“So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” - Mt 24:44
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Understanding Advent as a time of waiting and anticipation also means celebrating Christ coming into the world incarnated in the flesh of an infant but also Christ second coming into the world. As we look to experience His coming, Advent calls us both to renew and prepare with joyful anticipation and confidence facing the events of our lives.

Each time we celebrate the Mass we strengthen our relationship with God in each other. In the most practical way, it also led us to cooperate in Christ’s mission to establish the Kingdom of God accompanying His coming.

Here at All Souls as we develop a plan that inspired us through your cooperation, your knowledge and understanding of our community fires up our desires to continue, to steer, and propel our work, as together we create the kind of beautiful, faith-filled, welcoming and loving Parish we want for our futures and those of our children and families. Thank You!

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

El Adviento es un tiempo de esperanza y anticipación. Si verdaderamente entendemos el significado de esta temporada, entonces sabemos que significa festejar la venida de Cristo al mundo, encarnado en la carne y hueso de un bebé, pero también Su segunda venida a este mundo. A medida que vivimos esperando su regreso, el Adviento nos llama a renovarnos y prepararnos con anticipación gozosa y con confianza en relación a los eventos de nuestras propias vidas.

Cada vez que celebramos la misa, fortalecemos nuestra relación con Dios y entre nosotros. De la manera más práctica, esto también nos lleva a cooperar en la misión de Cristo para establecer el reino de Dios, al prepararnos para Su regreso.

Aquí, en la parroquia de All Souls, hemos desarrollado un plan que fue inspirado por ustedes, y por su cooperación, sabiduría y entendimiento de nuestra comunidad. Y este plan enardece nuestros deseos de continuar, maniobrar y propulsar nuestra labor, para crear una hermosa parroquia, llena de fe, cariñosa, y acogedora – la parroquia que queremos para nuestro futuro y el futuro de nuestros hijos y familias. ¡Gracias!

Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“I’m never getting enough rest!” How can I possibly be ‘asleep’?” In a world of jam-packed schedules and high anxiety levels, physical rest may be hard to come by. Yet relentless pursuit of our to-do lists and social calendars may keep our minds off of the things that really matter. Jesus knows all too well a pattern of busy, harried ignorance. “In those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage … they did not know until the flood came and carried them all away … two men will be out in the field … two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left.” When it comes to the spiritual life, we can be at work or at relaxation and still be spiritually asleep.

Each year, we are called back to remember the essential things. God comes to save His people. He becomes flesh to dwell among us. Supernatural light pierces the world’s darkness and our own. Advent wakes us up. “Stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.”

Every Advent, we prepare to celebrate Christ’s first coming at Christmas, and we anticipate his second coming at the end of time.

“At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” There’s another hour, too, both known and unknown. It’s the present moment. Whether it’s a lazy Saturday morning or a major business proposal, whether it’s attending a kindergarten play or an elderly relative’s bedside, at every moment the Lord wants to enter into our hearts. This Advent, let’s pray for the grace to stay alert. Christ is coming soon. ©LPi

We Serve...

The Mission Office has helped build a sister relationship based on love, faith, trust, hope, and respect between the Diocese of Orlando in Florida and the Diocese of San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic.

- We have built 4 elementary schools
- 420 students receive top-notch education in our schools
- We have trained and currently employ 36 teachers
- We sponsor 41 students for high school programs

This is all possible because of the generous donations of supplies, time and money from people across the diocese. The Mission Office thanks you for your generosity!

Welcome! All Are Welcome Here

If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls Loves Visitors!

We accept anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: allsouls-sanford.org. Why not sign up today? We love new members!

Our Parish, Our Future...

All Souls “Parish Priority Plan”

Where Do We Go Next?
As Advent opens to a new season of expectation, so too are opening ourselves to the new expectations for our Parish’s future. The real question is... “what expectations do we have for ourselves?” WE ARE THE PARISH! What we become... what we do... as we grow... so goes our Parish.

In the previous Bulletin, there was a flyer with an outline of the Parish Priority Plan, at the end of which were a few suggestions of simple things we can all do in our daily lives. Now it’s time to go a little deeper and consider what purposeful expectations we have for ourselves, which will in turn transform our Parish. We know... a we want to grow in our faith; b we want to have a vibrant Mass experience ; c we want to be giving and share our gifts; and d we want to put our good intentions into action.

To help you in this self-exploration process, we’ve listed a few suggestions below. Read and reflect upon them, then ask yourself... “where do I see myself?” In next week’s column, we’ll go one step further along our spiritual journey, by providing a more complete guide. Until then, let us expectantly ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and inspiration!

What Can I Do Next?

Find a little quiet time to listen to the whisperings of the Holy Spirit speaking in your heart. (Finding time in our busy lives is probably one of the hardest things to do, but the most important things in life are seldom the urgent.)

Try attending Mass regularly. For some that might be every Sunday, for others it might be every day. (Recent studies have shown that only about a third of Catholics believe in the true presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist! What a tragedy. A miracle takes place in every Mass, on every Sunday, when the host is transformed into His true body and blood. Go see Him.)

Pray the Rosary once a day... while you’re in the car, in the shower, in bed at night, etc. (It takes only 20 min.) (Our Lady of Fatima told us to pray, pray, pray the Rosary. Padre Pio called it his “weapon” against spiritual evil. It’s even online for your phone, as an audio file! It calms our minds and lifts our hearts. Try it!)

