“Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

- Mt 4:19
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Repent and Come after Me!

Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen.

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

This great light proclaimed in the gospel symbolizes Israel’s deliverance and freedom. The darkness referred to, is a political reality of oppression and injustice in the lives of people. It is by situating Jesus in this darkness that a great light has dawned upon our humanity.

This change of mindset, confronted by the new vision of Christ demands, repentance and discipleship—Repent and Follow Me!

As Jesus presents a new vision, so All Souls presents a new Vision-Mission-Purpose and Mission for everyone. New Spiritual steps and exercises are available to us all.

Should we invite God in our planning and conversations? Are we mindful of God’s greatness and blessings? What are we all prepared to do? How often do we reflect on our call to proclaim God’s word and put it into action?

We also join today Bishop Noonan in welcoming the theme for Catholic Schools Week 2020: “Living in Harmony with God’s Creation”.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

¡Arrepiéntanse y siganme!

¡Tierra de Zabulón, tierra de Neftalí, camino del mar, allende el Jordán, Galilea de los gentiles! El pueblo que habitaba en tinieblas ha visto una gran luz; a los que habitaban en paraje de sombras de muerte una luz les ha amanecido. Desde entonces comenzó Jesús a predicar y decir: “Convertíos, porque el Reino de los Cielos ha llegado.”

Esta gran luz proclamada en los Evangelios simboliza la liberación y libertad de Israel. La oscuridad a la que se refiere es la realidad política de la opresión e injusticia en la vida de la gente. En situar a Jesús en medio de esta oscuridad, amanece una gran luz sobre la humanidad.

El cambio en la mentalidad, enfrentado por la nueva visión de Cristo, demanda arrepentimiento y discipulado - ¡Arrepiéntanse y siganme!

Al igual que Jesús presenta una nueva visión, así también All Souls presenta una nueva Visión-Misión-Propósito para todos. Hay nuevos pasos y ejercicios espirituales disponibles para todos nosotros.

¿Debemos invitar a Dios en nuestros planes y conversaciones? ¿Estamos consientes de la grandeza de Dios y de sus bendiciones? ¿Qué estamos preparados para hacer? ¿Cuán seguido reflejamos en nuestro llamado para proclamar la palabra de Dios y ponerla en acción?

Hoy también nos unimos al obispo Noonan en darle la bienvenida al tema para el año 2020 para la semana de escuelas católicas: “Viviendo en armonía con la creación de Dios”.

“With a recent Pew Research survey indicating many Catholics don’t believe the church’s core teaching of the Eucharist, I’ve got a story to tell.

Years ago, I was diagnosed with a rare blood cancer. My medical team suggested we ‘watch and wait’, delaying treatment until absolutely necessary. “We have one bullet to shoot this with,” my oncologist said. “We don’t want to use it too soon. If we do, when the cancer returns, as it always does, there’s nothing we can do for you.” Months later, my health weakened. My bones ached. My head hurt. Fatigue reigned. My medical team watched closely.

Back then, our oldest daughter was graduating from eighth grade at our parish school. The registration deadline for the Catholic high school, our school of choice, was fast approaching. However, the fear of cancer raised doubts. What if medical bills consumed our finances? What if I was too sick to function? What if I was too weak to drive her to school?

So, one particular weekday, struggling with those uncertainties, a nagging inner voice insisted I attend Mass. I resisted, but finally grabbed the car keys.

Why am I doing this? A strange force seemed to propel me. By the time I get there, I will have missed my (then) favorite part, the homily.

Finally, arriving at church, I parked my car and raced inside. The click of the heavy door closing behind me was the only audible sound in the hushed sanctuary.

I stood in the back, somewhat removed from the tiny congregation. Yep, I missed the sermon. The priest was on the altar. I watched in silence as he washed his hands, whispered prayers, and elevated the host.

Then it happened.

A mysterious presence surrounded me. Someone was there, beside me. I sensed it, just like, even with your eyes closed, you can feel someone hovering over you. It was a definitive energy; a distinct presence.

Focus On Missionary Discipleship:
God is Growing The Church
In Incredible Ways

By Your Missionary Discipleship Team

“The fastest-growing Christian Church right now is in Iran. There is no central leadership, no formal buildings, and it’s led mostly by women. In the opinion of some researchers, the Church in Europe and America could learn much by studying it.”

