“Jesus said to him, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

- Jn 20:29
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

“Cum legentibus crescit”

St Gregory the Great compliments the primal source of our faith, the Bible, when he said, scriptures “grows with its readers.”

Each time a question or remark is raised in the hearts of men, testified throughout scriptures; it always reveals it’s meaning. “As we seek an answer, God gives it.”

Fr Raniero Cantalamessa, Vatican household preacher, Apr 10 Good Fri celebration.

It’s not different from the remarks of St Thomas when he missed the 1st appearance of Jesus under a locked upper room. “Unless I see the mark of nails in His hands and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.” Why not, said the person next to you, we saw God helplessly die on the cross right? Jesus sees this confusion and distress in the heart and mind of Thomas, and thus, allowed him, to touch and learn, about the resurrection. “Do not be unbelieving but believe.” Whatever angle we look at it, back or front, the cause and effect of the greatest evil done to Jesus and now into our humanity - the Cross, death, pandemic, poverty, joblessness, can be better understood not only from the CAUSE OF IT, but also through its EFFECT. The positive effect of the CROSS transforms us to Hope, Live Victoriously, in Peace. “My Lord and my God”, said St Tomas.

HOW DO YOU RELATE TO THOMAS, AS DESCRIBED IN THE GOSPEL?

FIND TIME TO REFLECT NOT SO MUCH ON THE BITTERNESS OF SIN THAT CAUSE DARKNESS AND DESPAIR, BUT RATHER, FOCUS ON THE EFFECTS OF OUR TRUST AND COURAGE, THE DIVINE MERCY BRINGS TO US….as Pope Francis calls it….THE NEW CONTAGION OF HOPE.

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo:

“Cum legentibus crescit”

San Gregorio el Grande complementa la fuente primordial de nuestra fe, la Biblia, cuando dijo que las Escrituras “crecen con sus lectores”.

Cada vez que surge una pregunta o comentario en los corazones de los hombres, testificado a lo largo de las Escrituras; siempre revela su significado. “Cuando buscamos una respuesta, Dios nos la da”.

P. Raniero Cantalamessa, predicador del Vaticano, 10 de abril. Celebración del Viernes Santo.

No es diferente de los comentarios de Santo Tomás cuando se perdió la primera aparición de Jesús debajo de una habitación superior cerrada. "A menos que vea la marca de clavos en Sus manos y ponga mi mano en Su costado, no lo creeré". ¿Por qué no, dijo la persona a tu lado, vimos a Dios morir indefenso en la cruz, verdad? Jesús ve esta confusión y angustia en el corazón y la mente de Tomás y, por lo tanto, le permitió tocar y aprender acerca de la resurrección. "No seas incrédulo, sino cree". Independientemente del ángulo que lo miremos, hacia atrás o hacia adelante, la causa y el efecto del mayor mal hecho a Jesús y ahora en nuestra humanidad: la Cruz, la muerte, la pandemia, la pobreza, el desempleo, se pueden entender mejor no solo por la CAUSA DE ÉL, pero también a través de su EFECTO. El efecto positivo de la CRUZ nos transforma en esperanza, vive victoriamente, en paz. "Mi Señor y mi Dios", dijo San Tomás.

¿CÓMO SE RELACIONA USTED CON TOMAS, EN LA FORMA QUE SE DESCRIBE EN EL EVANGELIO?

ENCUENTRE TIEMPO PARA REFLEJARSE NO TANTO EN LA BITTERNEDAD DEL PECADO QUE CAUSA OSCURIDAD Y DESPERACIÓN, PERO EN CAMBIO, ENFOCAR A LOS EFECTOS DE NUESTRA CONFIANZA Y VALOR, QUE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA TRAE A NOSOTROS ... como lo llama el Papa Francisco ... EL NUEVO CONTAGÓN DE LA ESPERANZA.

P. David Vivero
Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

“A person was going through a very dark time, questioning the meaning of life, not feeling very purposeful or worthwhile, and feeling disconnected and unappreciated. Suddenly, they gazed up at the night sky, found themselves in awe of all the stars and constellations, and exclaimed, “I am here on purpose and I am loved!” Having been brought by God to this moment of intense connection and awareness, his life changed from that moment on.

If we are always preoccupied with the challenges, obligations, and stuff of daily life, we can easily miss the wonderful opportunities when the resurrected Christ is knocking at our door. If we open ourselves to the fullness of experience, we will find ourselves listening and embracing all that is around us, being caught up in the magnificence of creation’s grandeur and knowing in our heart and soul that God is and I am.

While that sounds like a simple, tell-me-something-I-don’t-know kind of revelation, it is life changing when it takes root in the depth of a person’s soul. Stumbling upon this awesome truth and internalizing it doesn’t require an assent of the mind. It beckons for a claim on our soul. We find ourselves knowing something profound of the pieces of faith and life make reason. The “my Lord and my God” responses we utter are not evoked because all of the pieces of faith and life make reason. The “my Lord and my God” affirmations come when we are lifted up out of our preoccupations and silliness and are in the presence of mystery and mercy.

