“You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.” - Mt 5:33
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Law of Love
“…whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.”

What does it mean for Jesus to obey the Law? How have you grown over the years in your understanding of God’s law?

Responsorial Psalms connects us with this line: “Blessed are they who obey His decrees, who seek Him with all their hearts.”

The relationship between this verse and the readings are closely evident and profound. Those who keep the commandments of God have chosen to obey God’s will above their own, not just to the deepest intent of obeying the law and list of rituals but also allowing an invitation to an opportunity to develop a deeper relationship with God. This relationship is built upon an obedient heart exemplified by Jesus. Obedience to God’s Law teaches self-giving, which also teaches us to Trust in God.

This weekend we take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support to our Annual Catholic Appeal. We need your support again. May our Trust in the Lord allow us to share and live the fundamental Law of Love.

Fr. David Vivero

People are not property. We cannot exchange them at will or simply use them for our own designs and purposes. What does the word “commitment” mean to you? We can begin to understand its meaning by looking at some synonyms: dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, fidelity, and bond. Commitment is primarily about relationship, and Jesus is all about relationships. How our lives affect others, how we treat our brothers and sisters, how we resolve conflict, and how we view the vows of marriage. Jesus’ teachings on obeying the commandments, murder, reconciliation, marriage, divorce, and adultery all stem from the sacredness of commitment. All of this has a God connection.

We can easily see one another as interchangeable and dispensable. We treat so much of our lives this way. What works today may not be what I want tomorrow. We search and search for the right thing only to find our hearts still restless in the end. Is real happiness achievable this side of the grave? Sometimes we expect too much out of others and want our relationships to fill a hole that we must figure out how to fill ourselves. Any seasoned married couple will tell you that their love for one another changes as time passes. Even though the understanding of romance changes as life changes, the dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, and fidelity all remain and even deepen.

Some relationships can be hurtful, and God does not want us to live with abuse or pain. Also, how a relationship develops is sometimes out of our control, and we become the victim of someone else’s decision. But we can’t be self-focused in our relationships and see them exclusively as self-fulfilling ends. We are companions on life’s journey with varying depths of relationships being enjoyed by all who are with us along the way. We have the freedom to choose. God asks us to do so wisely, with right judgment and thinking.

My Story...
I Saw Jesus...
As a very young girl, 3-4 years old, I was awakened by a very bright light in my bedroom. As I got up rubbing my eyes because of the brightness, I saw Jesus in my doorway. He wore a mauve robe tied at the waist. He was talking to me in a foreign language, and I told him I didn’t understand, and he said, “You must be good.” That was all. The next morning, my three uncles asked me about this.

Part 2 - What Does It Mean To Be a Disciple? From Your Missionary Discipleship Team

During his ministry, Jesus gave various directives to those who followed him: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” “Go and sin no more.” “Be like the little children.” And perhaps one of the most important: “Go and make disciples of all nations...teaching them to follow all that I have taught you.” Matthew 28: 19-20

If we really want to know what it means to be his disciple, the Gospels are where we start. These writings, in fact, were the tools his own disciples used to share his teachings with others. John’s Gospel, for example, gives us three portraits of what it means to follow Jesus, each patterned after Jesus himself. From John’s profile, we could say that a disciple of Jesus is a believer, a servant, and a witness.

Disciple Means Servant

John shows another picture of the Jesus: Jesus is a servant. He came to earth not to be served, but to serve Mark 10:45. And as a servant, Jesus says to his disciples, “If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you” John 13:14-15

“Jesus’s disciples are on a mission to tell his good news.”

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another” John 13:34. In fact, it is this love that we have for one another that identifies us as disciples of Jesus to a jaded world John 13:35. To be a disciple of Jesus means to serve like him. This means looking to our suffering brothers and sisters and committing great acts of love, even when it’s inconvenient or throws off our world. Making disciples of Jesus means making servants who love one another.

Disciple Means Witness

John tells us another way to be Jesus’ disciple. It is here that we differ from all other disciples of all other teachers. Jesus says, “As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you” John 20:21. “We disciples are on a mission. We are missionaries, empowered to step into this world as his witnesses” Acts 1:8. “Jesus came here with a mission — to reveal God.” John 1:14, 12. “We too, have a mission — to tell his good news.” Romans 10:14-17.

“To be a disciple of Jesus means to point people to him while living a lifestyle that mirrors his own. We share his love, his service, and our belief in him so that others can know and do the same. When we seek out more believers-servants-missionaries, we make more disciples of Jesus, just as he asks us to do.” Matthew 28:18-20.

Parte 2 - ¿Qué significa ser un discípulo? De su equipo de Disciplulado Misionero

Durante su ministerio, Jesús dio varias directivas a aquellos que lo siguieron: “Ama a tu prójimo como a ti mismo.” “Ve y no pesques más.” “Sé como los niños pequeños.” Y quizás una de las más importantes: “Ve y haz discípulos en todas las naciones...enseñándoles a seguir todo lo que te he enseñado.” Mateo 28:19-20

Si realmente queremos saber lo que significa ser discípulos, en los Evangelios es en donde tenemos que comenzar. Estas escrituras, de hecho, fueron las herramientas para sus propios discípulos usadas para compartir las enseñanzas con otros. El Evangelio de Juan nos da tres ejemplos de lo que significa seguir a Jesús, cada uno moldeado como es Jesús. Desde el perfil de Juan, podríamos decir que un discípulo de Jesús es un creyente, sirviente y un testigo.