Is this statement shocking to you? It shocked us when we first read it. It renewed our sense of wonder at how God works in our world, to bring about the conversion of people living in one of the most inhospitable places to Christianity on earth. Even more shocking is the fact that the missionary disciples working to bring Christ to others in Iran, are simply people like you and us. No central leadership, no buildings, no property... just faith and the Holy Spirit working through good people to speak God’s inspired word. And, it is predominantly led by polite, soft-spoken, even gentle women, in a notoriously male centric society!

“Efforts by the ayatollahs to destroy Christianity have served only to purify the Church. According to the Iranian church leader, “What persecution did was destroy the church that were not disciples.” Those who were not disciples ran away from persecution, but true disciples “would die for the Lord....So our model inside Iran is that we don’t convert to discipline, we disciple so we can convert.”

Think about that for a moment – disciple to convert – not the other way around. If you’re like us, we asked ourselves how could they do this? How could people that were not yet full believers disciple others to convert them? Read on.

“Usually, a disciple-making movement begins the moment we come into contact with a non-believer, so, “Everything is foundational on prayer. We find people of peace through prayer. We even find locations through prayer. When we do [this]...Jesus has gone faster than us. He has come in their dreams or he’s come miraculously in their lives. When we hear this, we know that Jesus has gone ahead of us.” “When we walk outside, we really don’t care if we get arrested,” one of the women commented. “What is 50 years in prison compared to eternity with Jesus?”

This is faith in action. Trust in God’s providence and a willingness to put yourself out there for Him. The Church in America has much to learn from these disciples in Iran, who are willing to put their lives at risk to spread Jesus’s word. By Our Lord’s grace, our job here in the U.S. does not require us to lay down our lives, but only to put down our fear. The next time you meet someone that needs you, pray with them, speak faithfully to them, give them a helping hand, let the Holy Spirit move you and work through you. All it requires is prayer and selfless trust.

Enfoque En El Discipulado Misionero:
Dios Haciendo Crecer La Iglesia
En Forma Increíble

Escrito por el equipo de Discipulado Misionero

“La Iglesia Cristiana que está creciendo más rápido en este momento se encuentra en Irán. No hay liderazgo central, ni edificios formales, y es conducida principalmente por mujeres. En la opinión de algunos investigadores, la Iglesia en Europa y América podría aprender mucho estudiándola.”

¿Les sorprende esta declaración? A nosotros nos sorprendió cuando leímos esto. Renovó nuestro sentido de maravilla en la manera en la que Dios trabaja en nuestro mundo, para realizar la conversión de gente que vive en uno de los lugares más inhóspitos para el Cristianismo en toda la tierra. Todavía más sorprendente es que los discípulos misioneros que trabajan para llevar a los demás a Cristo son solamente personas como ustedes y yo. No existe liderazgo central, ni edificios, ni propiedad... sólo fe y el Espíritu Santo trabajando por medio de buenas personas que hablan la palabra inspirada de Dios. Y es principalmente conducido por amables, gentiles mujeres que hablan suavemente, en una sociedad que es notoriamente centrada en la figura masculina.

“Los esfuerzos por partes de los ayatololas para destruir la Cristiandad han servido sólo para purificar la iglesia. De acuerdo al líder de la Iglesia Irani, “lo que la persecución hizo fue destruir todas las partes de la iglesia que no eran discípulos”. Aquellos que no eran discípulos huyeron de la persecución, pero los verdaderos discípulos “morrían por el Señor... así que nuestro modelo dentro Irán es que no convertimos al discipulado, sino que somos discípulos para poder convertir”. Pienselo por un momento – ¿discípulos para convertir? No de la otra manera. Si piensan como nosotros, seguramente se están preguntando, ¿Cómo pueden lograr esto? ¿Cómo puede ser que personas que no eran todavía creyentes por completo puedan discipular a otros para convertirlos? Lean a continuación.

“Normalmente, un movimiento para transformar discípulos comienza cuando se encuentra con no-creyentes, así que “todo es fundado en una oración. Háganos a la gente de paz por medio de la oración. Hasta encontramos lugares por medio de la oración. Cuando hacemos esto, Jesús ha ido más rápido que nosotros. Les ha llegado en sus sueños o milagrosamente en sus vidas. Cuando escuchamos esto, sabemos que Jesús ha ido adelante nuestro”. “Cuando caminamos afuera, realmente no nos importa si somos arrestados”, comentó una de las mujeres. “¿Qué es 50 años en la cárcel comparado con una eternidad con Jesús?”

