Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel.” - Lk 2:34a
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

40 Days Already?
“Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord… When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.”

This account of the presentation of the Lord is a celebration of piety 40 days after Christmas. Repeatedly indicated in the readings, Mary and Joseph were conforming to the prescriptions of the Law. Two characters Simeon and Anna, who does not belong to the ranks of temple personnel also recognizes the Holy Child. This points out the fact that religious insight can also come from faithfulness and genuine devotion and not just from any privileged role. God’s ways are revealed to those who have open their minds and hearts to the Lord. When they return to Nazareth, The parents of Jesus resumed their unpretentious life. Jesus grew up like any other child, waiting for His time to come.

How is our life HINGED to the rituals, teachings, and services we do for All Souls? How do we make use of God gifts to us?

Fr. David Vivero

Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” Very often, having more light is not something we desire as it forces us to confront something we really do not want to see. There can be comfort found in darkness. It has an eerie sense of security to it. We do not have to challenge ourselves or be challenged and can simply exist in some fabricated state of self-fabricated blissfulness. Jesus came to bring light, and it is a light that is resisted by many and hated by some. It is a light that causes us to see things as they really are and not as we would want or need them to be.

It is no wonder then that Simeon boldly and honestly proclaims to Mary, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” We have to take the Gospel message as it is and not just use those parts that are useful to us or more palatable. Taking Jesus at face value can and will lead to turmoil and dissention. Hearts will be pierced. Whether we like it or not, Jesus’ proclamation of what the world God created really ought to look like has real and absolute social implications.

It has a lot to say about how we treat our brothers and sisters: spiritually, personally, economically, and globally. It has everything to do with the poor, the immigrant, the scared, the unborn, the vulnerable, the sick, and the broken. The light opens us to a challenging, table-turning experience that may not be something we want to see but shows us where we need to be.

Angel Tree Giving Brings Happiness To Little Ones In Need

Three-year old Olivia and four-year old Barrett live with their mom in a Sanford motel they call their week-to-week home. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to provide Christmas gifts to them through the Angel Tree Program. Olivia loves her fuzzy unicorn blanket and Barrett wraps himself in his blanket, too. Thanks to your donations, we were able to provide a minimum of three gifts, or gift cards, to 154 children from 59 area families. All told, we provided nearly $3,500 in gifts. We are truly blessed!

Progress On the Journey

“Our Parish, Our Future” continues to make great progress! Together, we are working hard to create the Parish you want and of Our Lord’s vision. Here are some of our first steps...

You may have noticed that the bulletins have more relevant content and a new design. The content of the All Souls Website has also been updated, and plans are in the works to make it more comprehensive and easier to use. We celebrated a joyful Advent and Christmas season together, during which your spiritual gift cards to the Baby Jesus overflowed the offering basket. We hope to provide another opportunity during Lent for spiritual reflection and advancement on our individual journeys. For Lent, our Liturgy Team is hard at work putting together an uplifting program, which will be enhanced by some recent improvements in the Church’s sound system. All Souls Catholic School hosted a wonderful Open House during the celebration of Catholic Schools Week. And, the Parish and School are collaborating to develop a unified identity, within the first quarter of the New Year. These are just our first baby steps as together we seek to learn Our Lord’s will, follow in His footsteps, and grow in His grace. May God bless you in every way,

Your All Souls Team

- Progreso en la Jornada

¡“Nuestra Parroquia, Nuestro Futuro” continúa haciendo grandes progresos! Juntos, estamos trabajando duro para crear la parroquia que usted desea y de la visión de Nuestro Señor. Estos son algunos de nuestros primeros pasos ...

Es posible que haya notado que los boletines tienen contenido más relevante y un nuevo diseño. El contenido del sitio web de All Souls también se ha actualizado, y se están trabajando en planes para hacerlo más completo y fácil de usar. Celebramos juntos una alegre temporada de Adviento y Navidad, durante la cual sus tarjetas de regalo espirituales para el Niño Jesús desbordaron la canasta de ofrendas. Esperamos brindar otra oportunidad durante la Cuaresma para la reflexión espiritual y el avance en nuestras jornadas individuales. Para Lent, nuestro equipo de liturgia está trabajando arduamente para elaborar un programa edificante, que será reforzado por algunas mejorías recientes en el sistema de sonido de la Iglesia. La Escuela Católica All Souls organizó una maravillosa Casa Abierta durante la celebración de la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas. Y, la Parroquia y la Escuela están colaborando para desarrollar una identidad unificada, dentro del primer trimestre del Año Nuevo. Estos son solo nuestros primeros pasos pequeños, ya que juntos buscamos aprender la voluntad de Nuestro Señor, seguir Sus pasos y crecer en Su gracia. Que Dios los bendiga en todos los sentidos,

