“Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge... So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” - Mt 10:29, 31
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

This weekend after celebrating Major Feast Days in our Church, allow me to take you back to the season of ordinary time. Beginning with the Gospel, focusing its mission based on the instructions of Jesus. The Lord emphasizes Courage, Evangelization, and Promise of Eternal Presence amidst persecutions and challenges.

These admonitions of Jesus to His followers assures us of His company and presence as we sought to continue our missionary work. The assurance was made evident by Jeremiah the prophet in the 1st reading. As he hears, “the whisperings of many; “Terror on every side.” Saying, “Let us denounce Him.”

WHAT IS THE SIGNIFICANCE?
Despite the terrible conditions, Prophet Jeremiah is able to testify, “that the Lord is his mighty champion, and the persecutors will never triumph.

Both readings this weekend remind us of the troubles of life. At Home, at work, School, in the church, in our country, among our relatives, maybe ourselves.

How much of the time do we spend reflecting on the source of Grace in our lives? What virtue can we use to cope with the tribulations of our day to day life?

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Este fin de semana, después de festejar los Principales Días de Fiesta en nuestra iglesia, permitanme que los regrese a la temporada de tiempo ordinario. Comenzamos por el Evangelio, enfocando su misión en base a las instrucciones de Jesús. El Señor enfatiza la Valentía, la Evangelización, y la Promesa de Presencia Eterna en medio de las persecuciones y desafíos.

Estas advertencias que Jesús da a Sus seguidores nos aseguran de Su compañía y presencia mientras buscamos continuar su labor misionera. La seguridad se hace evidente por el profeta Jeremías en la primera lectura. Cuando él escucha los susurros de muchos; “Terror a todos lados”. Diciendo, “Denúnciemoslo”.

¿CUÁL ES EL SIGNIFICADO DE ESTO?
A pesar de las terribles condiciones, el profeta Jeremías es capaz de atestiguar que “el Señor está conmigo como campeón temible; Por tanto, mis perseguidores no prevalecerán”.

Ambas lecturas este fin de semana nos recuerdan que en la vida, hay dificultades. En casa, en el trabajo, en la escuela, en la iglesia, en nuestro país, entre nuestros parientes, quizás en nosotros mismos.

¿Cuánto tiempo pasamos reflejando sobre la fuente de Gracia en nuestras vidas? ¿Qué virtud podemos usar para sobrellevar las tribulaciones de nuestra vida diaria?

P. David Vivero
Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

“T”here are many things of which we can be afraid: being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. For some, identifying and overcoming their fears is a daunting task. Regardless of how much they may want to break the cycle of fear, they find that they remain close friends with old and dysfunctional behavioral habits and norms. Maybe what they really fear is change. There are many who gravitate to the familiar and comfortable, and find safety and security in doing so, even if they remain mired in mediocrity. Human beings have to learn that there is life beyond the “what has always been” and that happiness and depth are possible when old structures and systems have to be left behind.

Can you leave the near and dear, the comfortable and familiar, the safe and secure, and discover new opportunities? The sheer thought of doing so can bring on feelings of apprehension, intense anger, resentment, defensiveness, reluctance, resistance, and even apathy. If we have to be responsible for making the change, cowardice can creep in. If someone else is to blame for making the change, any number of possible negative reactions are possible. In the end, only one thing is required and that is God. If I can rely on and deepen my relationship with God, especially in the Eucharist along with a community of believers, then little else is of great concern. We have to figure out what is really important. It is not always what we think. The Gospel calls us to stretch ourselves and try new things, not to remain stuck and stagnant in familiar ways. We are asked to leave the familiar behind and learn to live with changing, and often limiting, human structures. We cannot get too caught up in the physical, ideological, or structural systems we are used to. The Holy Spirit always leads and guides us. If we trust this, we will find ourselves doing things we never thought we could do. Always seek the path to joy and love. They keep us from falling victim to our fears and from seeking the nostalgic crutches we think we need to achieve a sense of well-being and happiness. ©LPi

We Serve...
St. Vincent de Paul Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends in Christ,
The economic challenges that the virus has posed for many families, continues despite the progress being made. We are grateful for your past support for our food pantry, but must now ask you to continue sharing what you can to help those economically stricken by Covid-19. Many families are struggling to keep their homes, or find shelter. We prayerfully ask for monetary donations that will help ease the heavy burdens families now face.