Read a little scripture, just before bed or when you get up. The Lord’s word guides us whenever we ask. (Some like to open the Bible to a random page and read until they’re struck by a thought; others like to read straight through, from start to finish. It’s all good! If you don’t know where to start, go for the New Testament – you’ll find Jesus there.)

Join the army! You know, the spiritual army. Other like-minded, fellow parishioners who serve in one or more of the 50+ fabulous ministries of our Parish. (It’s fun, there’s sharing and good times, you’ll make new friends, and you’ll grow spiritually by serving others - in ways you never imagined!)

Donations for Santa’s Workshop

Our annual Santa’s Workshop will be happening soon! We need donations of nice gifts, small and large! Women’s, men's and, children’s gifts - all are welcome. Your donation will help our children shop for moms and dads, siblings, grandparents, and other family members. (Please send only new and/or slightly used items.)

We are also in need of Christmas gift bags (all sizes)! And, lots of tissue paper, along with stick on tags. We won’t turn down wrapping paper and tape but we REALLY NEED GIFT BAGS.

All donations can be dropped off at the Parish Office: 301 W. 8th Street, Sanford

Vincentian Reflections

“There is an Advent spirit in the heart of every human person. It is one of longing, of yearning for a fulfillment that somehow lies beyond us; for we long for the coming of the Lord. As you make your gift to St. Vincent de Paul, your heart will discover the true meaning of Christmas as you help those who are suffering and poor to long for the coming of the Lord.”

Coordinator for Family Life Committee Needed

Open your ears! Is God calling you to step out of the box and use your talents to lead the Family Life Committee??

The Family Life committee is in need of a new coordinator! The Coordinator leads the Family Life committee in planning social, spiritual, and service events for the parish. These events include managing Kids Games at the Harvest Festival and planning the Annual Easter Egg Hunt. The Family Life committee has great potential for growth. New ideas and enthusiastic leadership is encouraged! Mentoring and support would be provided by the outgoing leader and current committee. Please prayerfully consider joining the team! St. Nicholas (March 15, 270 – December 6, 343)

The absence of the “hard facts” of history is not necessarily an obstacle to the popularity of saints, as the devotion to Saint Nicholas shows. Both the Eastern and Western Churches honor him, and it is claimed that after the Blessed Virgin, he is the saint most pictured by Christian artists. And yet historically, we can pinpoint only the fact that Nicholas was the fourth-century bishop of Myra, a city in Lycia, a province of Asia Minor.

As with many of the saints, however, we are able to capture the relationship which Nicholas had with God through the admiration which Christians have had for him—an admiration expressed in the colorful stories which have been told and retold through the centuries.

Perhaps the best-known story about Nicholas concerns his charity toward a poor man who was unable to provide dowries for his three daughters of marriageable age. Rather than see them forced into prostitution, Nicholas secretly tossed a bag of gold through the poor man—further expanding the example of generosity portrayed by this holy bishop.

expectativas, nosotros también nos abrimos a las nuevas expectativas para el futuro de nuestra parroquia. La verdadera pregunta es ... "¿qué expectativas tenemos para nosotros mismos?" SOMOS LA PARROQUIA! Lo que nos convertimos ... lo que hacemos ... a medida que crecemos ... así va nuestra parroquia.

En el Boletín anterior, había un volante con un resumen del Plan de Prioridad De La Parroquia, al final del cual había algunas sugerencias de cosas simples que todos podemos hacer en nuestra vida diaria. Ahora es el momento de profundizar un poco más y considerar qué expectativas intencionales tenemos para nosotros mismos, lo que a su vez transformará nuestra Parroquia. Sabemos que queremos...

Para ayudarlos en este proceso de autoexploración, a continuación enumeramos algunas sugerencias. Léelo y reflexione sobre ellos, luego pregúntese ...

¿dónde me veo? En la columna de la próxima semana, iremos un paso más allá en nuestro viaje espiritual, proporcionando una guía más completa. Hasta entonces, ¡solícitemos expectante al Espíritu Santo orientación e inspiración!

¿Qué puedo hacer a continuación?

- Encuentre un momento tranquilo para escuchar los susurros del Espíritu Santo hablando en su corazón. (Encontrar tiempo en nuestras vidas ocupadas es probablemente una de las cosas más difíciles de hacer, pero las cosas más importantes en la vida rara vez son urgentes).
- Intenta asistir a Misa regularmente. Para algunos eso podría ser todos los domingos, para otros podría ser todos los días.
- Lea parte de una Sagrada Escritura, justo antes de acostarse o cuando se levante. La palabra del Señor nos guía cuando pedimos.
- Reza el Rosario una vez al día ... mientras estás en el auto, en la ducha, en la cama por la noche, etc. (solo toma 20 minutos)
- Alistarse en el ejército! Ya sabes, el ejército espiritual. Otros feli-greses de ideas afines que sirven en uno o más de los más de 50 fabulosos ministerios de nuestra parroquia.
- ¡Alistarse en el ejército! Ya sabes, el ejército espiritual. Otros feli-greses de ideas afines que sirven en uno o más de los más de 50 fabulosos ministerios de nuestra parroquia.
- (Es divertido, hay compartir y buenos momentos, harás nuevos amigos y crecerás espir-ituualmente sirviendo a los demás, ¡de formas que nunca imaginaste!)

And Jesus Said...

“Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.” - Mt 24:43-44

“Tengan por cierto que si un padre de familia supiera a qué hora va a venir el ladrón, estaría vigilando y no dejaría que se le metiera por un boquete en su casa. También ustedes estén preparados, porque a la hora que menos lo piensen, vendrá el Hijo del hombre”. - Mt 24, 43-44
