“Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.” - Jn 10:2-3
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

The Sheep, the Gatekeeper, and the Shepherd

The image of the good shepherd has a perennial influence and hold among Christians. Not only from the perspective of its popular image depicting Jesus as the Good Shepherd Himself, it has gained its reputation to be one of the most popular prayers (Ps 23) of every Christian minister, particularly, in healthcare. The imagination can influence the church quest for an Ideal Personnel in Pastoral Care and Liturgical Leadership. However, there is also the Theological & Human side of this image that is already available.

The Theological focus suggests that the sheep cannot afford to be separated from the shepherd. No different from Jesus’s teachings that “apart from me you cannot do anything.” Can the Church, its magisterium and Hierarchy, and the teachings of faith suffice its mission without Christ? Can it gain strength and maintain its collegiality with Him? The identity of the shepherd in relationship with the sheep is of utmost importance. They know each other’s voice and smell.

2ndly, the Sacrifice unveils the true meaning of God’s act of love for His sheep. I ask my brother Filipino priests to help me remember principles of philosophy. They are the Principles of cause and effect, essence and existence, matter and form, act and potency, etc. Yet nothing can best describe the sacrifice than the simple poem Pope Francis wrote for us this Easter: “Rivers do not drink their own water, trees do not eat their own fruit, the Sun does not shine on itself. Living for others is a rule of nature. We are born to help others...it is good to be happy, but much better when others are happy because of you.” It is not an idea. It is the eternal presence of Christ in us.

“There is no greater love than this, to give one’s life for others”. Our prayers are with all the gatekeepers, pastors of the flock, and the sheep who know and follow the Good Shepherd, Always & Forever. Amen.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

La Oveja, el Guardián y el Pastor.

La imagen del buen pastor tiene una influencia vivaz y un poder especial sobre los cristianos. No solamente desde la perspectiva de su imagen popular representando a Cristo mismo como el Buen Pastor, sino que también se ha ganado su reputación como una de las oraciones más populares entre los ministros cristianos (Salmo 23), particularmente en el ámbito del cuidado de salud. La imaginación puede influenciar la búsqueda de la iglesia por un personal ideal en el cuidado pastoral y liderazgo litúrgico. Sin embargo, también existe el lado humano y teológico de esta imagen, que está libremente disponible.

El enfoque teológico sugiere que las ovejas no pueden darse el lujo de separarse del pastor. Este concepto no difiere de las enseñanzas de Jesús que “aparte de mí no pueden hacer nada”. ¿Puede la Iglesia, su magisterio y su jerarquía, y las enseñanzas de la fe ser suficiente en su misión sin la presencia de Cristo? ¿Puede ésta crecer en su fuerza y mantener su colegialidad con Él? La identidad del pastor en relación a las ovejas es de la más suma importancia. Se conocen mutuamente, hasta la voz y el olor.

En segundo lugar, el sacrificio revela el verdadero significado de este acto de amor que Dios realiza por sus ovejas. Les pido a mis hermanos sacerdotes filipinos que me ayuden a recordar los principios de la filosofía. Estos son los principios de causa y efecto, esencia y existencia, materia y forma, acto y potencia, etc. Sin embargo, nada describe mejor el sacrificio que el simple poema que el Papa Francisco escribió para nosotros esta Pascua: “Los ríos no beben su propia agua, los árboles no comen su propia fruta, el sol no brilla sobre sí mismo. Vivir para los demás es una regla de la naturaleza. Nacimos para ayudar al prójimo... es bueno ser feliz, pero mucho mejor cuando los demás son felices gracias a ti”. No es una idea. Es la presencia eterna de Cristo en nosotros.

"No hay amor más grande que dar la vida por sus amigos".

Nuestras oraciones están con todos los guardianes, pastores del rebaño y las ovejas que conocen y siguen al Buen Pastor, siempre y para siempre. Amén.

