Be Our Light
For The New Year

Come, Holy Spirit, Spirit of the Risen Christ, be with us today and always. Be our Light, our Guide, and our Comforter. Be our Strength, our Courage, and our Sanctifier. May this New Year be a time of deep spiritual growth for us, a time of welcoming your graces and gifts, a time for forgiving freely and unconditionally, a time for growing in virtue and goodness. Come, Holy Spirit, Be with us today and always.
A MESSAGE FROM Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

“Rise and take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel and stay there until I tell you.”

On the heels of Christmas, the Feast of the Holy Family confronts Joseph, Mary & Jesus of the share of troubles and hardships which caused them great worry. What saved the Holy Family? Divine Intervention and Human Response. 2) Joseph’s obedience to the 1) commandment of God by the message of an angel was given to us, as a gift. The displacements of persons and change of locations narrated in the gospel mirrors the experiences of some families and Christians, just as the community of Matthew would experience and now, us. Loss of a job, displacements of refugees and immigrants, divorce, and separations, etc.

The Feast of the Holy Family offers a perspective for reflection and action through a twofold movement from Divine Intervention of God (Divine Act) to Human Response (Joseph’s Obedience & Courage). The Feast day may after all reveal the drama of our salvation in real life. How are we responding to God’s invitation to become missionary disciples? Am I helping our community live in Faith and Obedience to God?

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

“Lévantate y toma al niño y a su madre, y vete a la tierra de Israel, y permanece en ella hasta que yo te diga.”

Con la Navidad acercándose, la Celebración de La Sagrada Familia, José, María y Jesús enfrentan problemas y dificultades, esto les trae una gran preocupación. ¿Qué salvo a la Sagrada Familia? La Intervención Divina y la Respuesta Humana. La obediencia de José al mandato de Dios a través de un ángel como un regalo para nosotros.

La substitución de personas y el cambio de lugares narrado por el evangelio refleja las experiencias de algunas familias y de los Cristianos, tal como la comunidad de Mateo experimentaría ahora con nosotros. Por ejemplo: la pérdida de trabajo, el desplazamiento de refugiados e inmigrantes, el divorcio, las separaciones, etc.

La Celebración de La Sagrada Familia ofrece una perspectiva para reflexionar y actuar a través de dos movimientos, la Intervención Divina de Dios, (Acto Divino), y a la Respuesta Humana, (la Obediencia y el Valor de José). El día de la Celebración, después de todo nos revelará el suceso de nuestra salvación en la vida real.

¿Cómo nosotros estamos respondiendo a la invitación de Dios para convertirnos en sus disípulos misioneros? ¿Estoy yo ayudando a mi comunidad a vivir con Fe y a Obedecer a Dios?
Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

“Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you.”

725 kilometers. That’s the distance on modern roads from Bethlehem to Cairo. Assuming one covered 40km a day on foot — ambitious for two young parents and their infant son — the journey would take well over two weeks. Of course, the Holy Family didn’t have modern roads. They would travel through wilderness, fear bandits, run low on water, and cross the vast Sinai Peninsula in a reverse of their forefathers in Exodus. Here, in struggle and sacrifice, are the beginnings of the forging of the Holy Family.

“Joseph rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed for Egypt. He stayed there until the death of Herod.” Large Jewish communities existed in most major cities of the ancient Mediterranean world, after the collapse of their forefathers in Exodus. Here, in struggle and sacrifice, are the beginnings of the forging of the Holy Family.

We Serve...
The students of All Souls Catholic School Lead the way in Service! Our All Souls Catholic School “Bears”, in Grades 2 through 5, collected 346 pairs of socks in only 5 days for families in need! They take up the charge of our mission statement to “live a life of leadership, service and compassion.” Socks are one of the most requested items at homeless shelters. Consider giving a pair to someone in need, in 2020.

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. God took on our humanity. He is in solidarity with our own trials and difficulties. On the feast of the Holy Family, we honor the special place of the family within society. We are invited, too, to recall those families who share in the struggles of the Holy Family in a particular way. We pray for immigrants, asylum seekers, and refugees. We pray for all parents who sacrifice their own well-being and comfort so their children may have a better life. ©LPi

Stewardship As A Way of Life

“Through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, every Christian is called to participate actively and co-responsibly in the Church’s mission of salvation in the world. Moreover, in those same sacraments, the Holy Spirit pours out gifts that make it possible for every Christian man and woman to assume different ministries and forms of service that complement one another and are for the good of all.” (cf. Christifideles Laici, no. 20)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today as we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family, we see examples of Family Stewardship in the Readings: God’s call, through Sirach, to honor and care for our parents, especially in their old age; God’s call, through St. Paul, for family members to honor each other; and God’s call, through dream, for St. Joseph to protect his wife, Mary, and the Infant Jesus from Herod.

