“John wore clothing made of camel’s hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.” - Mt 3:4
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Mary, is Our Immaculate Advent

This season of expectant waiting and preparation for the birth of Christ and His second coming indicates not only an early beginning of a period but also a renewed commitment to those who believed in the covenant of God who brings light into the world. This period of renewal and commitment brought about by the light of Christ, also points to an advent of faith and action, a true and trusting disciple destined to be formed from the moment of her conception. Mary’s Immaculate Conception was not just a carrier of the message but also of the One who was incarnated for us, spurs us to awaken our Christian life, allowing us to grow spiritually, proclaiming and learning the good news of the Gospels through our devotions, share our gifts, and put into action our intentions.

Where do we go and what can we do next?

Few weeks ago our parish outlined Priority Plan which includes a few suggestions of things we can do in our simple daily lives. It prompted us to participate in making our prayers and vocations part of our daily living, for this is what it means to live in a true life with God and the real meaning of our weekend experience. This week we are about to embark in finding out where we belong and what can we do next. A self-information Matrix tool; published as an insert in the bulletin is available and is at all Masses this weekend and the next to help us in our discernment with instructions and resources both in English and Spanish.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

María, es Nuestra Inmaculada Concepción

Esta temporada de expectante espera y preparación para el nacimiento de Cristo y Su segunda venida significa no solamente el temprano comienzo de un periodo, sino también la renovación del compromiso con aquellos que creyeron en el convenio de Dios, quien trae luz a este mundo. Este tiempo de renovación y compromiso que nos trae la luz de Cristo, también nos señala un Adviento de fe y acción, a un discípulo verdadero y leal que estuvo destinado a formarse desde el momento de su concepción. La concepción inmaculada de María no fue solamente un portavoz del mensaje, sino también de Aquel que se encarnó por nosotros, El que nos incita a despertar a nuestras vidas cristianas, permitiéndonos crecer espiritualmente, proclamando y aprendiendo la Buena noticia de los Evangelios por medio de devociones, del compartimiento de nuestros dones, y del poner en acción nuestras intenciones.

¿Dónde y qué podemos hacer proximamente?

Hace unas semanas, nuestra parroquia delineó un Plan de Prioridades, el cual incluye algunas sugerencias de cosas que podemos hacer en nuestras vidas diarias. Este nos alentó a participar en el simple acto de incorporar nuestras plegarias y vocaciones a nuestra vida cotidiana – porque esto es lo que significa vivir una verdadera vida con Dios y practicar el verdadero significado de nuestras experiencias de fin de semana. Esta semana, estamos por embarcarnos en una nueva etapa de la jornada – entender donde pertenecemos y que podemos hacer proximamente. Una nueva Matriz de Autoinformación se encuentra en un encarte en el boletín. Esta nos representa una herramienta para ayudarnos a discernir nuestro lugar, con instrucciones y recursos en Inglés y Español. Encontrarán esta matriz en el encarte, en todas las misas este fin de semana y el próximo.

What does it mean to be worthy?

There are a few different ways to approach this question. Today’s Gospel highlights two: the way of the Pharisees and the way of John the Baptist. Our faith values good works and discipleship. Perhaps, then, we “earn” our worth by adhering to the right doctrines and following the right pious practice. The Pharisees thought they were worthy. Due to their religious pedigree and proper procedures, they were self-satisfied. John the Baptist’s words to them are strong. “Do not resume to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’” Of course, Jesus (and John) don’t omit the responsibility for moral behavior. John gives the Pharisees quite a strong warning in that regard. “Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance … every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

It’s a question of attitude. Of disposition. It’s a matter of the heart. If anyone would be worthy in this scenario, it’s John the Baptist. Jesus himself will name him the greatest of prophets and a great man. John, however, recognizes his own lowly place in the grand scheme of things. “The one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals.” The Pharisees take pride in being “better” than others. John embraces humility in Christ being “better” than him. We don’t self-generate our own worthiness. We receive it as a gift from God.

In a few short weeks, we’ll celebrate the birth of Christ. Bishop Ven. Fulton Sheen wrote about the Nativity in his “Life of Christ”: “Because [Jesus] was born in a cave, all who wish to see Him must stoop. To stoop is the mark of humility. The proud refuse to stoop and, therefore, they miss divinity.” God invites us to prepare our hearts this Advent. When you consider your own life, where are you looking for your worth? This Christmas, are you prepared to stoop? ©LPI

All Are Welcome Here

If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls Loves Visitors!

We accept anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Registration cards may be found in the narthex of the church or chapel, the parish office during the week, or online at our parish website: allsoulsanford.org. Why not sign up today? Orlando Diocese launches initiative to assure Sacraments to those with special needs

The driving force behind this initiative is Spiritual growth and a relationship with Jesus Christ. (For more info: www.orlandodiocese.org/)

We Serve...
The Diocese of Orlando has a long history of serving as a pioneer for those with special needs. Beginning with the establishment of Morning Star Catholic School in 1960, it was the first school in the area to offer education for the disabled.

Now the Diocese of Orlando is starting another new initiative to address the needs of the disabled community within the sacramental life of the Church. The goal is to ensure that those with special needs are active participants in their parish communities because they are an integral part of the Body of Christ.

The Diocese will be helping parishes with training and helping catechists have the best resources and knowledge to serve those with disabilities to receive the Sacraments.

“Prepare The Way...”
This week, we hear John the Baptist’s call to prepare the way of the Lord. What might we all do to personally prepare the way? How can we walk with Mary and Joseph toward Bethlehem? Consider offering a spiritual gift of reflection, for this Advent Season, to the Baby Jesus.

