One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.” - Mt 4:4
A MESSAGE FROM Our Pastor

Pg. 1

Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

“The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve.”

“Lent is a season for opening the doors to all those in need and recognizing in them the face of Christ.” -- Pope Francis

This season, we will practice and recognize who we are and what it means to be baptized in Christ. The disciplines of Lent are not just to acquaint ourselves with Fasting and Abstaining from Food and Sin, but to a true conversion of hearts, and minds as followers of Jesus.

What is there to benefit? There are those who are baptized who will be invited to renew their commitment to Christ. It is also a period of learning and discerning for individuals who have declared their desire to become Catholics through the Rites of Christian Initiation.

Through the waters of Baptism, cleansing will bring us to new life in Christ. Here at All Souls we will have the opportunity as a community to celebrate as a family of believers sharing the goodness of Christ for the salvation of all.

40 Days of Lent invites us to Pray deeply, Learn attentively, follow Christ dearly, as we share our time, giftedness, and treasures to all. Our parish offers various opportunities to make this experience a season to remember and celebrate.

Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

Life can easily spin us out of control. While there are so many wonderful opportunities before us, we can also get easily distracted and exhausted. There is always something to do, respond to, or check. The clutter of our lives can take us off course, and the best remedy for getting back on track is the experience of the desert. Here we can face our demons square on, resist them, and get back on course. We desperately need the season of Lent. This simple time of year forces us into greater awareness and grounds us in what is good and true.

What weighs you down and keeps you trapped? Maybe you are trying to do too much and please too many people. It could be that your fragile self-image is always pushing you to prove yourself and find success. Anxiety and worry, ultimately due to a lack of faith, can quickly tempt you with despair. It could be that you are listening to too many voices and allowing all of the negativity that is present erode the genuine goodness in your heart and in all of God’s creation. Or maybe you struggle too much with fear. Perhaps so much so that you are far too preoccupied with your own agenda and goals and left with little psychological or spiritual room to consider and respond to the plight of your neighbor. Do you also struggle with anger, bitterness, stubbornness, and hatred? How about greed, gluttony, pride, apathy, or lust?

For many, their passions and what can be found on the internet are their downfall, and they are robbed of their inner life and freedom. What is it, specifically, that tempts you away from a childlike trust in God? Define this and use the next few weeks to allow God to chart you a course away from them. Silence, being alone, grace, honesty, struggle, tears, and dryness are all found in the desert. You will also find God and your true self in this holy place. Ready to go?

All Are Welcome Here
If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely—with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

100 Years of Service and Faith
The Knights of Columbus was founded in 1882 by Venerable Father Michael J. McGivney who saw the need for Catholic men to have a place where they could remain steadfast in their faith while establishing a system that would support families left fatherless. Today, the Knights have become the world’s largest Catholic fraternal organization with nearly 2 million members and 15,000 councils worldwide. Wherever there is a need for heartfelt evangelization, spiritual comfort or compassionate service, a Knight of Columbus is sure to be there. Knights wake up early each day to deliver bread to area food pantries; they do parish fish fries and Easter egg hunts; they sponsor essay and poster challenges and sports competitions; they support seminarians; help athletes participate in the Special Olympics; welcome refugees; and provide life-saving ultrasound machines to crisis pregnancy centers. Not only are they active in their parishes, but they are a Christian witness to the world.

A Lenten Reflection On Our Journey to Jerusalem

Take a first step on your Journey to Jerusalem. As you walk through the desert with Jesus, take a moment to notice your surroundings. It’s very quiet here. There are no other people as far as you can see. The only sound is the crunching of your feet over the sand and gravel. The desert has a magnificent simplicity to it, though, and there is plenty of time on this journey for deep, spiritual reflection. And questions.

For example, why were we created? In this solitude, the answer comes suddenly: God created us for a loving relationship, a relationship more important than anything that we could do for Him. The first thing God will do in our lives is to draw us into an intimate love relationship. When that relationship with God is as it should be, He will begin giving us assignments at His initiative. And whenever it seems that God is not doing something fresh in our lives, we must focus on that love relationship again and stay there until God gives us a new assignment.

