Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” - Jn 20:21

PENTECOST
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

VENI SANCTE SPIRITUS

I recall when we used to live in an environment when doors were simple to open for everyone. Somehow all this changed, when intruders and trespassers started to inflict harm and danger to other’s lives.

In the Gospel, Fear was heightened not because Jesus appeared after His death, rather, He wanted them to do the same... “as the Father has sent me, so I send you!” What anxiety there must have been upon hearing these words, recalling calvary.

How can one move out of Fear? Why did the apostles lock themselves at the upper room after all? Was it because they were the friends of Jesus, they were His associates? How many times was He denied by Peter? How much was He sold for by his comrade? Can the apostles preach fearlessly, cure effectively, and love and forgive generously? Fear has its reason too, however, not as convincing, and powerful as Jesus’ plan for us. An Advocate.

Realizing the turmoil in their hearts, Jesus gave them four words. “Receive the Holy Spirit.” This simple maneuver reminds us of the book of Genesis, the giving of the breath of life without which no life could have ever existed. Giving life to God’s image-likeness.

Our Life, Transformation, & Sustenance is nothing without the Spirit. The same Spirit promised to us at His farewell discourse at the last supper. The advocate, helper, source of consolation, and grace empowering the disciples. The gift of the divinity of God in word and in deed.

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

VENI SANCTE SPIRITUS

Recuerdo cuando vivíamos en un ambiente donde era sencillo abrir las puertas a todos. De alguna manera, todo cambió, cuando los intrusos comenzaron a infligir peligro y daños a las vidas de los demás.

¿Cómo puede uno moverse para salir del miedo? ¿Por qué, después de todo, se encerraron los apóstoles en el cuarto de arriba? ¿Fue porque eran amigos de Jesús, sus socios? ¿Cuántas veces fue El negado por Pedro? ¿Por cuánto lo vendió su camarada? ¿Pueden los apóstoles predicar sin miedo, sanar eficientemente, y amar y perdonar generosamente? El temor también tiene sus razones, aunque no sean tan convincentes y poderosas como el plan que Jesús tiene para nosotros. Un defensor.

Dándose cuenta de la confusión en sus corazones, Jesús les dio cuatro palabras. “Reciban el Espíritu Santo”. Esta simple maniobra nos recuerda el libro de Genesis, el don del aliento de vida sin el cual ninguna vida podría haber existido. Dándole vida a la imagen y similitud de Dios.

Nuestra Vida, Transformación, y Sustento no es nada sin el Espíritu Santo. El mismo Espíritu que El nos prometió durante su discurso de despedida en la última cena. El defensor, ayudante, fuente de consuelo y de gracia que empodera a los discípulos. El don de la divinidad de Dios en palabra y hecho.

P. David Vivero
Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

“Y ou can feel so small standing by the seashore. The vastness of all that is before you expands much farther than your eye can see. What is happening on the other side? As tides continue to ebb and flow, what occurs as they come and go remains largely a mystery and the effects of their presence unknown in your sight. Yet, things are moving and changing as you gaze upon the water, as the thumbprint of their presence is left behind. The greater the wind and wave, the greater the effect. But even a gentle breeze leaves its humble mark upon the seashore on which you stand. The smallest pebble still makes a ripple in the great blue expanse of ocean waters. It doesn’t need to be big.

You never know the full impact of your smallest gesture or simplest of words. A yes or no, agree or disagree, here or there, this or that can influence time and history in ways you may never know. The Holy Spirit is like that: fierce and torrential, and then almost still and silent, creating and recreating nonetheless. Coming as a gentle breeze or a gusty wind, God’s Holy Spirit continues to move over, around, and into the waters of our lives. The Spirit brings fruit and unknown possibilities to what we humbly bring with us and that same Spirit eventually brings all to fulfillment in Christ.

The first disciples didn’t have much. They possessed simple faith and a willingness to go into unchartered territory with a love of their friend-God, humble offerings, and a knowledge that they were not alone. This allowed them to do amazing things with very little. Do you believe that you are being led to fulfill God’s will for your life? We often do not realize our value because we do not think that the little we have is good enough. How wrong we are! A little flour mixed with water and embraced by a prayer of blessing transforms simple offerings into the magnificent Eucharistic presence of God. If the Holy Spirit can do such amazing things with these humble gifts of the earth, even more can happen with you. Don’t underestimate the value of the smile you gave a stranger, the door held open for an elderly widow, the listening ear offered to one who was lonely, the tolerance given to the wounded soul who is angry, and the loving shoulder you offered as a cradle under the head of someone in pain. Modest gifts offered with love can be transformed by the Spirit into wondrous blessings you may never know. It’s Pentecost. Trust. You are not alone.

St. Vincent de Paul Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends in Christ,

The economic challenges that the virus has posed for many families, continues despite the progress being made. We are grateful for your past support for our food pantry, but must now ask you to continue sharing what you can to help those economically stricken by Covid-19. Many families are struggling to keep their homes, or find shelter. This situation may get worse before it gets better. We prayerfully ask for monetary donations that will help ease the heavy burdens families now face.

Keep in mind, direct food donations will once again be accepted, starting in June.

Whatever you can do to help would be greatly appreciated. Those who struggle in their daily lives are finding these days of uncertainty even more difficult. We pray for you, our benefactors, as we pray for those in need.