(Continuación de la Primera Parte en el Boletín de All Souls, de la semana pasada.)

Ser un Discípulo Significa Ser Sirviente

Juan nos muestra otra imagen de Jesús: Jesús es un siervo. El no vino a la Tierra para ser servido, sino para servir, Marcos 10:45. Y como siervo, Jesús les dice a sus discípulos: “Sí yo vuestro Señor y Maestro, les lavé sus pies, ustedes también se lavarán los pies unos allos otros.” Porque yo les he dado un ejemplo, como yo les he hecho, ustedes también lo harán.” Juan 13:14-15

“Los discípulos de Jesús están en una misión para contar sus buenas noticias.”

“Un nuevo mandamiento les doy, que se amen los unos a los otros: tal y como yo los he amado, que también se aman unos a otros.” Juan 13:34 Por cierto, es este amor que nos tenemos los unos a los otros que nos identifica a nosotros como discípulos de Jesús en este mundo importunado.” Juan 13:35 Para ser un discípulo de Jesús significa servir como El. Esto significa mirar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas que sufren y cometen grandes actos de amor, incluso cuando sea inconveniente o desecho nuestro mundo. Ser discípulos de Jesús significa hacer que los siervos se amen.

Ser un Discípulo Significa Ser Testigo

“Ser un discípulo de Jesús significa señalarles Jesús a las personas mientras viven un estilo de vida que refleje el suyo. Nosotros compartimos su amor, su servicio y nuestra creencia en El para que otros puedan saber y hacer lo mismo. Cuando buscamos más creyentes-siervecitos-misioneros, hacemos más discípulos de Jesús, tal como El nos pide que hagamos.” Mateo 28:18-20
Share Your Story...

As a child of God, you have a powerful story to tell. Sharing how you came to Jesus and the difference he’s made in your life can help others discover how they, too, can know God personally.

Maybe you’re afraid to share your story or faith because you don’t know what to say. Remember that God does not call the equipped; He equips the called—and as Christians, we are all called to share what Christ has done in our lives.

Email your personal witness to: bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Keep stories short, about 175 words or less. If your story is selected, we’ll publish it (anonymously if you prefer) in a future issue of this Bulletin. Thank You!

Comparte Tu Historia...

Como hijo de Dios, tienes una historia poderosa que contar. Compartir cómo llegaste a Jesús y la diferencia que ha hecho en tu vida puede ayudar a otros a descubrir cómo ellos también pueden conocer a Dios personalmente.

Envíe un correo electrónico su testigo personal a bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Mantenga historias cortas, alrededor de 175 palabras o menos. Si seleccionamos su historia, la publicaremos (de forma anónima, si lo prefiere) en una próxima edición de este Boletín. ¡Gracias!

Why Support Us? What Do Parents Say...

February is the month to show your heart, and join in giving to help All Souls Catholic School provide better programs and reach more students.

We have an anonymous donor who has agreed to make your dollar worth three! So every bit helps dramatically! Please take the time to give what you can, and help us do more!

Absolutely amazing school. Tried-and-true, solid academic principles are taught along with high-tech skills, innovation, and cross-disciplinary studies.

Faith-based discipline is beautifully balanced with love, care, and respect for others. The administrative and academic teams truly care about the students. In a time when important courses such as P.E., art, and music are being phased out in many schools, students at All Souls Catholic School enjoy them all. What a blessing. Kim C.

Our family can’t say enough good things about All Souls Catholic School. We moved to the area from NY with our son Michael in 2010. He attended a Catholic School in NY. After some investigating, All Souls was recommended to us by some co-workers of my husband. Mrs Heneghan who was the principal at the time and Mrs Milam who became Michael’s 3rd grade teacher, along with all the wonderful dedicated teachers opened up their hearts to us. We became a part of the All Souls family. We continue to support All Souls today. Our son is now a senior at Bishop Moore. Thank you All Souls for the guidance and the foundations you have laid down for not only our son, but all the others who a part of the All Souls family. Nancy B.

Both of our kids are thriving at All Souls! They really treat everyone like family. The faculty and staff take a genuine interest in each child and the curriculum is unmatched. Our kids are both challenged and cared for each day. We couldn’t ask for anything more!! Sarah K. (not pictured)

They present a wonderful environment for learning and always keep God in the forefront. They are shaping children to be productive and moral adults. Sharon A.

Great school, strong curriculum, competent and friendly staff, excellent leadership with a commitment to ensure that every student excels as well as succeeds. Most importantly Christ centered! William B.

Kids get undivided attention. If they are doing something wrong they will inform you right away and meet with you to set up a plan on how to solve issue. I received lots of compliments how well educated my kids are. Very family oriented school, everyone there makes you feel like family. We enjoy lots of family events throughout the year. We love All Souls Catholic School. To the staff thank you so much for being there and showing us that you care about our kids. Edwin C. (not pictured)

And The Bible Says...

“Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, ‘Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow.’ But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’ ” - Mt 5:33-34a, 37

Sacraments & Saints

Sts. Jacinta & Francisco Marto

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese shepherd children from Aljustrel, received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria, near Fátima, a city 110 miles north of Lisbon. At that time, Europe was involved in an extremely bloody war. Portugal itself was in political turmoil, having overthrown its monarchy in 1910; the communist-leaning government disbanded religious organizations soon after.

At the first appearance, Mary asked the children to return to that spot on the thirteenth of each month for the next six months. She also asked them to learn to read and write and to pray the rosary "to obtain peace for the world and the end of the war." They were to pray for sinners and for the conversion of Russia, which had recently overthrown Czar Nicholas II and was soon to fall under communism. Up to 90,000 people gathered for Mary’s final apparition on October 13, 1917.

Less than two years later, Francisco died of influenza in his family home. He was buried in the parish cemetery and then re-buried in the Fátima basilica in 1952. Jacinta died of influenza in Lisbon in 1920, offering her suffering for the conversion of sinners, peace in the world, and the Holy Father. She was re-buried in the Fátima basilica in 1951. Their cousin Lúcia dos Santos, became a Carmelite nun and was still living when Jacinta and Francisco were beatified in 2000; she died five years later. Pope Francis canonized the younger children on his visit to Fátima to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the first apparition—May 13, 2017. The shrine of Our Lady of Fátima is visited by up to 20 million people a year.

Divine Mercy Sunday

9 Things You Need to Know About Divine Mercy Sunday

Millions of people look forward to and are profoundly moved by this day! Divine Mercy Sunday is a recent addition to the Church’s calendar, and it has links to both private revelation and the Bible.

We will unravel the wonder of this incredible feast each week in the Bulletin and in a 5-week study/reflection beginning on Tuesday, March 17th, 2020. The study will take place in the historic chapel 800 S. Oak Ave. Sanford from 6:30PM to 8:00PM. Advanced registration is strongly encouraged to reserve your spot. There is a $20 fee to offset the costs of books and materials.

1 What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

Our Lord’s Divine Mercy Sunday grants forgiveness of all sins on the Feast of Divine Mercy... mercy for even the most hardened sinners! Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter. It is based on the private revelations of St. Faustina Kowalska, through whom Jesus requested our devotion to the Divine Mercy. It also has links to the Bible and the readings of this day.

To learn more about St. Faustina, go to: https://tinyurl.com/337dadk

Stay tuned next week for #2:

2. When was it made part of the Church’s calendar?

And The Bible Says...

“Han oído ustedes que se dijo a los antiguos: No jurarás en falso y le cumplirás al Señor lo que le hayas prometido con juramento. Pero yo les digo: No juren de ninguna manera. Digan simplemente ‘Sí’, cuando es ‘Sí’; y ‘No’, cuando es ‘No’.” - Mt 5, 33-34. 37

Our Faith Community

Lift Students Out of Poverty: Support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul’s 2020 Scholarship Program

Marcel was raised by a disabled mom who taught him to “let your struggles become your strength.” With that top of mind, the Lake Mary High School graduate mentored children in an after-school center. In addition, Marcel served as President of the Quill & Scroll Society and received a Humanitarian Award; a member of the National Honor Society, Marcel also volunteered at our St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store in Apopka. Currently, Marcel is studying Journalism at Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton.

Thanks to your generosity, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference at All Souls Catholic Church provided Marcel a much-needed $1,000 scholarship.

Now in its eighth year, St. Vincent de Paul’s Scholarship Program provides opportunities to high school students like Marcel, young people who excel in the classroom and in the community but come from families struggling to make ends meet.

The St. Vincent de Paul Ministry works closely with our neighbors in need, walking with them and helping lift them out of poverty.

To continue our Mission, we need your help! Will you join us in making a change in these young people’s lives?

There are a couple of ways to help:

Become a Sponsor by supporting a student with a $2,000 full Scholarship/ $1,000 a year for two years. You may make your gift in memory of a loved one. Sponsors are invited to join us during our Scholarship Ceremony in May.

Become a Donor by making a generous contribution in any amount. All donations are applied to a full Scholarship. We’ll recognize your donation during our Scholarship Ceremony.

Please pray for the continued success of this Scholarship Program and for the young people whose lives are positively impacted by the generosity of Sponsors and Donors like you.

More information: Checks may be made payable to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, with Scholarship noted, and mailed to All Souls Catholic Church at: 301 W. 8th Street Sanford, FL 32771. Questions? Call us at 407.330.4400.

Our Catholic Appeal

Your offering to Our Catholic Appeal proclaims your capacity to go beyond external appearances and make visible your love for God. If you have already received a pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass with you next weekend. If you did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond, please help our parish by making your gift at Mass next weekend or the following weekend.

You may visit www.cfocf.org/oca to view Bishop Noonan’s homily video, read through the Our Catholic Appeal brochure, and learn more about the life-changing impact of your gifts.
