“Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live.””

- Jn 11:25
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

“Master, the one you love is ill.”
When Jesus heard this he said,
“This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

I hope you have time to open the scriptures or search today’s gospel, and read the entire text. I find this 5th Sunday of lent story to be very insightful, compelling and rich in meaning. As Illness, death, fear, and uncertainties, seems to occupy and creep into our senses, Jesus somehow manages to light the candles of Hope in the midst of this crisis. The word of God indeed pierces like a two-edge sword into our hearts and mind.

How does Jesus confront the ultimate threat of our existence in this beautiful world the Lord created for us? In the gospel, Jesus commands the people to “untie” Lazarus to be set free… and “called” Him to come to Him. “I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE, WHOEVER BELIEVES IN ME WILL HAVE LIFE ETERNAL”

We are called by Jesus to “untie” the bonds of Sin and Death every day. As the antiphons proclaim, “if today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts,” How can we in the middle of isolation “untie” ourselves from impurities of both mind and heart, body and soul to welcome and embrace Jesus through our Spiritual Communion with him?

“Lord I am not worthy to receive, only say a word and your servant will be healed.”

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

"Maestro, la persona que amas está enferma".
Cuando Jesús escuchó esto, dijo:
"Esta enfermedad no debe terminar en muerte, pero es para la gloria de Dios que el Hijo de Dios pueda ser glorificado a través de ella ".

Espero que tengas tiempo para abrir las Escrituras o buscar el evangelio de hoy y leer todo el texto. Este quinto domingo en la historia de Cuaresma me parece muy perspicaz, con-vincente y con un significado profundo. A medida que la enfermedad, la muerte, el miedo y las incertidumbres parecen ocupar nuestros sentidos, Jesús se las arregla para en-cender las velas de la esperanza en medio de esta crisis. La palabra de Dios perfore como una espada de dos filos en nuestros corazones y nuestra mente.

¿Cómo confronta Jesús la última amenaza de nuestra ex-istencia en este hermoso mundo que el Señor creó para nosotros? En el evangelio, Jesús ordena a la gente que "desate” a Lázaro para ser puesto en libertad ... y "lo llamó" para que venga a Él. "YO SOY LA RESURRECCIÓN Y LA VIDA, EL QUE CREA EN MÍ TENDRÁ VIDA ETERNA"

Jesús nos llama a "desatar" los lazos del pecado y la muerte todos los días. Como proclaman las antífonas, "si hoy es-cuchan su voz, no endurezcan sus corazones"

¿Cómo podemos, en medio del aislamiento, "desatarnos" las impurezas de la mente y el corazón, el cuerpo y el alma para recibir y abrazar a Jesús a través de nuestra comunión espiritual con Él?

"Señor, no soy digno de recibir, sólo di una palabra y tu siervo será sanado".

For Your Day

“E"ven though we say that we believe, there is a part of us that doesn’t. There are many times in our lives when we experience death, whether it be the physical death of someone we love, a failed relationship, the loss of a job, or a broken dream. As we are going through these death experiences, we can easily find ourselves reaching out to God to make it better and fix it! We think that the proper order of life is to maintain the things of this world, especially those things that are essential to our sense of well-being and security. We do not like change. The grieving that comes from our death experiences can keep us stuck and in despair. If we have lost something or someone of great value, the very meaning and essence of life is lost with them. We need gentle companions to lift us from despair and that is precisely who God desires to be in our life as well.

God calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, “Come out!” He desperately wants to show us the path to hope and the new life that is possible after loss and death. But our faith can be weak, and we still prefer to cling to the memory of what we had rather than the joyful possibilities of tomorrow. We sometimes live as if God is not real and that the transformative power of His resurrected presence is a story found in the Bible rather than a narrative unfolding in our lives.

God is the God of surprises, not our demise. God opens new possibilities, begins new chapters, creates new verses, and brings us to new heights! We spend so much time and energy ruminating behind yesterday that we are far too tired to see what can unfold tomorrow. Loving someone new doesn’t negate our past loves. Embracing the love of a person, God, or life itself tomorrow doesn’t diminish the love of yesterday. Each of our loves is different, and one cannot be replaced by another. They don’t cancel each other out. God truly has tended to every detail of our lives, and if we listen to each detail, we find that they all lead us back to Him. Jesus wants us to come out of our closed-up tombs. Are we going to listen this time? ©LPi

St. Vincent de Paul Needs Your Help!
Dear Friends in Christ, Our food pantry shelves are emptying quickly and we are in need of several items, such as:

- canned fruits and vegetables,
- canned meats, chunky soups, jelly,
- shelf milk, fresh breads, and other food items.

Many families are hurting at this time, due to the economic and health impact of the Covid-19 virus. We need your help to stock our shelves for those families and affected individuals. We’ll also gladly accept food gift cards and monetary donations.

