Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.” - Jn 4:10
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

“Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.”

The basis of my reflection is about an extensive dialogue between Jesus and the woman at the well. This detailed encounter has become a focal story referring to people who are initiated into the Catholic Faith, only this time, the story applies to me too. This encounter reveals two important dimensions of evangelization. The first is Jesus’s Prophetic Mission to accompany and perhaps teach people in their life’s journey. The second (2nd) dimension is the surprising turning point as a reaction to God’s Divine revelation and intervention. Intrigued by the knowledge and prophesy of Jesus, she finds confidence in the presence of Jesus minding her business. Jesus accompanies her patiently, while the real Beauty, and Truth in her is unveiled. By allowing herself to be quenched of her thirst for the truth, Jesus provides the baptismal water. She also found the beauty of God’s compassionate care, and lastly, the truth that will sustain her to life everlasting. This is what Jesus does to us. What is your story of God’s work of grace in your life? How do we allow our young people to discover Jesus accompanying them in all walks of their teenage life? How can I be a better example as I accompany people to find God?

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

“Todos los que beban de esta agua volverán a tener sed; pero el que beba el agua que yo les doy nunca tendrán sed; el agua que les doy se convertirá en él en un manantial de agua que brotará para la vida eterna.” La mujer le dijo: “Señor, dme de esta agua, para que no tenga sed o tenga que seguir viniendo a sacar agua”.

La base de mi reflexión es sobre un extenso diálogo entre Jesús y la mujer en el pozo. Este encuentro detallado se ha convertido en una historia focal que se refiere a las personas iniciadas en la fe católica, sólo que esta vez, la historia también se aplica a mí. Este encuentro revela dos dimensiones importantes de la evangelización. La primera es la misión profética de Jesús para acompañar y tal vez enseñar a las personas en el viaje de sus vidas. La segunda dimensión es el sorprendente punto de inflexión como reacción a la revelación e intervención divina de Dios. Intrigada por el conocimiento y la profecía de Jesús, ella encuentra confianza en la presencia de Jesús ocupándose de sus asuntos. Jesús la acompaña pacientemente, mientras se revela la verdadera Belleza y Verdad en ella. Al permitirse ser saciada de su sed de la verdad, Jesús proporciona el agua bautismal. También ella encuentra la belleza del cuidado compasivo de Dios y, por último, la verdad que la sostendrá a la vida eterna. Esto es lo que Jesús nos hace. ¿Cuál es su historia de la obra de gracia de Dios en su vida? ¿Cómo permitimos que nuestros jóvenes descubran a Jesús que los acompañe en todos los ámbitos de sus vidas adolescentes? ¿Cómo usted puede ser un mejor ejemplo al acompañar a las personas a encontrar a Dios?
Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

“We give the definition of ourselves over to so many things. We allow our society, friends, family, work, social groups, ethnicity, and even institutions define, classify, and color how we perceive ourselves. When we listen predominantly to the voices of others, we lose touch with what is happening within our own inner voice. If we listen carefully within, we can easily discover that we are in want and need. We know our incompleteness and also know that loneliness, sadness, and self-images can propel us outward in attempts to fill those gaps. We can become not only victims of our own prejudices but can find ourselves overly self-indulgent in things that can only satisfy for a short time, if at all.

It is no wonder that money and power are things that are so fervently sought after. As long as we can keep a steady supply going, the illusion of fulfillment and satisfaction can falsely persuade us as craftily as a master magician’s act. We live with illusions not truth. It is no wonder, then, that some of the wealthiest folks are also really the unhappiest. Whether we admit it, the lies we live and pursue will ultimately expose our superficiality. We all have to wrestle with who we are and what gives our lives purpose and meaning. Learn to listen more deeply, not to what others are saying about you, but to what God is echoing in your heart.