Keep in mind, direct food donations are once again being accepted.

Whatever you can do to help would be greatly appreciated. Those who struggle in their daily lives are finding these days of uncertainty even more difficult. We pray for you, our benefactors, as we pray for those in need.

May God bless you and keep you safe!

Devotion To The Sacred Heart of Jesus

The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is celebrated throughout the world on the Friday following the Feast of Corpus Christi.

In Catholic churches and homes, one of the most popular images of Jesus is the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is the image of God’s love revealed in the pierced heart of His Son. It is the symbol of a love that conquers sin and transcendeth death, the symbol of the One who loved us to the end.

Every year, 19 days after Pentecost, the Catholic Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. But where did that tradition originate?

In 1675, during the octave of Corpus Christi, a pious sister by the name of Margaret Mary Alacoque, received the vision which came to be known as the “great apparition.” Jesus asked that the modern Feast of the Sacred Heart be celebrated each year on the Friday following Corpus Christi, in reparation for the ingratitude of men for the sacrifice which Christ had made for them. Earlier, He had also asked the faithful to receive Him in the Eucharist frequently, especially on the First Friday of the month, and to observe a Holy Hour of devotion to Him.

Years passed, then on July 21, 1899 – Pope Leo XIII urgently recommended that all bishops throughout the world observe the feast in their dioceses. Pope Leo approved five indulgences for the devotion, that can be found by doing an online search. Today, the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is celebrated throughout the world on the Friday following the Feast of Corpus Christi.

PROMISES OF THE SACRED HEART

- I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
- I will give peace in their families.
- I will console them in all their troubles.
- I will be their refuge in life and especially in death.
- I will abundantly bless all their undertakings.
- Sinners shall find in my Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
- Tepid souls shall become fervent.
- Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection.
- I will bless those places wherein the image of My Sacred Heart shall be exposed and venerated.
- I will give to priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts.
- Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names eternally written in my Heart.
- In the excess of the mercy of my Heart, I promise you that my all powerful love will grant to all those who will receive Communion on the First Fridays, for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance: they will not die in my displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and my Heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour.

PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

Devocion a El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

La Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón se festeja alrededor del mundo el Viernes después de la Fiesta de Corpus Christi.

En las Iglesias y hogares católicos, una de las imágenes más populares de Jesús es la imagen del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Es la imagen del amor de Dios revelado en el corazón perforado de Su Hijo. Es el símbolo de un amor que conquista y trasciende la muerte, el símbolo de El que nos amó hasta el final.

Cada año, 19 días después de Pentecostés, la Iglesia Católica festeja la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. ¿Pero, donde se originó esa tradición?

En el año 1675, durante la octava de Corpus Christi, una piadosa hermana con el nombre de Margarita María Alacoque, vio una visión que se llegó a conocer como la “grande aparición”. Jesús pidió que la Fiesta del Sagrado Corazón fuese festejada cada año, el viernes siguiente al festejo de Corpus Christi, en reparación por la ingratitud del hombre hacia el sacrificio que Cristo hizo por ellos. Anteriormente, El había también pedido a los fieles que los recibieran frecuentemente por medio de la Eucaristía, especialmente el primer viernes de cada mes, y que observaran una Hora Sagrada de devoción a El.

Pasaron los años, y luego, el 21 de julio de 1899 – el Papa Leo XIII reconoció urgentemente que todos los obispos alrededor del mundo observaran este festejo en sus diócesis. El Papa Leo aprobó cinco indulgencias por la devoción, las cuales se pueden encontrar haciendo un poco de estudios en línea. Hoy, la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón se festeja alrededor del mundo el viernes después de Corpus Christi.

PROMESAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

- Les daré todas las gracias necesarias para su estado de vida.
- Les daré paz a sus familias.
- Los consolará en medio de dificultades.
- Seré su refugio en la vida, y especialmente en la muerte.
- Bendeciré abundantemente todos sus compromisos.
- Los pecadores encontrarán en mi Corazón la fuente y un océano infinito de misericordia.
- Las almas tibias se harán fervientes.
- Las almas fervientes se elevarán rápidamente a gran perfección.
- Bendeciré aquellos lugares donde la imagen de Mi Sagrado Corazón sea expuesta y venerada.
- Daré a los sacerdotes el poder para alcanzar a los corazones más duros.
- Las personas que propagan esta devoción tendrán sus nombres escritos eternamente en mi Corazón.
- Por encima de la misericordia de mi Corazón, les prometo que todo mi amor poderoso otorgara a todos aquellos que reciban la Comunión en cada Primer Viernes, por nueve meses consecutivos, la gracia del arrepentimiento final; no morirán con mi disgusto, o sin recibir los sacramentos, y mi Corazón será su refugio seguro en esa última hora.

