservas. Ningún pecado pasado es vergonzoso, ningún pecado que no pueda ser limpiado, ”porque el Hijo del Hombre vino a buscar y salvar a los perdidos”.

¡Demostremos al mundo su amor!

Fr. David Vivero
Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“Christ loves us first. So much of the Christian life is as simple as that. Today’s Gospel is a prime example! “Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man … was seeking to see who Jesus was.” We may have gotten used to the story of Zacchaeus, this short, seemingly innocent man who climbs a sycamore tree in his desperate desire to see Jesus. But this colorful, children’s Bible illustration isn’t what the gathering crowd would have seen. They would have seen the white collar criminal. Tax collectors were notorious for extortion. They were collaborators with the oppressive Roman overlords, overcharging for taxes and skimming a cut off the top. And how does Jesus respond to this man?

“Come down quickly,” Jesus says, “for today I must stay at your house.” If you had been there, would you have believed it? No doubt there were other disciples in the city or, at the very least, kind, generous, and just people. “Good” people. But those aren’t the people Jesus chooses to share a meal with. Christ loves us first. He chooses Zacchaeus even before the man makes a public profession of his repentance.

“The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.” We may not be tax collectors and extortionists — I hope not! — but we all have elements of our lives that are lost. We have wounds from childhood, unresolved anxieties or attachments, daily fears. No matter how “put together” we are, we all have our lost moments. Some days, it may feel like we can’t see over the ways they crowd our inner life. Today’s Gospel invites us to do something a little strange. Don’t let your flaws, failures, or hang-ups prevent you from seeing Jesus. Take a deep breath. Go climb a tree, because Jesus is passing by. And he wants to stay in your heart today.

We Serve…

In December of 2014, Kevin Austin noticed quite a few billboards pop up in Fort Pierce with the message “Dear Santa, All I want for Christmas is to skip church! I’m too old for fairytales.” The billboards were paid for by a group called American Atheists, who made it a goal to rival the Knights of Columbus yearly “Keep Christ in Christmas” campaign.

To defend the message of the nativity, Austin spent hundreds out of pocket to install a billboard of his own. It read, “Merry Christmas! It’s my birthday. Join the celebration! rsvpjesus.org.” Then Austin heard a song by Becky Kelly and titled ‘Where’s the Line to See Jesus?’ As Austin recalled. “A small boy comes up to a woman in line to see Santa at a mall and says ‘It’s Christmas, it’s Jesus’ birthday. Where’s the line to see Jesus?’ I was moved. The song really says it all.”

This simple, yet profound song inspired Austin to take action against the increasing secularism around the Christmas season. Austin partnered with Mike Schmidt, member of the Knights of Columbus Council 7514, to install two living Nativity Scenes at malls in Jensen

Beach and Vero Beach in 2011. “We rented space at the malls and had a ‘Line to See Jesus’ in the middle of this public area,” Schmidt said.

The Living Nativities were a huge success. “We elevated the ‘Line to See Jesus’ to a larger scale event in 2018 at Lawnwood Stadium in Fort Pierce. There was music, food vendors, Christmas activities, toy and food drives, prayer and, of course, the Living Nativity,” Austin said. But that night, the couple and child who were supposed to play the part of the Holy Family in the Living Nativity were unable to make it. Austin recalled “I was in a panic thinking of how we could solve this problem, then we noticed another couple walking the track with a stroller. So I asked them to be our Mary, Joseph, and baby Jesus. The mother initially dismissed the idea, but her husband said he was raised Christian, so he volunteered his family to play the role of the Holy Family. That evening, his wife expressed to us how inspired she was by our mission.”

This year, there is a new addition to the billboards and Living Nativity campaign. Austin has created the Christwreath to represent the “rebirth of Christian family values.” It is a symbol of the new age for all to see and know that Christ is alive in our communities,” said Austin. “What do you call that thing that the priest is wearing?”

ALB - The alb is a long, white linen liturgical vestment with tapered sleeves. It is a garment (or robe) that is worn by the priest during the Holy Mass. It symbolizes the innocence and purity that should adorn the soul of the priest who ascends the altar.

AMICE - The amice is a liturgical vestment consisting of an oblong piece of white linen that is worn around the neck and shoulders and partly under the alb. The amice is associated with the "helm of salvation." While putting it on, the priest would say, "Lord, give me strength to conquer the temptations of the devil.