We can easily get confused and misunderstand, not only about who we are but who God is. Even the disciples and the Samaritan woman at the well missed the point Jesus was trying to make. There is only one Person who can satisfy the deepest yearnings and longings of our hearts — Jesus the Messiah. It is not the work of corporate America that will lead us to happiness or greatness but the work of the soul. We continue to resist acknowledging this and are happier in our world of misunderstanding and illusion. The life-giving water we truly need doesn’t come from the source of a well but from the Source of Life. Only God can reveal the truth of our sinfulness, the superficiality of our pursuits, and the illusions we hold so dear. Only Jesus can save us from ourselves and give us what we really need. If only our heads can catch up with where our hearts know they need to be, then will we find real contentment and life! ©LPi

Take A Lenten Pilgrimage On The Radio
Want to go on a pilgrimage, but don’t have the time? Missionary of the Precious Blood Father Ben Berinti and Divine Mercy Radio host Bill Gent will take you on a Passionate Lenten Pilgrimage for one hour a week every Tuesday at 11am, through April 7. Traveling from Palm Sunday to the Upper room, then into the Garden of Gethsemane, pilgrims will walk Calvary, ending at the tomb, awaiting the resurrection.

Modeling Christ’s journey to the cross starting on Palm Sunday, Father Berinti likens the experience to that of our own meandering spiritual paths. “It’s the same in our own lives. We experience moments of joy and satisfaction, really feeling the grace of God or being touched by healing and then, just as quickly, after being on that mountaintop, things go south.”

So why a pilgrimage? “We’re trying to invite everyone to be a passionate pilgrim.

Welcome!

INVITE A FRIEND TO MASS NEXT WEEK!
Radical Reliance on God

As we move through our Lenten Journey to Jerusalem, the spiritual desert that started out so beautiful, so peaceful and majestic, is now becoming a more challenging place. The sun scorches us every day now, and the increasingly rocky path threatens to trip and hurl us to the ground. Thirst builds. Fatigue sets in. Our journey that began with such zeal and devotion suddenly seems intolerable at times, perhaps even impossible.

We stumble more now, at times doubting our discipline and our faith. Where has God gone? Why don’t we feel Him right now? Jesus wondered the same thing during His own forty days in the desert. Where was God the Father, or the Holy Spirit, or even a ministering archangel, when Satan appeared to Him? Satan knew just how to tempt Him, too. The human Jesus was hungry, thirsty, and about ready to fall to the ground. He was also questioning everything now, and Satan knew it.

“It won’t require much,” Satan offered. “Just bow down and worship me, and I will give you every kingdom, power, and pleasure of this world.”

We don’t know all of this conversation, but Satan likely also suggested that the crucifixion would no longer be necessary, either—Jesus could simply take His rightful place as King and Ruler of the Earth immediately. Thirsty? Hungry? All of the water, wine, and fine foods that He could want would immediately be set before Him. Tired? An army of servants would appear at once to carry Him to a soft bed and gently fan Him to sleep. And yet, beaten down by the sun, thirst, hunger, and personal agony, Jesus still managed to resist these temptations. How? Jesus had a radical reliance on God.

And so must we. When the desert becomes unbearable, when we are ready to give up, we must grasp onto God with a radical reliance. Just as a drowning person will grasp onto a life raft with no questions as to its sturdiness or buoyancy, we too must grab onto God with that same radical, assured that He will save us. He will help us. It’s of no consequence that we can’t see or touch or feel Him right now. He is still there, waiting and watching, ready to catch us when we let go and call out, when we radically rely on His ability to help us, strengthen us against temptation, and make things right.

If this is your situation right now, if you are tempted or feel alone with a terrible problem, immediately call out to God for help. Do it with a radical reliance. As Peter cried out to Jesus when he began to sink in the water, “Lord, save me!,” so should we. And He will save us. He has already saved us and, because of that, He will continue to rescue us time and time again, as many times as needed. All we have to do is ask, and we shall receive!

Confianza Radical en Dios

A medida que avanzamos en nuestro viaje de Cuaresma a Jerusalén, el ahora se está convirtiendo en un lugar más desafiante. El sol nos quema todos los días, y el camino cada vez es más rocoso y amenaza con tropezarnos y arrojarnos al suelo. La sed se acumula. La fatiga comienza. Nuestro viaje que comenzó con tanto celo y devoción de repente parece intolerable a veces, tal vez incluso imposible.