ORACIÓN AL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

O corazón más sagrado de Jesús, fuente de toda bendición, te adoro, te amo, y con vida tristeza por mis pecados, te ofrezco este pobre corazón mío. Hazme humilde, paciente, puro y completamente obediente a tu voluntad. Otórgame, Buen Jesús, que pueda vivir en ti y por ti. Protégeme en el medio del peligro. Consúlteme en mis aflicciones. Dame salud de cuerpo, ayuda en mis necesidades temporales, tu bendición en todo lo que hago, y la gracia de una muerte santa. Amen.

Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus say: “Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.” This week know that you will bring hope to the poor by your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.”

St. Vincent De Paul (1581—1660)
On behalf of All Souls Catholic School, we wish all families a Happy Summer!

As educators, we would be remiss to not remind families of the “Summer Slide”. When students enjoy summer, which they should, but do not read or brush up on math skills, the result may be up to 2.5 months of loss of knowledge and skills resulting in an overall achievement gap.

We wanted to share a few ideas and free resources available to you. Remember, if you do not have technology devices at home, they are available for use at the local library. There are many ways for your child to have fun and make learning gains over the summer. Here are a few ideas:

READ, READ, READ!
Go to the library and allow your child to read anything they are interested in! Check out graphic novels, magazines - anything your child likes. Use free sites for online books such as https://magickeys.com or https://freedkidsbooks.org/reading-level/children/ to download free books to read.

HAVE FUN WITH NUMBERS!
For younger children, have them add or tally how many types of foods are in the cart at the grocery store, for older children have them calculate the items purchased at a store and determine the sum including tax. Go on a nature walk in the neighborhood or local park and ask younger children to sort leaves into groups by shape or color or make a pattern. Older children may help measure ingredients from a recipe. Math games are available for free online at sites such as https://www.funbrain.com/books or https://www.education.com/games/math/.

DO SCIENCE!
Many science experiments can be executed with household items. For example, open up a 2 liter of diet coke and quickly drop in a sleeve on Mentos and RUN from the stream of soda in the air. Make “Ooblek” out of cornstarch and water, add food coloring if desired. Just put cornstarch in a bowl and add water slowly until the mixture feels solid, but can be scooped up and watch it change form again and drip through your fingers! Enjoy this non-Newtonian fluid but please, DO NOT put it in the drain when finished. Throw it away in the garbage can when finished with the fun. For more ideas go to https://sciencebob.com/.

WRITE!
Write a poem, or a song. Journal about summer adventures and experiences. Make your own graphic novel. Go to https://www.greatschools.org/ to find all levels of writing practice.

CREATE!
Make your own art. Download free color pages, make a nature collage by gluing items found on the math nature walk to heavy paper or cardboard. Visit a virtual museum like the Van Gogh or the Met at https://www.purewow.com/family/virtual-museum-tours-for-kids. Explore new art forms with the help of sites such as http://www.kidsites.com/sites-education/art.htm.

If you don’t use it, you lose it! Have a wonderful summer learning and experiencing new things with those you love!

Warmly,

The Faculty of All Souls Catholic School
Saint John Fisher

John Fisher is usually associated with Erasmus, Thomas More, and other Renaissance humanists. His life therefore, did not have the external simplicity found in the lives of some saints. Rather, he was a man of learning, associated with the intellectuals and political leaders of his day. He was interested in the contemporary culture and eventually became chancellor at Cambridge. He had been made a bishop at 35, and one of his interests was raising the standard of preaching in England. Fisher himself was an accomplished preacher and writer. His sermons on the penitential psalms were reprinted seven times before his death. With the coming of Luthernism, he was drawn into controversy. His eight books against heresy gave him a leading position among European theologians.

In 1521, Fisher was asked to study the question of King Henry VIII’s marriage to Catherine of Aragon, his brother’s widow. He incurred Henry’s anger by defending the validity of the king’s marriage with Catherine, and later by rejecting Henry’s claim to be the supreme head of the Church of England.

