“Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple -- amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.”  Mt 10:42
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Responsorial psalm this 13th Sunday in ordinary time proclaims, “forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.” With Prophet Elijah in the 1st reading asking his servant, “Can something be done…?” each text resonates to the good news I am about to share.

As we have announced at almost all masses in the past two weeks, it is with great delight and expectation to share this good news. Bishop John Noonan, last May of 2020, has accepted into a Formal Discernment Year Mr. Rafael Vazquez, who is contemplating to become Permanent Deacon for the Diocese of Orlando. This one-year discernment means, his family and the Community under the leadership and guidance of the Pastor here at All Souls, will be part of his readiness to be nominated to the Bishop for acceptance as an aspirant in the permanent diaconate formation program. God’s call for holiness is for everyone. St Paul’s message about the different ministries and charism are all brought to One by the same Spirit. I am very excited to be part of this process and I look forward to Mr. Rafael Vazquez’ pastoral and spiritual journey. Here is more about Mr. Rafael Vazquez.

Dr. Rafael Vazquez has been a Principal at Core Civic Correctional Facility since May 2020. He oversees a school of 500 Juvenile/Adult inmates that are in Vocational and Academic schools. He has served in different leadership roles over the years as Dean of Attendance and Discipline, Professor of Criminal Justice in several colleges in Florida, and Law Enforcement Officer. He is currently writing a meditation book. Dr. Vazquez currently lives in Sanford and he is a parishioner at All Souls Catholic Church. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus in Sanford, and member of the Cursillos Community. He also is a member of the Holy League and Adult Altar Server. He enjoys reading about saints and spending time with family and friends. Dr. Vazquez said that the reason he wants to be a Deacon is because he wants to serve others and always point to the ways of having a real relationship with the Lord, through the sacraments of Communion and Confession.

Let us embrace Christ’s promise of hope, “for whoever receives you, receives me, and whoever receives me, receives the one who sent me.”

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

El Salmo Responsorial este décimo tercero domingo de tiempo común proclama, “el amor del Señor por siempre cantaré”. El profeta Élias en la primera lectura le pregunta a su servidor, “¿Se puede hacer algo…?” Cada texto resuena con la buena noticia que estoy por compartir.

Es con gran deleite y expectativa compartir esta buena noticia. El obispo John Noonan, el pasado Mayo de 2020, ha aceptado en un Año Formal de Discernimiento a el Dr. Rafael Vázquez, quien contempla convertirse en Diácono Permanente de la Diócesis de Orlando. Este discernimiento de un año significa que su familia y la Comunidad bajo el liderazgo y la guía del Pastor aquí en All Souls serán parte de su disposición a ser nominados al Obispo para su aceptación como aspirantes en el programa permanente de formación de diaconados. La llamada de Dios a la santidad es para todos. El mensaje de San Pablo sobre los diferentes ministerios y el carisma son llevados a Uno por el mismo Espíritu. Estoy muy emocionado en formar parte de este proceso y espero con anticipación ser participé del el camino pastoral y espiritual del Dr. Rafael Vázquez.

Aquí hay información sobre el Dr. Rafael Vázquez. El Dr. Rafael Vázquez es director del Centro Correccional Corecivic en Lake City desde mayo de 2020. Supervisa una escuela de 500 reclusos juveniles/adultos que contiene escuelas vocacionales y académicas. Ha desempeñado diferentes funciones de liderazgo a lo largo de los años como Decano de Asistencia y Disciplina, Profesor de Justicia Penal en varias universidades en Florida, y Policía Federal y estatal. Actualmente está escribiendo un libro de meditación. El Dr. Vázquez actualmente vive en Sanford y es feligrés en la Iglesia Católica All Souls. Es miembro de Caballeros de Colón en Sanford y miembro de la Comunidad de Cursillos. También es miembro de la Liga Santa y es Servidor del Altar de Adultos. Le gusta leer sobre santos y pasar tiempo con familiares y amigos. El Dr. Vázquez dijo que la razón por la que quiere ser diácono es porque quiere servir a los demás y siempre señalar las formas de tener una relación real con el Señor, a través de los sacramentos de la Comunión y la Confesión.

Abrazamos la promesa de esperanza de Cristo, porque “El que los recibe a ustedes, a mí me recibe, y el que me recibe a mí, recibe a Aquel que me ha enviado”.