Tu Equipo de All Souls

Why The Feast of The Presentation Matters

Excerpt from “My Catholic Life”

The various names, meanings, and traditions overlapping in today’s Feast churn like the crystals in a kaleidoscope, revealing one image and then another with every slight rotation of the tube. The Presentation of the Lord in the Temple is, rotate, also the Purification of Mary. But, rotate, it’s also known as the Meeting of the Lord in the Christian East. And, rotate, it’s also the Feast of Candelmas, marking forty days after Christmas, the end of that liturgical season. The multiple names and meanings of today’s Feast have given birth to surprisingly broad and varied cultural expressions. The biblical account of the Presentation is the source for the “two turtle doves” in the carol “The Twelve Days of Christmas,” for the sword piercing Mary’s Immaculate Heart in Catholic iconography, for the Fourth Joyful Mystery of the rosary, and for the Canticle prayed by all the world’s priests and nuns every single night of their lives. The Presentation is even the remote source of the frivolous American folkloric tradition of Groundhog Day.

Behind all of these names and meanings are, however, a few fundamental theological facts worth reflecting upon. The Lord Jesus Christ, forty days after His birth, in keeping with the biblical significance of the number forty and with Jewish custom, was presented in the temple in Jerusalem by His parents, Mary and Joseph. Saint Luke’s Gospel recounts the story. After the Presentation, Jesus was to enter the temple again as a boy and later as an adult. He would even refer to His own body as a temple which He would raise up in three days. Jesus’s life was a continual self-gift to God the Father from the very beginning to the very end. His parents did not carry their infant Son to a holy mountain, a sacred spring, or a magical forest. It was in His temple that the God of Israel was most present, so they brought their son to God Himself, not just to a reflection of Him in nature.

Did You Know...

Christ is the light of the nations, hence the blessing and procession of candles on this day. The blessing of candles is especially celebrated whenever February 2nd falls on a Sunday (as it does this year). Additionally, many Catholics practice the tradition of keeping out the Nativity creche or other Christmas decorations until this feast. A Candlelight Procession usually marks this feast.

Things You Can Do:

- Ask a priest to bless the candles that you will be using on your home altar this year.
- Have a family Candlemas procession.
- Read Luke 2:22-35 (about the presentation), including the Canticle of Simeon.
- Meditate on the constant fiat of Our Lady of Sorrow, who embraced the will of God even as Simeon predicted that a sword would pierce her heart.

Share Your Story...
As a child of God, you have a powerful story to tell. Sharing how you came to Jesus and the difference he’s made in your life can help others discover how they, too, can know God personally.

Maybe you’re afraid to share your story or faith because you don’t know what to say. Remember that God does not call the equipped; He equips the called—and as Christians, we are all called to share what Christ has done in our lives.

Email your personal witness to: bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Keep stories short, about 175 words or less. If your story is selected, we’ll publish it (anonymously if you prefer) in a future issue of this Bulletin. Thank You!

Comparte Tu Historia...
Como hijo de Dios, tienes una historia poderosa que contar. Compartir cómo llegaste a Jesús y la diferencia que ha hecho en tu vida puede ayudar a otros a descubrir cómo ellos también pueden conocer a Dios personalmente.

Envíe un correo electrónico su testigo personal a bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Mantenga historias cortas, alrededor de 175 palabras o menos. Si seleccionamos su historia, la publicaremos (de forma anónima, si lo prefiere) en una próxima edición de este Boletín. ¡Gracias!

Candlemas Prayer
Lord Jesus, as an infant You were brought to the temple by Your parents out of religious duty. Help all parents to take their duties to God seriously, to inculcate their faith in the next generation by their words and by their actions, so that the faith will be handed on where the faith is first learned—in the family and in the home.

Family Life Coordinator
The Family Life committee is in need of a new coordinator! The Coordinator leads the Family Life committee in planning social, spiritual, and service events for the parish. These events include managing Kids Games at the Harvest Festival and planning the Annual Easter Egg Hunt. The Family Life committee has great potential for growth. New ideas and enthusiastic leadership is encouraged! Mentoring and support would be provided by the outgoing leader and current committee.

Please prayerfully consider joining the team! For more information, please contact Holly Hooton at hhooton@allsoulsanford.org.

Souper Supper - Mardi Gras Style!
We’re serving up a feast of tasty soups on Saturday, February 29th at the Social Hall. Join us for all-you-can-eat soups, bread, dessert and bever-ages. The price can’t be beat: $8 for adults and kids under 12 are free. Doors open at 6 pm and we’ll serve until 8 pm (while supplies last!). Join us for a night of great soups and even better company!