A spiritual gift is a manifestation of the Holy Spirit working in our lives, enabling us to obey and do what God asks of us. Biblically, God always gives the assignment first, then equips us by the Holy Spirit to accomplish it. When we became a Christian, God placed His Holy Spirit within us. We did not receive just a spiritual gift, though. We received the Spirit Himself! And since the Spirit resides in us, we have all the power of God and the resources of heaven at our disposal.

That Spirit of God is always present to equip us to carry out His assignments. We have access to all the Spirit can do through us, if we simply let go and allow God to work through us. This week during your Lenten journey, practice letting go. Let God speak through you. Let God guide your actions. Just relax and let go. Let God work through you and handle everything for you.

Una Reflexión de Cuaresma sobre Nuestra Jornada a Jerusalén

Por ejemplo, ¿Por qué fuimos creados? En esta solitud, la respuesta aparece repentinamente. Dios nos creo para tener una relación cariñosa, una relación que es más importante que cualquier cosa que podemos hacer nosotros por El. Lo primero que Dios hará en nuestras vidas es llevarnos a una íntima relación de amor con El. Cuando esta relación con Dios funciona como tiene que funcionar, El comenzará a darnos tareas a Su iniciativa. Y cada vez que nos parece que Dios no está realizando algo nuevo en nuestras vidas, debemos enfocarnos una vez más en esa relación de amor con El, y permanecer allí hasta que Dios nos dé una nueva tarea.

Un don espiritual es una manifestación del Espíritu Santo trabajando en nuestras vidas, permitiéndonos obedecer y hacer aquello que nos pide Dios. En términos bíblicos, Dios siempre nos da una tarea primero, y luego nos prepara por medio del Espíritu Santo para realizar esa tarea. Cuando nos convertimos al cristianismo, Dios puso a su Espíritu Santo dentro de cada uno de nosotros. Sin embargo, no sólo recibimos un don espiritual. ¡Recibimos al mismo Espíritu! Y como el Espíritu vive dentro de nosotros, tenemos todo el poder de Dios y todos los recursos de los cielos a nuestra disposición.

Ese Espíritu de Dios siempre está presente para prepararnos para llevar a cabo Sus tareas. Tenemos acceso a todo lo que el Espíritu puede hacer por medio de nosotros, si sólo soltamos el control y permitimos que Dios trabaje por medio de nosotros. Esta semana, durante la jornada de Cuaresma, practiquemos soltar el control. Permitamos que Dios hable por medio de nosotros. Dejemos que Dios guíe nuestras acciones. Relajémonos y soltemos el control. Dejemos que, usándonos a nosotros, Dios realice su labor y se ocupe de todo.
Lenten Speaker Series At All Souls

Father Edward McCarthy has been a Catholic priest since the early 1970’s. Since then, he has been intimately involved in the shepherding of Christ’s flock as a High School Pastor, Youth Ministry Director, Director of Priest Personnel, Parish Pastor for two different parishes, Spiritual Moderator, Council Chairman, State Chaplain, Rector, and as our beloved Parish Priest (among other positions). Father Ed, as he is fondly known, has an impressive education, in addition to his wide experience. He holds degrees in philosophy, theology, psychology, guidance and counseling, as well as a Doctorate in Religion and Personality.

This Lent, Father Ed will be the first speaker, in a series of Lenten presentations at the Church, which will touch on our four Parish Priorities and take listeners along a “Journey to Jerusalem” with Jesus. Father Ed’s moving oratory will entrance his listeners with Mary’s proclamation of God’s greatness; help them immerse themselves in the crowds that witnessed Jesus’ greatest miracle; recognize what is our true “treasure”; and reveal how all is connected to Sunday’s Gospel.

Please mark your calendars for Monday, March 2nd at 6:30pm, to join Father Ed for an amazing journey through our Catholic faith and the permutations of the Lenten season!

Share Your Story...