For Your Day

"With whom do we converse and listen to the most? Believe it or not, the answer is ourselves. We are constantly having conversations with ourselves, and sometimes we even get caught! Our inner conversations reveal the truth about ourselves. We really cannot hide from ourselves, although we often pretend we can. By conversing with ourselves, we find solutions to our challenges, problem solve, work through our relationships, formulate opinions, run through dress rehearsals of possible conversations, and wrestle with and determine our system of priorities and values. What other voices affect the conversations we have with ourselves? Often, voices from our past continue to haunt us. These voices cause us to mistrust our judgment, harbor anger, and cling to our fears of rejection, failure, being wrong, and the like. It is in these inner conversations that we face what holds us captive — our limitations, weaknesses, sinfulness, and stubborn ego preoccupations. We often go about our lives putting out one fire or another, keeping ourselves preoccupied and busy, and trying to stay on top of things. Intentionally or unintentionally, we find ourselves wandering off. We turn around and can no longer see our home. We look down at our feet and realize we have lost our anchor. Feeling scared, out of place, desolate, unsettled, and lonely, we realize that we are lost. We listened to the wrong voices! In the midst of everything competing for our attention, the voice of the One who could truly call us home got muffled. We didn’t hear it. As our inner dialogues continue to play out, the one voice we need to consult — even before our own — is God’s. He is the Good Shepherd who can keep us safely where we need to be. As we graze through the stuff of our lives, we must constantly remember to look up, be attentive, and stay focused. Our habits of prayer are the only thing that can properly root us and keep us grounded. Contemplating God’s presence and developing an inner awareness of love incarnate, we will then find ourselves praying unceasingly as the days and nights and the ebbs and flows of our of lives unfold. Suddenly, the inner conversations we are constantly having are no longer just with ourselves or with voices that can lead us astray but with the Trinity, who desperately wants us to stay home."

St. Vincent de Paul Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends in Christ,

Our food pantry shelves are emptying quickly and we are in need of several items, to help others. But, virus worries and stay-at-home orders are making it more difficult to receive food directly. So, we are humbly asking for food gift cards and monetary donations.

Many families are hurting at this time, due to the economic and health impact of the Covid-19 virus. We need your help to stock our shelves, using alternative donations for those families and affected individuals.

Whatever you can do to help would be greatly appreciated. Those who struggle in their daily lives are finding these days of uncertainty even more difficult. We pray for you, our benefactors, as we pray for those in need.

May God bless you and keep you safe!

Planting Seeds of Faith In Times of Covid-19

Most of us are staying at home right now, some of us without a clue of what to do while social distancing due to the coronavirus. However, there’s another way to look at this situation. Think of it as a blessed opportunity to plant figurative seeds of faith and hope, and enrich your own spiritual soil.

Here’s a list of 22 things you can do while staying at home:

1. Volunteer to help teachers in their heroic efforts to help students finish the school year through distance learning.
2. Offer to pick up or buy groceries for vulnerable neighbors. A variation of this is to make a meal for them.
3. Support local restaurants by buying their gift certificates or cards.
4. Use chalk to write on the sidewalk a message to your mail carrier, to let them know they are appreciated.
5. Create posters, side-walk art, cards, videos, or other messages to send to healthcare workers to show you care.
6. If you can sew, help make face masks for healthcare workers or others. Patterns can be found online.
7. Donate blood.
8. Know someone that’s isolated? Call and pray with them, or send them a prayer-a-day message.
9. Do a Novena or pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet or Rosary daily.
10. Write letters to those who are incarcerated.
11. Learn new technology and how to connect online.
12. Take an online or TV course to learn more about your faith.
13. Read the Bible.
14. Start a “gratitude” journal.
15. Learn how to pray the Liturgy of The Hours – Divine Office.
17. Clear out closets, the garage, sheds, etc. and get ready to donate items.
18. Do your taxes yourself.
19. Learn how to invest or research charities to which you may want to give or volunteer.
20. Start the process for volunteering within the Diocese, by filling out forms and meeting requirements in advance.
21. Sort through family photos and organize them so they can be enjoyed.
22. Research family stories and/or write a family history that you can share with younger family members.

Sembrando Semillas de Fe en Tiempos de Covid-19

La mayoría de nosotros nos quedamos en casa en este momento, algunos de nosotros sin una idea de qué hacer, mientras que el distanciamiento social debido al coronavirus. Sin embargo, hay otra forma de ver esta situación. Piense en ello como una bendita oportunidad para plantar semillas figurativas de fe y esperanza, y enriquecer su propio suelo espiritual.