All Souls Catholic School

Why Choose All Souls School?

At All Souls Catholic School, our students are immersed in their faith journey daily. Students deepen their relationship with Jesus throughout the day as they speak with Him through prayer at the beginning of the day, throughout the day and to end each day. Our students experience the living Christ during school retreats, student-led prayer services and weekly Mass. Students are well prepared to receive their sacraments.

All Souls Catholic School faculty strives to engage all students with meaningful learning experiences that recognize diversity and optimize every student’s academic potential. Our goal is to create life-long learners steeped in the Catholic faith and values. Catholic school students know that academic excellence is an expectation as they are challenged to use God’s gifts to their fullest potential.

All Souls Catholic School students grow in grace as they learn to lead and serve others. At every grade level, our students make a difference in their world through a variety of service and social justice projects that help those in the school, local, and global communities. Our students are charged to lead, serve and practice compassion.

All Souls Catholic School promotes self-discipline through the teachings of Christ, not simply to follow the rules. Our faculty, staff and students look to our school mission statement as our reference for all we do, including discipline. Our students are expected to behave as children of God.

Tuition is always a concern. If your family believes, as we do, that Catholic education is a priority, please do not view tuition as an obstacle. We will do everything we can to guide you toward the scholarships that are available so your child can join our growing family.

School Mission: All Souls Catholic School is guided by the Trinity to empower our school community to live, love, and learn through Christ. We are committed to excellence in education while preparing our students for a life of service, leadership and compassion.

And The Bible Says...

Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted—and you yourself a sword will pierce—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” - Lk 2:34-35

Simeón los bendijo, y a María, la madre de Jesús, le anunció: “Este niño ha sido puesto para ruina y resurgimiento de muchos en Israel, como signo que provocará contradicción, para que queden al descubierto los pensamientos de todos los corazones. Y a ti, una espada te atravesará el alma”. - Lc 2, 34-35

7 Simple Acts of Kindness You Can Do in 2 Minutes or Less
Excerpted from a Reader’s Digest Article by Susan Spencer

Here are inspiring ideas [for Lent] to brighten someone’s day in 120 seconds or less. Pass it on!
An act of kindness, no matter how small, can go a long way. Take a tiny portion of your day to put a smile on someone’s face or give someone an unexpected surprise with these kind gestures. If you’re on a budget, these random acts of kindness don’t cost a cent.

Pay it forward
If you’re not in a rush while grabbing your morning coffee, offer to pay for the person behind you as well. This simple act of kindness might inspire them to pass along some good in the world as well.

Leave a letter
Carry around a stack of sticky notes with you, and if you’re feeling inspired write an encouraging note and leave it on the mirror in a public bathroom or on the window of someone’s car. You never know who might need some inspiring words to put a smile on their face.

Plant a tree
Say thank you to the earth by planting a few saplings in your local park or in your yard. If everyone took the time to do this think of all the greenery we could enjoy.

Help an elderly neighbor
If you notice an elderly person struggling with their groceries or to bring their trash can in from the curb, offer to help them. Chances are, they will be very appreciative, and this act of kindness will take less than two minutes.

Bring in treats for your co-workers
Pick up a few extra goodies with your morning bagel and bring them in for your co-workers to enjoy. This can be a great mood booster during a stressful time a work. Take a few minutes to chat about your day and eat with them to take some of the pressure off.

Pass on some luck
Give a lottery ticket to a stranger on the street. Win or lose, just receiving the ticket will surely brighten someone’s day. And who knows, your kind action may have just created a new millionaire!

Help a friend practice self-care
Slip an envelope containing a tea bag into a friend’s purse with a note inviting her to take some relaxing time for herself. Your kind action is now causing another—your friend can now be kind to herself.

Bunco For Babies!

This Week’s Catholic Resources

Reliable sources to help you learn more and grow your faith.

Catechism of the Catholic Faith

Vatican Archives: Provided in hypertextualized text together with wordlists and concordances.

http://www.vatican.va/archive/ENG0015/_INDEX.HTM

FORMED

The Catholic Faith On Demand. Get thousands of movies, programs, audio, and books instantly — on your TV or mobile device.

https://formed.org/

Magis Center

The Magis Center provides comprehensive and systematic responses to restore, reconstruct, and revitalize belief in God, the transcendent dignity of every person, the significance of virtue, the higher levels of happiness, love, and freedom, and the real presence of Jesus Christ.

Relevant Radio

Bringing Christ to the world through the media.

https://relevantradio.com/

The Rosary on MP3

Brothers and sisters in Christ, please tell others about this list so they will not have to spend hours looking for Marian Rosaries on audio. God Bless.