As a child of God, you have a powerful story to tell. Sharing how you came to Jesus and the difference he’s made in your life can help others discover how they, too, can know God personally.

Maybe you’re afraid to share your story or faith because you don’t know what to say. Remember that God does not call the equipped; He equips the called—and as Christians, we are all called to share what Christ has done in our lives.

Email your personal witness to: bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Keep stories short, about 175 words or less. If your story is selected, we’ll publish it (anonymously if you prefer) in a future issue of this Bulletin. Thank You!

Comparte Tu Historia...

Como hijo de Dios, tienes una historia poderosa que contar. Compartir cómo llegaste a Jesús y la diferencia que ha hecho en tu vida puede ayudar a otros a descubrir cómo ellos también pueden conocer a Dios personalmente.

Envíe un correo electrónico su testigo personal a bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Mantenga historias cortas, alrededor de 175 palabras o menos. Si seleccionamos su historia, la publicaremos (de forma anónima, si lo prefiere) en una próxima edición de este Boletín. ¡Gracias!

Blessed In So Many Ways!

One blessing we are so grateful for are the benefactors that help our school. We need the support of the wonderful men and women who help us grow while we strive to offer an affordable tuition cost so that any family wishing to provide their child a Catholic education may have the opportunity.

We have been gifted by an anonymous benefactor who will match $2.00 dollars to every $1.00 collected!

Please consider giving to help our students and school continue to flourish and grow! Father David will be announcing opportunities for second collections, but you can donate right now on our Website at allsoulscatholicschool.org. Just scroll down to the Donate button and make your contribution or stop by the school office located at 810 S. Oak Ave in Historic Sanford. We would love to give you a tour and show you all the exciting things happening around our campus!

Please prayerfully consider donating to this incredible opportunity for our school. Our school community thanks you for your continued prayers, as we keep our parishioners in our daily prayers.

Blessings,

St. Katharine Drexel

If your father is an international banker and you ride in a private railroad car, you are not likely to be drawn into a life of voluntary poverty. But if your mother opens your home to the poor three days each week and your father spends half an hour each evening in prayer, it is not impossible that you will devote your life to the poor and give away millions of dollars. Katharine Drexel did that.

Born in Philadelphia in 1858, she had an excellent education and traveled widely. As a rich girl, Katharine also had a grand debut into society. But when she nursed her stepmother through a three-year terminal illness, she saw that all the Drexel money could not buy safety from pain or death, and her life took a profound turn.

Katharine had always been interested in the plight of the Indians, having been appalled by what she read in Helen Hunt Jackson’s A Century of Dishonor. While on a European tour, she met Pope Leo XIII and asked him to send more missionaries to Wyoming for her friend Bishop James O’Connor. The Pope replied, “Why don’t you become a missionary?” His answer shocked her into considering new possibilities. Back home, Katharine visited the Dakotas, met the Sioux leader Red Cloud and began her systematic aid to Indian missions.

Katharine Drexel could easily have married. But after much discussion with Bishop O’Connor, she wrote in 1889, “The feast of Saint Joseph brought me the grace to give the remainder of my life to the Indians and the Colored.” Newspaper headlines screamed “Gives Up Seven Million!” After three and a half years of training, Mother Drexel and her first band of nuns—Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament for Indians and Colored—opened a boarding school in Santa Fe. A string of foundations followed. By 1942, she had a system of black Catholic schools in 13 states, plus 40 mission centers and 23 rural schools. Segregationists harassed her work, even burning a school in Pennsylvania. In all, she established 50 missions for Indians in 16 states.

Two saints met when Mother Drexel was advised by Mother Cabrini about the “politics” of getting her order’s Rule approved in Rome. Her crowning achievement was the founding of Xavier University in New Orleans, the first Catholic university in the United States for African Americans. At 77, Mother Drexel suffered a heart attack and was forced to retire. Apparently her life was over. But now came almost 20 years of quiet, intense prayer to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

This message and devotion to Jesus known as “The Divine Mercy” is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God’s mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread. To learn more about St. Faustina, go to: https://tinyurl.com/337dadk

Divine Mercy Sunday

9 Things You Need to Know About Divine Mercy Sunday

Each week we will unravel the wonder of this incredible feast in the Bulletin, and in a 5-week study/reflection beginning on Tuesday, March 17th, 2020. The study will take place in the historic chapel 800 S. Oak Ave. Sanford from 6:30PM to 8:00PM. Advanced registration is strongly encouraged to reserve your spot. There is a $20 fee to offset the costs of books and materials.