In an attempt to be rid of him, Henry first had Fisher accused of not reporting all the “revelations” of the nun of Kent, Elizabeth Barton. In feeble health, Fisher was summoned to take the oath to the new Act of Succession. He and Thomas More refused to do so because the Act presumed the legality of Henry’s divorce and his claim to be head of the English Church. They were sent to the Tower of London, where Fisher remained 14 months without trial. Finally both men were sentenced to life imprisonment and loss of goods.

When the two were called to further interrogations, they remained silent. On the supposition that he was speaking privately as a priest, Fisher was tricked into declaring again that the king was not supreme head of the church in England. The king, further angered that the pope had made John Fisher a cardinal, had him brought to trial on the charge of high treason. He was condemned and executed, his body left to lie all day on the scaffold and his head hung on London Bridge. More was executed two weeks later and executed, his body left to lie all day on the scaffold and his body brought to trial on the charge of high treason. He was condemned and executed, his body left to lie all day on the scaffold and his head hung on London Bridge.

FORMACIÓN DE LA FE 2019-2020
¡Felicitaciones a todos los alumnos que participaron en las clases de Formación de la Fe! Todos egresaron al próximo nivel de curso y permanecerán por buen camino para los sacramentos.

FRUTOS DEL ESPÍRITU
Las lecciones en línea están todavía disponibles por medio del sitio de web de la parroquia. Alentamos a las familias a completar cuantas lecciones puedan (hay 5 en total) con sus niños.

INSCRIPCIÓN PARA CLASES DE FORMACIÓN DE LA FE 2020/2021
Hemos enviado e-mails a todas las familias que se registraron con la parroquia, sin importar si éste es el primer año que sus hijos participan en el programa. Sin son nuevos miembros de All Souls, ¡bienvenidos! Por favor asegúrense de registrar a su familia con la parroquia, para recibir todos los beneficios de ser miembros oficiales. Una vez que se han inscripto, recibirán su número de identificación de la parroquia, con el cual podrán registrar a su familia para las clases de Formación de la Fe. Las familias de otras parroquias cercanas también son bienvenidas a unirse a nuestros programas de Formación de la Fe; sin embargo, es necesario que éstas se inscriban con la parroquia como “no párocos”. Simplemente, hagan mención de esto al inscribirse. (Por favor, tengan en cuenta al inscribir a sus hijos para el programa del 2020/2021, que ellos entrarán al programa en base al año escolar que comenzarán en agosto del 2021.) Esperamos servirlos a todos en nuestro discipulado cristiano.

FECHAS PARA LA PRIMERA EUCARISTÍA
La primera eucaristía se realizará el domingo 28 de junio y domingo 26 de julio del 2020, a las 3 pm. Hemos comunicado detalles adicionales a las familias de los niños que celebrarán su Primera Eucaristía, pero los padres no han recibido esta información, por favor pónganse en contacto con Holly Hooton, al 407.322.3795. Las familias elegirán la fecha que mejor les queda, y estos pedidos se solicitarán en orden de llegada. Nuestro Diócesis y las Guías del Centro para el Control y Prevención de Enfermedades (CDC). Para asegurarnos que los participantes tengan un festejo memorable y que no se comprometa la salud y seguridad de todas las familias participantes, todos deben cumplir con las directivas y guías que se han comunicado. Gracias por adelantado por su cooperación. Si tienen preguntas o necesitan más información? Harvest Festival Craft Booth
Donate Your One-Of-A-Kind Crafts or Gently Used Items!

Spending your time clearing out your house/garage? Maybe you are cleaning out your craft area? We can use that for the Craft Booth.

During the current Covid-19 situation, when many families find themselves at home, it might be a good time to go through those closets you’ve been meaning to clean out, or to work with the kids on crafts. Please save some of those gently used or new items you may decide to dispose of, or some of those crafts you may create, for the Festival Booth. It’s a great way to be doubly productive while at home, and give yourself a boost!

If you are interested in making donations, Contact Sue Mohr 407-415-1918 or Email us at stc32771@hotmail.com.

Peter’s Pence Collection

The purpose of the Peter’s Pence Collection is to provide the Holy Father with the financial means to respond to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, natural disaster, and disease. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

The USCCB National Collections Committee oversees the promotion of the Peter’s Pence Collection which will be taken up at all of our Masses on June 28-29th.