Please set a reminder, that we will be available for drop-off of donations on Wednesday, April 1, and Thursday, April 2, from 2 - 4 PM in the parking lot behind the Historic Chapel, on 9th Street, in Sanford. Items received will be sanitized and processed.

Whatever you can do to help would be greatly appreciated. Those who struggle in their daily lives are finding these days of uncertainty even more difficult. We pray for you, our benefactors, as we pray for those in need.

May God bless you and keep you safe!

Holy Week Preview

Greetings from All Souls Catholic Church,

Bishop John Noonan, in solidarity with all the parishes and communities of the Diocese of Orlando, is inviting us to join him via livestream during our Liturgical Celebrations for Holy Week. Since no other livestream celebrations will be presented by the parishes, this united opportunity will be broadcast from St. James Cathedral, and we will inform as many people as possible.

Our participation this Holy Week through Diocesan sponsored livestreaming, will provide us with spiritual resources and guidance so we, the faithful, are able to participate as best as possible, even though we may need to do so remotely. Let us celebrate Our Holy Week with Our Good Shepherd, Bishop Noonan.

Our closeness to God is the strongest force. No social distancing is greater than the spiritual presence of God, for who can separate us from the love Jesus gave us on the cross.

Holy Week Directives

Palm Sunday
1. Video will be available of Palm Sunday Mass (from All Souls Church) is allowed in the parish.
2. Palms may be blessed on Palm Sunday, but they are to be distributed at a later date when public liturgies resume and people are allowed to gather.

Triduum Liturgies
1. Triduum liturgies will be broadcast throughout the Diocese from St. James Cathedral only. Parishes are asked to refrain from local livestreams.
2. The “Elect” who are to be baptized will be received into the Church as soon as we are able to open our Churches for public celebration of Mass. (The Office of Liturgy will provide guidance and the proper ritual to use.)

Broadcasting of Holy Week liturgical celebrations from St. James Cathedral (web links will be forthcoming):

Chrism Mass, Holy Wednesday, April 8, 6:30 p.m.
The Lord’s Supper, Holy Thursday, April 9, 7:00 p.m.
Passion of Our Lord, Good Friday, April 10, 3:00 p.m.
At the Easter Vigil Holy Saturday, April 11, 8:00 p.m.
Easter Sunday, April 12 (9:30 a.m.)
1. Video will be available of Easter Sunday Mass (from St. James Cathedral and All Souls) is allowed in the parish.

Sincerely Yours In Christ,

Vista Previa de Semana Santa

Saludos de la Iglesia Católica All Souls,

El obispo John Noonan, en solidaridad con todas las parroquias y comunidades de la Diócesis de Orlando, nos invita a unirnos a él a través de la transmisión en vivo durante nuestras celebraciones litúrgicas para la Semana Santa. Dado que las parroquias no presentarán otras celebraciones en vivo, esta oportunidad conjunta se transmitirá desde la Catedral de St. James e informaremos a la mayor cantidad de personas posible.

Nuestra participación en esta Semana Santa a través de la transmisión en vivo patrocinada por la Diócesis, nos proporcionará recursos espirituales y orientación para que nosotros, los fieles, podamos participar de la mejor manera posible, aunque necesitemos hacerlo de forma remota. Celebremos Nuestra Semana Santa con Nuestro Buen Pastor, el Obispo Noonan.

Nuestra cercanía a Dios es la fuerza más fuerte. Ningún distanciamiento social es mayor que la presencia espiritual de Dios, porque quien puede separarnos del amor que Jesús nos dio en la cruz.

Directivas de Semana Santa

Domingo de Palma
1. El video estará disponible de la Misa del Domingo de Ramos (de la Iglesia All Souls) está permitido en la parroquia.
2. Las palmas pueden ser bendecidas el Domingo de Ramos, pero se distribuirán en una fecha posterior cuando se reanuden las liturgias públicas y se permita que las personas se reúnan.

Triduo Liturgias
1. Las liturgias del Triduo se transmitirán en toda la Diócesis desde la Catedral de St. James solamente. Se les pide a las parroquias que se abstengan de las transmisiones en vivo locales.
2. Los “elegidos” que serán bautizados serán recibidos en la Iglesia tan pronto como podamos abrir nuestras iglesias para la celebración pública de la misa. (La Oficina de Liturgia proporcionará orientación y el ritual adecuado para usar.)