St. Vincent de Paul Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends in Christ,

Our food pantry shelves are emptying quickly and we are in need of several items, to help others. But, virus worries and stay-at-home orders are making it more difficult to receive food directly. So, we are humbly asking for food gift cards and monetary donations.

Many families are hurting at this time, due to the economic and health impact of the Covid-19 virus. We need your help to stock our shelves, using alternative donations for those families and affected individuals.

Whatever you can do to help would be greatly appreciated. Those who struggle in their daily lives are finding these days of uncertainty even more difficult. We pray for you, our benefactors, as we pray for those in need.

May God bless you and keep you safe!

What Is Divine Mercy Sunday and What To Do

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Blessed John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary entry 699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the font of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.

But how can you receive this complete forgiveness of sins and remission of all punishment? After all, churches are closed and Confession and Communion are not available.

There is a way. Do these three things on Divine Mercy Sunday with the intention to turn away from sin in your life:

1. Make an Act of Contrition
Since you are unable to go to Confession, make an Act of Contrition, instead. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “Among the penitent’s acts, contrition occupies first place. Contrition is ‘sorrow of the soul and detestation for the sin committed, together with the resolution not to sin again’” (1451).

You thereby will be completely forgiven of all sins, even “mortal sins if it includes the firm resolution to have recourse to sacramental confession as soon as possible” (Catechism, 1452).

2. Make a Spiritual Communion
Since churches are closed and you cannot receive Holy Communion, make a Spiritual Communion instead, asking God to come into your heart as if you received Him sacramentally — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. For instance, you can say the Act of Spiritual Communion on the next page.

Again, do this act of trust with the intent to return to the sacrament of Holy Communion as soon as possible.

3. Say a Prayer Like This:
Lord Jesus Christ, You promised St. Faustina that the soul that has been to Confession [I’m unable, but I made an Act of Contrition] and the soul that receives Holy Communion [I’m unable, but I made a Spiritual Communion] will receive the complete forgiveness of all sins and punishment. Please, Lord Jesus Christ, give me this grace.

Finally, please remember that this extraordinary promise of Divine Mercy Sunday is for everyone. Tell your non-Catholic friends about it. Everyone can ask Jesus to forgive their sins. Everyone can make a Spiritual Communion. And everyone can ask for this grace to completely wipe their slate clean of not only all sin, but all punishment due to sin.

(Note: The Catholic Church also offers a Plenary Indulgence for Mercy Sunday devotions, which involves the fulfillment of a number of conditions.)

¿Qué es el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia y Qué Hacer?

En una serie de revelaciones a Santa María Faustina Kowalska en la década de 1930, nuestro Señor convocó a una fiesta especial que se celebraría el domingo después de Pascua. Hoy, conocemos esa fiesta como el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, nombrada por el Beato Juan Pablo II en la canonización de Santa Faustina el 30 de Abril de 2000.

El Señor expresó su voluntad con respecto a esta fiesta en su primera revelación a Santa Faustina. La revelación más completa se puede encontrar en su entrada del Diario 699:

Hija mía, cuéntale al mundo entero acerca de mi inconcebible misericordia. Deseo que la Fiesta de la Misericordia sea un refugio y un refugio para todas las almas, y especialmente para los pobres pecadores. En ese día están abiertas las profundidades de Mi tierna misericordia. Derramo todo un océano de gracias sobre esas almas que se acercan a la fuente de Mi misericordia. El alma que irá a la Confesión y recibirá la Sagrada Comunión obtendrá el perdón completo de los pecados y el castigo. En ese día se abren todas las compuertas divinas a través de las cuales fluyan las gracias. No dejes que ninguna alma teme acercarse a Mi, aunque sus pecados sean tan escarlatas.

Pero, ¿cómo puedes recibir este completo perdón de pecados y la remisión de todo castigo? Después de todo, las iglesias están cerradas y la Confesión y la Comunión no están disponibles.

Hay una manera. Haz estas tres cosas el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia con la intención de alejarte del pecado en tu vida:

1. Hacer un Acto de Contrición
Como no puede llegar a la Confesión, haga un Acto de Contrición. Como dice el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, “entre los actos del penitente, la contrición ocupa el primer lugar. La contrición es ‘dolor del alma y detestación por el pecado cometido, junto con la resolución de no volver a pecar’” (1451).

De este modo, será completamente perdonado de todos los pecados, incluso “pecados mortales si incluye la firme resolución de recurrir a la confesión sacramental lo antes posible” (Catecismo, 1452).