Esto es la fe en acción. Confianza en la providencia de Dios y disponibilidad a ponerse uno mismo afuera en el mundo por El. La Iglesia en América tiene mucho que aprender de estos discípulos en Irán, quienes están dispuestos a poner sus vidas en riesgo para diseminar la palabra de Dios. Por la gracia de nuestro Señor, nuestra labor en Estados Unidos no requiere que demos nuestras vidas, sino sólo que dejemos atrás nuestro miedo. La próxima vez que conozcan a alguien que los necesita, oren con esa persona, hablenle con fe, denle una mano de ayuda, dejen que el Espíritu Santo se mueva dentro de ustedes y trabaje por medio de ustedes. Sólo requiere oración y desinteresada confianza.

Celebrate The Gospel of Life Prayer
O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life: Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. — Evangelium Vitae
Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel, we find Jesus “... went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.” Through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul proclaims the good news of the kingdom to the poor by helping families keep the lights on and stay in their homes. We are truly blessed.”

A Catholic education is one of the Church’s responses to Jesus’ command to “make disciples of nations.” A Catholic education does not merely educate, but engages every part of the child – mind, body, and spirit.

At All Souls Catholic School, our students are immersed in their faith journey daily. Students deepen their relationship with Jesus throughout the day as they speak with Him through prayer at the beginning of the day, throughout the day and to end each day. Our students experience the living Christ during school retreats, student-led prayer services and weekly Mass. Students are well prepared to receive their sacraments.

All Souls Catholic School faculty strives to engage all students with meaningful learning experiences that recognize diversity and optimize every student’s academic potential. Our goal is to create life-long learners steeped in the Catholic faith and values. Catholic school students know that academic excellence is an expectation as they are challenged to use God’s gifts to their fullest potential.

All Souls Catholic School students grow in grace as they learn to lead and serve others. At every grade level, our students make a difference in their world through a variety of service and social justice projects that help those in the school, local, and global communities. Our students are charged to lead, serve and practice compassion.

All Souls Catholic School promotes self-discipline through the teachings of Christ, not simply to follow the rules. Our faculty, staff and students look to our school mission statement as our reference for all we do, including discipline. Our students are expected to behave as children of God.

Tuition is always a concern. If your family believes, as we do, that Catholic education is a priority, please do not view tuition as an obstacle. We will do everything we can to guide you toward the scholarships that are available so your child can join our growing family.

School Mission: All Souls Catholic School is guided by the Trinity to empower our school community to live, love, and learn through Christ. We are committed to excellence in education while preparing our students for a life of service, leadership and compassion.

Saint Thomas Aquinas is the Patron Saint of: Catholic Schools, Colleges, Schools, Students

(1225 – March 7, 1274)

By universal consent, Thomas Aquinas is the preeminent spokesman of the Catholic tradition of reason and of divine revelation. In 1243, Thomas abandoned his family’s plans for him to become a Benedictine Abbot and joined the Dominicans. He went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great. He held two professorships at Paris, lived at the court of Pope Urban IV, directed the Dominican schools at Rome and Viterbo, combated adversaries of the mendicants, as well as the Averroists, and argued with some Franciscans about Aristotelianism.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, pervades his writings. One might expect Thomas, as a man of the gospel, to be an ardent defender of revealed truth. But he was broad enough, deep enough, to see the whole natural order as coming from God the Creator, and to see reason as a divine gift to be highly cherished.

The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. He stopped work on it after celebrating Mass on December 6, 1273. When asked why he stopped writing, he replied, “I cannot go on…. All that I have written seems to me like so much straw compared to what I have seen and what has been revealed to me.” He died March 7, 1274.

Almost instinctively, I placed my burdens into the hands of my unseen Visitor.

Later, I left Mass humming and with a spring in my step. I didn’t tell anyone about the encounter because it sounded too crazy.

Days later, at another Mass, the last line of the Gospel made my head spin: “All who saw Him were healed.”

What? Had I seen Him? Was I healed?
It took a leap of faith, but we enrolled our daughter in the Catholic high school. Inexplicably, my health improved. I drove her to classes, attended the games she cheered, celebrated her graduation, and sent her to college. Later, she married and started a family. I didn’t miss one moment of her life—or my own.

In August, 2015, twenty years after diagnosis, the cancer roared. Chemotherapy worked, and now researchers have developed ongoing treatments that keep the cancer at bay.

Healed? I’d say so.
Had I seen him? I’d say so.
That experience during the consecration remains vivid. I’ve tried to imitate, duplicate, or re-create it, but nothing comes close to what happened to me that day.

Is Jesus really present in the Blessed Sacrament?

From the core of my being, I cast my vote. Yes.