May God bless you and keep you safe!
Society of St. Vincent de Paul

The Food Pantry is now accepting donations of grocery store gifts cards, and will once again be accepting food donations in June.

Welcome Back To Weekend Masses!
Welcome back! All Souls has been praying and preparing for your return. By God’s grace, and at the direction of Bishop Noonan, we are now welcoming you back to Weekend Masses at the Church on SR 46. Masses will be familiar, but a few changes have been made within the church for your health and safety. Here are the new things to know...

- Please wash your hands before Mass... your health and that of your neighbor is our greatest concern
- Church staff or ushers will be available to help direct you to your seats. Please wait for their signals and directions
- Outside and inside the church, you’ll see marks on the floor indicating 6 ft social distancing
- Inside the church, you’ll see some pews or sections marked with “X’s”. That means “don’t sit there”
- Only every other pew will be in use, in order to maintain social distancing when seated
- Please be sure to sit 6 ft apart as indicated. However, household members may sit together
- Face masks are recommended for those over age 10. Church staff will all be wearing face masks
- During the “Sign of Peace” and “Our Father”, please refrain from touching. A simple wave or bow will do
- Hand sanitizers are available in the church. Please consider bringing your own for use at Communion
- During Communion, please stand at your seat and wait for a Eucharistic Minister to come to you
- Remove your face mask; cup your hands; receive the Host in your palm; consume the Host; then replace your mask
- After Mass, church staff will motion you to exit your pew. Please be patient so we can maintain social distancing
- Please exit the church right after Mass, so that cleaning and sanitizing can immediately begin

Entering and Exiting the Church:
- Only the front doors of the church will be opened for Mass. The side doors will remain closed*
- *If you have a disability, the side-door on the East will be opened to allow access from the handicap parking. Staff will be on hand
- The church doors will open ½ hour before Mass, and close right after Mass. Prayer time is very limited
- As you approach the entrance, there’ll be 3 lanes indicated. The center lane is reserved for those with disabilities
- Signage will help indicate restroom locations, so you can line up accordingly. Read other signage for more info
- Offertory boxes (blue) are located near the doors, for your use upon entering or leaving the church
- Please refrain from gathering or socializing in groups outside the church; prior to, or after Mass

Thank you for your attention to the new procedures that have been developed for your well-being. Although some things have changed, Our Lord’s house and Eucharistic celebration are still the same, and His grace is always with us. Please know that we will be live-streaming our Masses on the All Souls Website, for those who cannot physically join us. If you should have any concerns or questions, the Parish Office will be happy to answer your calls Mon – Fri, at Ph: 407-322-3795, or email us at office@allsoulssanford.org.

RECONCILIATION RETURNS

starting May 30th, 1:30-2:30pm

Jesus entrusted the ministry of reconciliation to the Church. The Sacrament of Penance is God’s gift to us so that any sin committed after Baptism can be forgiven. This is particularly good news for those who participated in Divine Mercy Sunday and want to complete the requirements for a “Plenary Indulgence”. To fulfill your Divine Mercy Sunday promise (if you made one), call the Parish Office (407-322-3795) to make your appointment today, or come to the church (S.R. 46) on any Saturday, starting on May 30th.

Saint Joan of Arc

B urned at the stake as a heretic after a politically-motivated trial, Joan was beatified in 1909 and canonized in 1920.

Born of a fairly well-to-do peasant couple in Domremy-Greux southeast of Paris, Joan was only 12 when she experienced a vision and heard voices that she later identified as Saints Michael the Archangel, Catherine of Alexandria, and Margaret of Antioch.

During the Hundred Years War, Joan led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. This enabled Charles VII to be crowned as king in Reims in 1429. Captured near Compiègne the following year, Joan was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft. Professors at the University of Paris supported Bishop Pierre Cauchon of Beauvais, the judge at her trial; Cardinal Henry Beaufort of Winchester, England, participated in the questioning of Joan in prison. In the end, she was condemned for wearing men’s clothes. The English resented France’s military success—to which Joan contributed.

On this day in 1431, Joan was burned at the stake in Rouen, and her ashes were scattered in the Seine River. A second Church trial 25 years later nullified the earlier verdict, which was reached under political pressure.

Remembered by most people for her military exploits, Joan had a great love for the sacraments, which strengthened her compassion toward the poor. Popular devotion to her increased greatly in 19th -century France and later among French soldiers during World War I. Theologian George Tavard writes that her life “offers a perfect example of the conjunction of contemplation and action” because her spiritual insight is that there should be a “unity of heaven and earth.”

Joan of Arc has been the subject of many books, plays, operas and movies.

Donate Your One-Of-A-Kind Crafts or Gently Used Items!

Spending your time cleaning out your house/garage? Maybe we can use your never used or gently used items for the Harvest Festival Basket Raffle Booth. Maybe you are cleaning out your craft area? We can use that for the Craft Booth.

During the current Covid-19 situation, when many families find themselves at home, it might be a good time to go through those closets you’ve been meaning to clean out, or to work with the kids on crafts. Please save some of those gently used or new items you may decide to dispose of, or some of those crafts you may create, for the Basket Raffle or Craft Booth. It’s a great way to be doubly productive while at home, and give yourself a boost!