Self-Reflection Matrix
In this Self-Reflection Matrix, you’ll find different categories where you might focus on your spiritual journey. You’ll also find where you might be on this Journey to Bethlehem. Spend a few moments in reflection, then circle the boxes in each category that best reflect where you are in your own Journey to Bethlehem.

Next, write down on the card the category where you are first beginning your journey—where you are Exploring or Getting Started, and then the area where Bethlehem is most in sight for you—where you are Going Deeper or Centering on Christ. Do not put your name on this card—it is personal between you and Our Lord.

Remove this card and place it in the offertory basket. This will be your Advent Gift to the Baby Jesus. Continue to think and pray about your journey. Ask God to help you with this process.

In the coming weeks, we will provide resources to help you take more steps, wherever you might be on your Discipleship Journey.

“Preparar el Camino...”
Esta semana, escuchamos el llamado de Juan el Bautista para preparar el camino del Señor. ¿Qué podríamos hacer todos para preparar personalmente el camino? ¿Cómo podemos caminar con María y José hacia Belén? Considere ofrecer un regalo espiritual de reflexión, para esta temporada de Adviento, al Niño Jesús.

Matriz de Auto-Reflexión
En esta Matriz de Auto-Reflexión, encontrará diferentes categorías en las que podría centrarse en su viaje espiritual. También encontrarás dónde podría estar en este Viaje a Belén. Dedique unos momentos a reflexionar, luego encierre en un círculo las casillas de cada categoría que mejor reflejen dónde se encuentra en su propio Viaje a Belén.

Luego, escriba en la tarjeta la categoría en la que está comenzando su viaje, donde está Explorando o Comenzando, y luego el área donde Belén está más a la vista para usted, donde se está Profundizando o Centrándose en Cristo. No ponga su nombre en esta tarjeta, es personal entre usted y Nuestro Señor.

Retire esta tarjeta y colóquela en la canasta del ofertorio. Este será su regalo de Adviento para el Niño Jesús. Continúe pensando y orando sobre su viaje. Pidale a Dios que lo ayude con este proceso.

En las próximas semanas, le proporcionaremos recursos para ayudarlo a dar más pasos, donde sea que se encuentre en su Viaje de Discípulado.

Donations for Santa’s Workshop
Our annual Santa’s Workshop will be happening soon! We need donations of nice gifts, small and large! Women’s, men’s, and children’s gifts - all are welcome. Your donation will help our children shop for moms and dads, siblings, grandparents, and other family members. (Please send only new and/or slightly used items.)

We are also in need of Christmas gift bags (all sizes)! And, lots of tissue paper, along with stick on tags. We won’t turn down wrapping paper and tape but we REALLY NEED GIFT BAGS.

Advent Prayer

God of timeless grace, you fill us with joyful expectation. Make us ready for the message that prepares the way, that with uprightness of heart and holy joy we may eagerly await the kingdom of your Son, Jesus Christ, who reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.
Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel, John the Baptist urges us to “Prepare the way of the Lord.” This is what Advent is all about, for we are called to help prepare the way of the Lord by making the real meaning of Christmas come alive in our own hearts, in our family and to reach out to those in need. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so together we can help the suffering and poor to celebrate Christmas.”

Our Lady of Guadalupe (1531)

The Story of Our Lady of Guadalupe
The feast in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe goes back to the 16th century. Chronicles of that period tell us the story.

A poor Indian named Cuauhtlatohuac was baptized and given the name Juan Diego. He was a 57-year-old widower, and lived in a small village near Mexico City. On Saturday morning December 9, 1531, he was on his way to a nearby barrio to attend Mass in honor of Our Lady.

Juan was walking by a hill called Tepeyac when he heard beautiful music like the warbling of birds. A radiant cloud appeared, and within it stood an Indian maiden dressed like an Aztec princess. The lady spoke to him in his own language and sent him to the bishop of Mexico, a Franciscan named Juan de Zumarraga. The bishop was to build a chapel in the place where the lady appeared. Eventually the bishop told Juan to have the lady give him a sign. About this same time Juan’s uncle became seriously ill. This led poor Juan to try to avoid the lady. Nevertheless the lady found Juan, assured him that his uncle would recover, and provided roses for Juan to carry to the bishop in his cape or tilma.

On December 12, when Juan Diego opened his tilma in the bishop’s presence, the roses fell to the ground, and the bishop sank to his knees. On the tilma where the roses had been appeared an image of Mary exactly as she had appeared at the hill of Tepeyac.

Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation
Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 3:45 pm to 4:45 pm.

The Sacrament of Baptism
Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.

The Sacrament of Marriage
Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick
Please call the parish office. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. Did you know that the Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again? A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound
If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Catholic Funeral and Burial
Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

Rezamos Juntos

Jesús, María y José Cordialmente los invita todos los lunes de cada mes a las 7:15pm, en la Capilla Histórica, para 1 hora de Oración, Rosario, y Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento.

And Jesus Said...

John wore clothing made of camel’s hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. At that time Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole region around the Jordan were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. - Mt 3:4-6

Juan usaba una túnica de pelo de camello, ceñida con un cinturón de cuero, y se alimentaba de saltamontes y de miel silvestre. Acudían a oírlo los habitantes de Jerusalén, de toda Judea y de toda la región cercana al Jordán; confesaban sus pecados y él los bautizaba en el río. - Mt 3, 4-6