Ahora nos tropezamos más, a veces dudando de nuestra disciplina y nuestra fe. ¿A dónde se ha ido Dios? ¿Por qué no lo sintimos ahora? Jesús se preguntó lo mismo durante sus propios cuarenta días en el desierto. ¿Dónde estaba Dios el Padre, o el Espíritu Santo, o incluso un arcángel ministro, pensó cuando Satanás se le apareció? Satanás también sabía cómo tentarlo. El Jesús humano tenía hambre, sed y estaba a punto de caer al suelo. También estaba cuestionando todo ahora, y Satanás lo sabía.

“No requerirá mucho”, ofreció Satanás. “Solo arrodíllate y adórame, y te daré cada reino, poder y placer de este mundo”.

No conocemos toda esta conversación, pero Satanás probablemente también le sugirió que la crucifixión ya no sería necesaria: Jesús simplemente podría tomar el lugar que le corresponde como Rey y Gobernante de la Tierra de inmediato. ¿Sediento? ¿Hambriento? Toda el agua, el vino y los alimentos finos que pudiera desear se pondrían inmediatamente delante de Él. ¿Cansado? Un ejército de sirvientes aparecería de inmediato para llevarlo a una cama blanda y gentilmente lo llevaría a dormir. Y, sin embargo, vencido por el sol, la sed, el hambre y la agonía personal, Jesús logró resistir estas tentaciones. ¿Cómo? Jesús tenía una radical confianza en Dios.

Y nosotros también debemos hacerlo. Cuando el desierto se vuelve insoportable, cuando estamos listos para rendirnos, debemos aferrarnos a Dios con una dependencia radical. Así como una persona que se está ahogando se agarra a una balsa salvavidas sin preguntas sobre su robustez o flotabilidad, nosotros también debemos agarrarnos de Dios con esa misma dependencia radical, asegurados de que Él nos salvará. Él nos ayudará. No tiene ninguna consecuencia que no podamos verlo, tocarnos o sentirlo en este momento. Él todavía está allí, esperando y observando, listo para atraparnos cuando lo soltamos y llamamos, cuando confiamos radicalmente en su capacidad para ayudarnos, fortalecemos contra la tentación y hacemos las cosas bien.

Si esta es su situación en este momento, si está tentado o se siente solo con un problema terrible, llame de inmediato a Dios para que lo ayude. Hágalo con una dependencia radical. Cuando Pedro le gritó a Jesús cuando comenzó a hundirse en el agua, “¡Señor, salvame!”, Nosotros también deberíamos hacerlo. Y Él nos salvará. Él ya nos ha salvado y por eso continuará rescatándonos una y otra vez, tantas veces como sea necesario. Todo lo que tenemos que hacer es preguntar, ¡y lo recibiremos!

Attendance At Mass When Sick

The Diocesan Office of Liturgy offers the following suggestions during the cold and flu season and in light of the recent coronavirus: if you are sick, you’re not required to attend Mass. It is the decision of each individual communicant to receive the Precious Blood. Those who suspect symptoms that may signal impending flu or cold should refrain from receiving the Precious Blood and receive only the Body of Christ in the species of the consecrated host until the person is well again. During the Rite of Peace, options you might prefer in lieu of shaking hands include: Make a reverential bow of the head to the people around you and say, “Peace be with you.” Simply say “Peace be with you” without any gesture.

La Oficina de la Diocesis de Liturgia ofrece las siguientes sugerencias con respecto a la asistencia a la misa cuando está enfermo, durante la temporada de resfríos y gripe y a la luz del reciente coronavirus: Si están enfermos o experimentan síntomas de enfermedad, no están obligados a asistir a misa. Es la decisión de cada comulgante recibir la Preciosa Sangre. Aquellos que sospechen síntomas que pueden indicar gripe o resfriado inminentes deben abstenerse de recibir la Preciosa Sangre. Durante el Rito de la paz, las opciones que puede preferir en lugar de estrechar la mano pueden ser: Haga una reverencia a las personas a su alrededor y diga: “La paz sea con usted”. Simplemente diga “la paz sea con usted” sin ningún gesto.