Difusión de las celebraciones litúrgicas de la Semana Santa desde la Catedral de St. James (se publicarán enlaces web):

Prayers For Times Like These

A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION IN TIME OF PANDEMIC
O Mary, you always brighten our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the Cross, took part in Jesus’ pain while remaining steadfast in faith. O loving Mother, you know what we need, and we are confident you will provide for us as at Cana in Galilee. Intercede for us with your Son Jesus, the Divine Physician, for those who have fallen ill, for those who are vulnerable, and for those who have died. Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others and for those who are tending to the sick and seeking a cure. Help us, O Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows, so as to lead us, through the Cross, to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen. Under thy protection we seek refuge, O Holy Mother of God. In our needs, despise not our petitions, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Adapted from the prayer of Pope Francis

CATHOLICS CAN MAKE AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion means uniting one’s self in prayer with Christ’s sacrifice and worshiping Him in His Body and Blood. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

An Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

Coming Together During Time of Covid-19

All Souls Catholic School is a family that sticks together in good times and in times of crises. The Covid-19 virus has impacted our families and the school in ways that few could have imagined, but which our school is overcoming with the help of technology and by God’s grace. Our investment in our students technology skills and equipment has allowed our teachers to prepare them to adapt more readily than most to online learning. Our teaching staff has been working tirelessly to proactively prep lesson plans, send home packages of supplies for students, set up “Zoom” conferencing to facilitate sharing and learning, and to help parents ease into at-home learning and teaching their kids.

These are challenging times, but we’ve risen to the task working together as a family, to not leave anyone behind, unsupported, or without the necessary resources. Some examples - the school issued 5 laptops to families in need of them for their students to work from home; teachers and even the principal will be staying after hours to make sure they are available to parents after work hours; and the maintenance staff has stepped up to clean and sanitize every inch of every classroom and the school property, to ensure the safety of students when they eventually return to the school grounds.

When online classes begin on March 30th, All Souls School will be prepared to make sure the scholastic standards are covered, with no gaps in learning, so students can advance to the next grade, as expected. It has taken tremendous effort and a lot of hard work to meet this goal, but All Souls has always invested that level of care and dedication in all its students, because that’s what family does - we look out for each other, especially when it really counts.

May God bless and protect all our students and families!

St. Peter Regalado

Peter lived at a very busy time in history. The Great Western Schism (1378-1417) was settled at the Council of Constance (1414-1418). France and England were fighting the Hundred Years’ War, and in 1453, the Byzantine Empire was completely wiped out by the loss of Constantinople to the Turks. At Peter’s death, the age of printing had just begun in Germany, and Columbus’ arrival in the New World was less than 40 years away.

Peter came from a wealthy and pious family in Valladolid, Spain. At the age of 13, he was allowed to enter the Conventual Franciscans. Shortly after his ordination, he was made superior of the friary in Aguilar. He became part of a group of friars who wanted to lead a life of greater poverty and penance. In 1442, he was appointed head of all the Spanish Franciscans in his reform group.

Peter led the friars by his example. A special love of the poor and the sick characterized Peter. Miraculous stories are told about his charity to the poor. For example, the bread never seemed to run out as long as Peter had hungry people to feed. Throughout most of his life, Peter went hungry; he lived only on bread and water.

Immediately after his death on March 31, 1456, his grave became a place of pilgrimage. Peter was canonized in 1746.

Creative Family Faith Sharing of Online Masses!

The Barros Family is not letting the corona virus keep them from coming together with the All Souls faith community to celebrate our faith. The family created their own church and then gathered around the television to watch our Mass as it was streamed online. Setting up their domestic church within the home has empowered them to stay strong in faith and love of Christ. The family also used their gathered church to pray the stations of the cross. Mom, Veronica searched for different images on the internet and utilized what she already had at home so that the children could create their mini All Souls faith community.

Fellow parishioner, Ms. Stephanie F., said in a Facebook post that although she was saddened that we couldn’t attend Mass together physically she found great comfort in watching it virtually, knowing that fellow brothers and sisters in Christ were doing the exact same thing. They even shared the sign of peace via texts. She continued to thank all those who made this a reality.

Do you think that perhaps this is how the early Christians felt when they could not openly celebrate Mass? We are truly blessed that we have the means to still celebrate Mass via technology. Now more than ever we are relying on our faith to pull through this unprecedented event.

And The Bible Says...

Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.” - Jn 11:25-27

Jesús le dijo: “Yo soy la resurrección y la vida. El que cree en mí, aunque haya muerto, vivirá; y todo aquel que está vivo y cree en mí, no morirá para siempre. ¿Crees tú esto?” Ella le contestó: “Sí, Señor. Creo firmemente que tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, el que tenía que venir al mundo”. - Jn 11, 25-27

Harvest Festival Craft Booth
Donate Your One-Of-A-Kind Crafts or Gently Used Items!

The craft booth last year had a fabulous year and we almost sold out of everything. We are in need of new items to sell such as glass work, wood work, crochet or knit baby sets, sewing crafts or any crafty ideas you might like to do.

During the current Covid-19 situation, when many families find themselves at home, it might be a good time to go through those closets you’ve been meaning to clean out, or to work with the kids on crafts. Please save some of those gently used or new items you may decide to dispose of, or some of those crafts you may create, for the Craft Booth. It’s a great way to be doubly productive while at home and give yourself a boost!