1. When was it made part of the Church’s calendar?
   In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina, and during the ceremony, he declared: “It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called “Divine Mercy Sunday”.

2. What is it?
   The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

3. What is the Significance of Divine Mercy Sunday?
   Stay tuned next week for #2:

And The Bible Says...

Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, “All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me.” At this, Jesus said to him, “Get away, Satan!” - Mt 4:8-10a

Luego lo llevó el diablo a un monte muy alto y desde ahí le hizo ver la grandeza de todos los reinos del mundo y le dijo: “Te daré todo esto, si te postras y me adoras”. Pero Jesús le replicó: “Retírate, Satanás”. - Mt 4, 8-10

Lift Students Out of Poverty: Support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul’s 2020 Scholarship Program

In this space, we’ve been sharing the inspiring stories of young people who’ve benefited from a St. Vincent de Paul Scholarship. This week we meet Carlen.

Raised by his grandmother, Carlen, a 2019 SVdP Scholarship recipient, was taught that “can’t can never be used to quit.” With this in mind, Carlen enriched his years at Lake Brantley High School as a member of Student Council while giving back through volunteer work. He provided more than 120 hours of service to the Hope Community Center helping marginalized kids at camp. This experience taught him to set his goal to become a role model to those he was assisting and fueled his passion “to have a positive effect on my community.”

To this goal, Carlen is attending Seminole State College with his eyes on Healthcare as a Physical Therapist.

Thanks to your generosity, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference at All Souls Catholic Church provided Carlen a much-needed $1,000 scholarship.

Now in its eighth year, St. Vincent de Paul’s Scholarship Program provides opportunities to high school students like Carlen, young people who excel in the classroom and in the community but come from families struggling to make ends meet.

The St. Vincent de Paul Ministry works closely with our neighbors in need, walking with them and helping lift them out of poverty.

To continue our Mission, we need your help! Will you join us in making a change in these young people’s lives?

There are a couple of ways to help:

Become a Sponsor by supporting a student with a $2,000 full Scholarship/$1,000 a year for two years. You may make your gift in memory of a loved one. Sponsors are invited to join us during our Scholarship Ceremony in May.

Become a Donor by making a generous contribution in any amount. All donations are applied to a full Scholarship. We’ll recognize your donation during our Scholarship Ceremony.

Please pray for the continued success of this Scholarship Program and for the young people whose lives are positively impacted by the generosity of Sponsors and Donors like you.

More information: Checks may be made payable to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, with Scholarship noted, and mailed to All Souls Catholic Church at: 301 W. 8th Street Sanford, FL 32771. Questions? Call us at 407.330.4400.

33 Days To Merciful Love
In Preparation for Consecration to Divine Mercy

Based on the book, 33 Days to Merciful Love, by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, this 33 Days to Merciful Love Group Retreat goes even deeper than the book alone and explores new material on the heart of St. Thérèse of Lisieux’s Little Way, uncovering the power of trust in the face of personal darkness, inspiring participants to become great saints amid ordinary circumstances, and laying the foundation for a personal consecration to Divine Mercy on Divine Mercy Sunday (April 19th, 2020)

We will unravel the wonder of this incredible feast each week in the Bulletin and in a 5 week Retreat beginning on

• Tuesday, March 17th, through Tuesday, April 14th, 2020 in the Historic Chapel (800 S. Oak Ave., Sanford) from 6:30PM to 8:00PM.
• Tuesday mornings from 10:30AM to 12:00PM at Totally Yours (105 E. 1st St., Sanford).

Advanced registration is strongly recommended. There is a $20 fee to cover materials.