Aqui hay una lista de 22 cosas que puedes hacer mientras estás en casa:

1. Voluntarizate para ayudar a los maestros en sus heroicos esfuerzos para ayudar a los estudiantes a terminar el año escolar a través del aprendizaje a distancia.
2. Ofrezca recoger o comprar víveres para vecinos vulnerables. Una variación de esto es hacer una comida para ellos.
3. Apoye a los restaurantes locales comprando sus certificados de regalo o tarjetas.
4. Use tiza para escribir en la acera un mensaje a su cartero, para hacerle saber que son apreciados.
5. Cree carteles, obras de arte, tarjetas, videos u otros mensajes para enviar a los trabajadores del hospital para mostrarle su atención.
6. Si puede coser, ayude a hacer máscaras faciales para trabajadores del hospital u otros. Los patrones se pueden encontrar en línea.
7. Donar sangre.
8. ¿Conoces a alguien que está aislado? Llama y reza con ellos, o envíales un mensaje de oración al día.
9. Haz una Novena o reza diariamente la Corona de la Divina Misericordia o un Rosario.
10. Escriba cartas a quienes están encarcelados.
11. Aprenda nuevas tecnologías y cómo conectarse en línea.
12. Tome un curso en línea o de televisión para aprender más sobre su fe.
14. Comience un diario de “gratitud”.
15. Aprenda a rezar la Liturgia de las Horas - Oficio Divino.
16. Adelantate y haz tarjetas de Navidad hechas a mano.
17. Limpia los armarios, el garaje, los cobertizos, etc. y prepárate para donar artículos.
19. Aprenda cómo invertir o investigar organizaciones benéficas a las que le gustaría dar o ser voluntario.
20. Comience el proceso de voluntariado dentro de la Diócesis, completando formularios y cumpliendo los requisitos por adelantado.
21. Ordena las fotos familiares y organizalas para que puedan disfrutarse.
22. Investigue historias familiares y / o escriba una historia familiar que pueda compartir con los miembros más jóvenes de la familia.
An Act Of Spiritual Communion

CATHOLICS CAN MAKE AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which means uniting one’s self in prayer with Christ’s sacrifice and worshiping Him in His Body and Blood.

An Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Acto de Comunión Espiritual
Creo, Jesús mío, que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar.
Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo ardientemente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Quédate conmigo y no permitas que me separe de ti.
Amen

Prayers For Times Like These

A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION IN TIME OF PANDEMIC
O Mary, you always brighten our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the Cross, took part in Jesus’ pain while remaining steadfast in faith. O loving Mother, you know what we need, and we are confident you will provide for us as at Cana in Galilee. Intercede for us with your Son Jesus, the Divine Physician, for those who have fallen ill, for those who are vulnerable, and for those who have died. Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others and for those who are tending to the sick and seeking a cure. Help us, O Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows, so as to lead us, through the Cross, to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen. Under thy protection we seek refuge, O Holy Mother of God. In our needs, despise not our petitions, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen

A family with three children called us. It’s the first time they’ve needed help. Mike is on disability. Right now, this family asked for help to put food on the table and we delivered groceries. Please keep Mike and Renee and their family in your prayers.

Help Us Help Others
Millions of Americans have received a $1,200 stimulus check as part of the $2.2 trillion stimulus package. Many individuals and families say they are blessed, and this money is more of a windfall than a lifeline for them, so they’re donating the money to St. Vincent de Paul.

Hopefully, you are one of the fortunate ones who do not need this unexpected cash to make ends meet during the economic turmoil and instead want to pay it forward. The calls for help are increasing. Our neighbors are asking for food. Others are reaching out for help in keeping the lights on and staying in their apartments and homes.

Please consider donating in any amount to help us help others and may God continue to bless you and your family. Thank you

Steeped in Tradition, Immersed In Technology!

Our school is a Microsoft Teams school, so transitioning to Distance Learning was relatively seamless. We are able to continue teaching new content, enjoy sharing class projects and teaching, in live classrooms, and continue grading so our students can be prepared for the next grade level. The students in grade 4 to 8 were accustomed to Microsoft Teams as projects and assignments were turned in on Teams regularly prior to the COVID 19 situation. The ability to communicate with our students instantly through teams has allowed our teachers the ability to offer continuous support as well as challenge all levels of learners.