CHAUSIBLE - The chasuble is the vestment that is put on over all the others during Liturgical services. The Chasuble symbolizes the virtue of charity, and the yoke of unselfish service for the Lord, which the priest assumes at ordination.

CINCTURE - The cincture is the cord used as a belt to gird the Alb. It symbolizes the virtues of chastity and continence (meaning "the exercise of self constraint in sexual matters") required of the priest. It comes in many colors.

STOLE - Roman magistrates wore a long scarf when engaged in their official duties, just as our judges wear a court gown. Whenever a priest celebrates Mass or administers the Sacraments, he wears the stole as a sign that he is occupied with an official priestly duty. When placing the stole about his neck, in vesting for Mass, the priest begs God to give him on the last day the 'garment of immortality' that was forfeited by our sinful first parents.

Why We Celebrate All Souls Day
All Souls Day (Nov. 2nd) is a day in which we remember the poor souls in purgatory. Many times during the course of our lives, we remember to pray for certain loved ones, and maybe the loved ones of our friends, but seldom do we remember the other poor souls that need our prayers. These could be those who have no one to pray for them or those who were lonely in life. On this day we pray for them and can earn indulgences for them (Nov. 1-8) so that they might enter into the life of heaven.

Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel, Zacchaeus accepts our Lord joyfully; and the sign of his acceptance is his open house and his resolution to give half of his goods to the poor. Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you also show your acceptance of our Lord by joyfully sharing your goods with your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.”

Faith Formation
The Family Plus Faith monthly Sunday program is one of the newest programs offered to All Souls as an alternative to the traditional classroom program. The program brings families together monthly on Sunday mornings for 8:00AM Mass in our Historic Chapel. After Mass, participating families contribute to and share in a light breakfast before children and parents head off to individualized classes.

During this second gathering of the year, families focused on the Dignity of the Human Person, while children learned about the Circle of Grace, a new safe environment program launched via the Diocese of Orlando. Parents in turn went through a portion of the volunteer training for Diocesan Safe Environment. The Circle of Grace helps adults teach children to better protect the special person they are and to be respectful of others. It helps young people to recognize when they are safe or unsafe and know how to bring their concerns, fears and uncertainties to the trusted adults in their lives.

Through fun games and hands on activities Jr. DAWG participants get to know one another.

On October 23, DAWG joined up at St. Augustine parish with other youth groups from around the Diocese for a night of praise and worship.

DAWG activities continue to center around the major doctrinal themes of our faith. One week participants took part in a “Hunger Banquet” that focused on the distribution of wealth and a fair living wage. Participants were assigned to one of three demographic groups and received a meal based on that particular group’s income: wealthy, middle income or poverty/below poverty group. It was very interesting to see how this simulation played out. Definitely created some awareness in the teens.

“Wonderful seeing these different ministries carrying out God’s work.”

St. Charles Borromeo

This week’s saint was born in a castle to an aristocratic family. His father was a count, his mother a Medici, and his uncle a pope. He was industrious and extremely bright, and received advanced degrees in theology and law in his native northern Italy. Although he was brilliant, he also suffered from a speech impediment.

While a Cardinal in Rome, Saint Charles kept the Council of Trent in session when at several points it was on the verge of breaking up. Later, in his Archdiocese of Milan, he began the reform needed among both clergy and laity. He set a good example by allotting most of his income to charity. He forbade himself all luxury, and imposed severe penances upon himself. He sacrificed wealth, high honors, esteem, and influence to become poor. During the plague and famine of 1576, Borromeo tried to feed 60,000 to 70,000 people daily. Whereas the civil authorities fled from the plague, he stayed in the city, where he ministered to the sick and the dying, helping those in want.

Saint Charles spent his life and fortune in the service of the larger church and the people of his diocese. He directed and fervently enforced the decrees of the Council of Trent, fought tirelessly for peace in the wake of the storm caused by Martin Luther, founded schools for the poor, seminaries for clerics, hospitals for the sick, conducted synods, instituted children’s Sunday school, did great public and private penance, and worked among the sick and dying, leading his people by example.

Work and the heavy burdens of his high office affected Archbishop Borromeo’s health, leading to his death from a fever, at the age of 46. He is the Patron Saint of bishops, cardinals, seminarians, and spiritual leaders.

Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation
Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45 pm to 4:45 pm.

The Sacrament of Baptism
Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.

The Sacrament of Marriage
Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick
Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound
If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial
Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.