In these readings, we are shown how to be good stewards over what God has entrusted to our care. For it is in partnering together and practicing Stewardship as a Way of Life every day—by listening to and answering God’s call—that we build the Kingdom of God in our community and our world. Our parish discipleship journey sends us out to Pray, Love, and Serve… Glorifying God with Our Lives!

Your parish invites you now to be a Christian Steward of your God-given gifts. If we ALL do one small thing with great love and faith on a regular basis, together we will make a huge difference!

Abundant thanks to all of you who have already answered His call and committed a sacred portion of your Time & Talent to our church for the 2019-2020 year. We are truly grateful to you.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Hoy, el día de la Celebración de la Sagrada Familia, nosotros vemos el ejemplo de la mayordomía en familia en las lecturas: El llamado de Dios, a través de Sirach, para honrar y cuidar a nuestros padres, especialmente cuando envejecen; El llamado de Dios, a través de San Pablo, que las familias se honren los unos a los otros; y el llamado a través del sueño de José de proteger de Herod a su esposa y a su niño Jesús.

En estas lecturas, nos enseña a cómo ser buenos en la mayordomía sobre lo que Dios nos ha encomendado. Porque debemos colaborar mutuamente y practicar la Mayordomía como un Estilo de Vida cada día - escuchando y respondiendo al llamado de Dios-que construyamos el Reino de Dios en nuestra comunidad y en nuestro mundo. La jornada del discipulado de nuestra parroquia nos dice que Recemos, Amemos y Sirvamos…¡Glorificando a Dios con nuestras vidas!

Tu parroquia te invita ahora a que seas una persona que trabaje en la Mayordomía Cristiana con los dones que Dios te ha dado. ¡Si TODOS hicieramos una pequeña cosa con gran amor y fe regularmente, juntos haríamos una gran diferencia!

Muchas gracias a todo aquél que ya ha contestado su llamado y se ha comprometido a una sagrada porción de su Tiempo y Talento a nuestra iglesia para el año 2019-2020. Nosotros les estamos sinceramente agradecidos.

Vincentian Reflections

“Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. We hear the words: “The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.” During this New Year may we also grow in wisdom and have the favor of God upon us by remembering to take care of our suffering brothers and sisters.”

And Jesus Said...

When Herod had died, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, “Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child’s life are dead.” He rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. - Mt 2:19-21

St. Thomas Becket

A strong man who wavered for a moment, but then learned one cannot come to terms with evil, and so became a strong churchman, a martyr, and a saint—that was Thomas Becket, archbishop of Canterbury, murdered in his cathedral on December 29, 1170.

His career had been a stormy one. While archdeacon of Canterbury, he was made chancellor of England at the age of 36 by his friend King Henry II. When Henry felt it advantageous to make his chancellor the archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas gave him fair warning: he might not accept all of Henry’s intrusions into Church affairs. Nevertheless, in 1162 he was made archbishop, resigned his chancellorship, and reformed his whole way of life!

Troubles began. Henry insisted upon usurping Church rights. At one time, supposing some conciliatory action possible, Thomas momentarily approved the Constitutions of Clarendon, which would have denied the clergy the right of trial by a Church court and prevented them from making direct appeal to Rome. But Thomas rejected the Constitutions, fled to France for safety, and remained in exile for seven years. When he returned to England he suspected it would mean certain death. Because Thomas refused to remit censures he had placed upon bishops favored by the king, Henry cried out in a rage, “Will no one rid me of this troublesome priest?” Four knights, taking his words as his wish, slew Thomas in the Canterbury cathedral. Thomas Becket remains a hero-saint down to our own times.

This Week’s Catholic Resources

Eucharistic Miracles: The Real Presence of Christ

Siena, Italy - August 17, 1370
Consecrated Hosts remain perfectly preserved for over 250 years. Rigorous scientific experiments have not been able to explain this phenomena.

Blanot, France - March 31, 1331
The Eucharist falls out of a woman’s mouth onto an altar rail cloth. The priest tries to recover the Host but all that remains is a large spot of blood the same size and dimensions as the water.

Bolsena-Orvieto, Italy
A priest has difficulties believing in the Real Presence, and blood begins seeping out of the Host upon consecration. Because of this miracle, Pope Urban IV commissioned the feast of Corpus Christi, which is still celebrated today.

Amsterdam, Holland 1345
Eucharist thrown into fire overnight miraculously is unscathed.

Tixtla, Mexico - October 21, 2006
Host bleeds AB blood (continues); also contains living, human heart tissue.

Lanciano, Italy - 8th Century A.D.
A priest has doubts about the Real Presence; however, when he consecrates the Host it transforms into flesh and blood. This miracle has undergone extensive scientific examination and can only be explained as a miracle. The flesh is actually cardiac tissue which contains arterioles, veins, and nerve fibers. The blood type as in all other approved Eucharistic miracles is type AB! Histological micrographs are shown.