Our school not only posts recorded lessons for students to view and review, but our faculty hosts daily live classes so students can ask questions, share projects, and most importantly, pray and be social together. At a time when it is easy to feel isolated, our students can count on seeing their teachers, friends and occasional guests that pop in to live classes to say “hello”.

Our 1st grade teacher invited the principal to join her students as they unburied the Alleluia after Easter in a live online prayer service and concluded with everyone singing together. Our 5th grade students experienced an online Escape Room and presented in the first person their historical figure in the Living Museum in a live online classroom.

The principal has been called into the 3rd grade live classroom to give awards out to students excelling in math, and invited to join 4th grade for a “Friday Fun” class as they brought their pets into the live online classroom!

Our parents and students have been amazing at adjusting to Distance Learning. It has not always been easy, but our families are steadfast in their desire to help their children continue to live, love and learn through Christ! Our ASCS families have shown incredible support for the faculty during this time of transition. We love our ASCS community!

God is good and we are blessed at All Souls Catholic School!

Help us meet our goal

All Souls Catholic School has been blessed with a benefactor that has offered a “Triple The Money” campaign to raise funds for the school, capping at $20,000.00. The school is only $3,500.00 short. This campaign ends the last week of May. I ask you to prayerfully consider giving to help All Soul Catholic School students live, love and learn through Christ!

Saints Phillip and James

James, Son of Alphaeus: We know nothing of this man except his name, and, of course, the fact that Jesus chose him to be one of the 12 pillars of the New Israel, his Church. He is not the James of Acts, son of Clopas, “brother” of Jesus and later bishop of Jerusalem and the traditional author of the Letter of James. James, son of Alphaeus, is also known as James the Lesser to avoid confusing him with James the son of Zebedee, also an apostle and known as James the Greater.

Philip: Philip came from the same town as Peter and Andrew, Bethsaida in Galilee. Jesus called him directly, whereupon he sought out Nathanael and told him of the “one about whom Moses wrote” (Jn 1:45).

Like the other apostles, Philip took a long time coming to realize who Jesus was. On one occasion, when Jesus saw the great multitude following him and wanted to give them food, he asked Philip where they should buy bread for the people to eat. Saint John comments, “[Jesus] said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do” (Jn 6:6). Philip answered, “Two hundred days’ wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little [bit]” (Jn 6:7).

John’s story is not a put-down of Philip. It was simply necessary for these men who were to be the foundation stones of the Church to see the clear distinction between humanity’s total helplessness apart from God and the human ability to be a bearer of divine power by God’s gift.

On another occasion, we can almost hear the exasperation in Jesus’s voice. After Thomas had complained that they did not know where Jesus was going, Jesus said, “I am the way. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him” (Jn 14:6a, 7). Then Philip said, “Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us” (Jn 14:8). Enough! Jesus answered, “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father” (Jn 14:9a).

Possibly because Philip bore a Greek name or because he was thought to be close to Jesus, some gentile proselytes came to him and asked him to introduce them to Jesus. Philip went to Andrew, and Andrew went to Jesus. Jesus’s reply in John’s Gospel is indirect; Jesus says that now his “hour” has come, that in a short time he will give his life for Jew and gentile alike.

VOLUNTEER CATECHISTS and JR. D.A.W.G./D.A.W.G. FACILITATORS

Catechists and Facilitators are needed for next year 2020/2021. Anybody who loves our amazing God and wants to bring that love to children, young people and families of the Parish are encouraged to personally pray/discern this wonderful opportunity of stewardship. Share Your Story...

As a child of God, you have a powerful story to tell. Sharing how you came to Jesus and the difference He’s made in your life can help others discover how they, too, can know God personally.

Maybe you’re afraid to share your story or faith because you don’t know what to say. Remember that God does not call the equipped; He equips the called—and as Christians, we are all called to share what Christ has done in our lives.

Email your personal witness to: bulletin@allsoulsanford.org. Keep stories short, about 175 words or less. If your story is selected, we’ll publish it (anonymously if you prefer) in a future issue of this Bulletin. Thank You!

But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. - Jn 10:2-3

Pero el que entra por la puerta es el pastor de las ovejas. El portero le abre la puerta, y las ovejas escuchan su voz, mientras llama a sus propias ovejas por su nombre y las saca. - Jn 10, 2-3