Our Lenten Journey

All Souls Catholic School students and staff began their Lenten journey as a community on Ash Wednesday. At that time, the alleluia was symbolically put away in accordance with the lenten season, and will be brought out again at the resurrection of Jesus. We were reminded that Lent is a time to remember the sacrifices made for us, and to give up not only some “thing”, but the heavier things we carry such as prejudice, judgement and hate. We take these 40 days to ask God to help us replace these types of burdens with grace, mercy, love, compassion and kindness. Our school community prays for our parishioners also, that we all may grow closer to God during this Lenten journey.

The Bible pays Joseph the highest compliment: he was a “just” man. The quality meant a lot more than faithfulness in paying debts.

When the Bible speaks of God “justifying” someone, it means that God, the all-holy or “righteous” one, so transforms a person that the individual shares somehow in God’s own holiness, and hence it is really “right” for God to love him or her. In other words, God is not playing games, acting as if we were lovable when we are not.

By saying Joseph was “just,” the Bible means that he was one who was completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. He became holy by opening himself totally to God. The rest we can easily surmise. Think of the kind of love with which he wooed and won Mary, and the depth of the love they shared during their marriage.

It is no contradiction of Joseph’s manly holiness that he decided to divorce Mary when she was found to be with child. The important words of the Bible are that he planned to do this “quietly” because he was “a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame” (Matthew 1:19).

The just man was simply, joyfully, wholeheartedly obedient to God—in marrying Mary, in naming Jesus, in shepherding the precious pair to Egypt, in bringing them to Nazareth, in the undetermined number of years of quiet faith and courage.

4 What is the Divine Mercy Image?
The Divine Mercy image is a depiction of Jesus based on a vision that St. Faustina had in 1931. There have been a number of paintings made of this image. The original, though not the most popular one today, is shown above.

A basic explanation of the image is:
Jesus is shown in most versions as raising his right hand in blessing, and pointing with his left hand on his chest from which flow forth two rays: one red and one white (translucent). The depictions often contain the message... "Jesus, I trust in You!" (Polish: “Jezu ufam Tobie”).

The rays streaming out have symbolic meaning:
Red for the blood of Jesus (which is the Life of Souls), and pale for the water (which justify souls) (Diary of St. Faustina - 299). The whole image is symbolic of charity, forgiveness and love of God, referred to as the “Fountain of Mercy”.

Stay tuned next week for #4:
5. What does the Church do to encourage devotion to the Divine Mercy on this day?

And The Bible Says...

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” - Mt 17:4-5

Our Faith Community

Lift Students Out of Poverty: Support the Society of St. Vincent de Paul’s 2020 Scholarship Program

We put a bow on our series of profiles of 2019 St. Vincent de Paul Scholarship recipients by introducing you to Ezekiel.

A 2019 graduate of Seminole High School, Ezekiel is currently attending Florida A&M University as a Biology/Pre-Med major. Raised by a single mom, he remembers being a child when his family needed emergency shelter. The kindness of older children at the shelter inspired Ezekiel to become an advocate for disadvantaged youth and to become a promotor of affordable education. He began this quest during high school by spending more than 300 hours teaching student skills, mentoring at several youth programs, being involved in student government, all while holding a part-time job to assist his family.

Thanks to your generosity, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference at All Souls Catholic Church provided Ezekiel a much-needed $1,000 scholarship.

Now in its eighth year, St. Vincent de Paul’s Scholarship Program provides opportunities to high school students like Ezekiel, young people who excel in the classroom and in the community but come from families struggling to make ends meet.

The St. Vincent de Paul Ministry works closely with our neighbors in need, walking with them and helping lift them out of poverty.

To continue our Mission, we need your help! Will you join us in making a change in these young people’s lives?

There are a couple of ways to help:

Become a Sponsor by supporting a student with a $2,000 full Scholarship/$1,000 a year for two years. You may make your gift in memory of a loved one. Sponsors are invited to join us during our Scholarship Ceremony in May.

Become a Donor by making a generous contribution in any amount. All donations are applied to a full Scholarship. We’ll recognize your donation during our Scholarship Ceremony.

Please pray for the continued success of this Scholarship Program and for the young people whose lives are positively impacted by the generosity of Sponsors and Donors like you.

More information: Checks may be made payable to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, with Scholarship noted, and mailed to All Souls Catholic Church at: 301 W. 8th Street Sanford, FL 32771. Questions? Call us at 407-330-4400.