2. Hacer una Comunión Espiritual
Como las iglesias están cerradas y no puedes recibir la Sagrada Comunión, haz una Comunión Espiritual en su lugar, pidiéndole a Dios que entre en tu corazón como si lo hubieras recibido sacramentalmente: cuerpo, sangre, alma y divinidad. Por ejemplo, puede decir el Acto de Comunión Espiritual en la página siguiente.

Nuevamente, haga este acto de confianza con la intención de regresar al sacramento de la Sagrada Comunión lo antes posible.

3. Diga Una Oración Como Esta:
Señor Jesucristo, prometiste a Santa Faustina que el alma que ha estado en confesión [no puedo, pero hice un acto de contrición] y el alma que recibe la Sagrada Comunión [no puedo, pero hice una comunión espiritual] recibirá el perdón completo de todos los pecados y castigos. Por favor, Señor Jesucristo, dame esta gracia.

Finalmente, recuerde que esta extraordinaria promesa del Domingo de la Divina Misericordia es para todos. Diselo a tus amigos no católicos. Todos pueden pedirle a Jesús que perdone sus pecados. Todos pueden hacer una comunión espiritual. Y todos pueden pedir esta gracia para limpiar completamente su pizarra no solo de todo pecado, sino de todo castigo debido al pecado.

(Nota: La Iglesia Católica también ofrece una Indulgencia Plenaria para las devociones del Domingo de la Misericordia, que implica el cumplimiento de una serie de condiciones).

Divine Mercy Prayers

Catholics Can Make an Act of Spiritual Communion

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which means uniting one’s self in prayer with Christ’s sacrifice and worshiping Him in His Body and Blood.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Acto de Comunión Espiritual

Creo, Jesús mío, que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo ardentemente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.

Quédate conmigo y no permitas que me separe de ti. Amen

How to Pray The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

1. Make the Sign of the Cross
2. (Optional) Pray
3. (Optional) Pray
4. On the first pater
5. Online Father, I offer You my body, soul and spirit as an obedient offering to Your divine will. For the sake of My Passion, my death and my resurrection, I now receive into my heart an Act of Spiritual Communion, which means uniting myself in prayer with Christ’s sacrifice and worshiping Him in His Body and Blood.
6. For the sake of the lost souls in Purgatory and in reparation for all other sins ever committed, I offer You, Lord, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the first time in the whole world.
7. Pray three times,
8. Holy Mary, see and assist us with Your mercy as we come to You in prayer.

St. George, Martyr

It is uncertain when Saint George was born and historians continue to debate to this day. However, his death date is estimated to be April 23, 303 A.D. George was born to a Gerontios and Polychronia, a Roman officer and a Greek native of Lydda. Both were Christians from noble families of the Anici and George, Georgios in the original Greek, was raised to follow their faith. When George was old enough, he was welcomed into Diocletian’s army. By his late 20’s, George became a Tribunus and served as an imperial guard for the Emperor at Nicomedia. On February 24, 303 A.D., Diocletian, who hated Christians, announced that every Christian the army passed would be arrested and every other soldier should offer a sacrifice to the Roman gods. George refused to abide by the order and told Diocletian, who was angry but greatly valued his friendship with George’s father. In an effort to save George, Diocletian attempted to convert him to believe in the Roman gods, offered him land, money and slaves in exchange for offering a sacrifice to the Roman gods, and made several other offers that George refused. Diocletian ordered George’s execution, so he was lacerated on a wheel of swords and required resuscitation three times, but still George did not turn from God. On April 23, 303 A.D., George was decapitated before Nicomedia’s outer wall. His body was sent to Lydda for burial, and other Christians went to honor George as a martyr.

Saint George and the Dragon
There are several stories about George fighting dragons, but in the Western version, a dragon or crocodile made its nest at a spring that provided water to Silene, believed to be modern-day Lycyrene in Libya. The people were unable to collect water and so attempted to remove the dragon from its nest on several occasions. This was when they decided that a maiden would be just as effective as sending a sheep. The townspeople chose the victim by drawing straws. This continued until one day the princess’ straw was drawn. The monarch begged for her to be spared but the people would not have it. She was offered to the dragon, but before she could be devoured, George appeared. He faced the dragon, protected himself with the sign of the Cross, and slayed the dragon. After saving the town, the citizens abandoned their paganism and were all converted to Christianity.

Tribute To All 1st Responders
All Souls paid tribute to all of those individuals who are fighting on the front lines to care for those affected by COVID-19. They are real-life angels here on earth. They are sacrificing being with their families, not to mention their health, so that they can take care of our sick family and friends. Please continue to pray for our first responders as well as all of those working in the health care field and food industries.

And The Bible Says...

Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.” Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God!”—Jn 20:27-28

Luego dice á Tomás: Mete tu dedo aquí, y ve mis manos: y alarga acá tu mano, y métela en mi costado: y no seas incrédulo, sino fiel. Entonces Tomás respondió, y dióle: ¡Señor mío, y Dios mío! - Jn 20, 27-28