Gospel Meditation
For Your Day

“When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ’s death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others’ needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, “What do I want to do?” The more focused, faith-filled question is, “What do I need to do?” What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life-giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ’s death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the “small deaths” and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy. ©LPi

Volunteers Urgently Needed

As the church has re-opened and continues to expand into new technologies, new routines, and new ways of reaching out to our Parish family, the opportunities and need for volunteers has also grown. We invite you now to join in the joyful mission of the church to bring God’s word and work to His people. Some may be young and full of the Holy Spirit’s energy; some may have families, with responsibilities that include service hours to be filled; some may be retired and searching for ways to make a meaningful difference with the skills that God has proportioned them over the years. No matter your situation, nor the amount of time you may have to give, your stewardship is valuable in our eyes and the eyes of God. Below, is a list of the ministries and teams with the most urgent needs. However, all are welcome to contact the Parish Office. Your help will be gratefully accepted at the appropriate time. Please consider joining one of our teams or ministries today.

USHERS
Welcoming parishioners in a courteous and friendly manner is one of the hallmarks of being an Usher during Masses. These ministers are on focused on hospitality, they assist parishioners, guide congregants to their seats, and much more. It is a rewarding experience for all age groups (18+).

ST. MICHAEL’S MINISTERS
St. Michaels Ministers keep a watchful eye over the safety of congregants when attending Masses. These ministers are always discreetly present, vigilant for any potential security issues, and can usually be found at the church entrance(s) and walkways, ready to assist parishioners during any emergency.

READERS
Liturghical Readers are responsible for learning, practicing, and clearly enunciating the liturgical readings during Masses. Readers are scheduled based on their Mass preferences, and their schedules are published well in advance. So, this ministry is perfect for those with limited availability.

AUDIO / VIDEO / MEDIA SUPPORT
New communications and technologies have brought new opportunities for those with backgrounds in video production, sound systems, photography, web design, graphic design, writing, social media, and promotions. Volunteers of any availability, experience or interest level are welcome.

SPONSORSHIP SALES (Community Harvest Festival)
If you have sales experience or a desire to help All Souls gain sponsors for our Community Harvest Festival, this ministry may be for you. This critical work involves speaking with businesses and other potential sponsors, to promote the Festival and sell a variety of sponsorships opportunities. The flexibility of serving this mission on your own schedule makes it ideal for those who cannot devote time to more programmed ministries.

PARISH OFFICE ASSISTANCE
Office duties are an ongoing and important function of running the Parish. From simple things like greeting parishioners and shredding papers, to more involved processes such as scheduling and properly answering the phones, this work is at the heart of Parish operations. Your help is deeply appreciated and always needed.

NOTE: All ministry members are required by the Diocese of Orlando to have Safe Environment Training (SET). This training is done through a Diocesan training video. In addition to SET, some ministries require fingerprint clearance through the Diocese, as clearance from other entities is not accepted. You can get more information from the specific ministry(s).

To help you get started or learn more, a Help Desk will be available outside the church after the Masses, June 27/28th, to assist you with ministry information, sign ups, and any questions you may have. Additionally, the Help Desk will also be able to provide information on how to use and/or join Floknote and other Parish media. Of course, you can always reach out to the Parish Office by phone: 407-322-3795, email: office@allsouls Sanford.org, and/or get info on the Parish Website: www.allsoulsSanford.org.

Se Necesitan Voluntarios Urgentemente

Ahora que la iglesia está nuevamente abierta y continúa creciendo con nuevas tecnologías, nuevas rutinas, y nuevas formas de alcanzar a nuestra familia parroquial, también han crecido las oportunidades y la necesidad de voluntarios. Los invitamos a unirse a esta alegre misión de nuestra iglesia, de llevar la palabra y labor de Dios a Su pueblo. Algunos pueden ser jóvenes y estar llenos de la energía del Espíritu Santo; otros pueden tener familiares con responsabilidades que incluyan horas de servicio para satisfacer; otros pueden estar jubilados y buscando formas por medio de las cuales pueden hacer la diferencia con los que Dios les ha dado a través de los años. No importa la situación individual, ni la cantidad de tiempo que tienen para dar; su mayordomía es valiosa en nuestros ojos y los ojos de Dios. A continuación, encontrarán una lista de ministerios y equipos que se encuentran con la necesidad más urgente. Sin embargo, pueden también ponerse en contacto con la oficina de la parroquia para obtener más información. Su ayuda se aceptará con gratitud en el momento adecuado. Por favor considere unirse a uno de nuestros equipos o ministerios hoy mismo.

UJIERES
Darle la bienvenida a los feligreses en forma cortés y amistosa es uno de los sellos distintivos de los Uijieres durante la misa. Estos ministros se concentran en la hospitalidad al asistir a los feligreses, guiar a los congregantes a sus asientos, y mucho más. Es una experiencia gratificante para todas las edades (de 18 años o más).

MINISTROS DE SAN MIGUEL
Los ministros de San Miguel vigilan cuidadosamente la seguridad de los congregantes que asisten a la misa. Estos ministros están siempre discretamente presentes, atentos a cualquier posible problema de seguridad, y generalmente posicionados en las entradas y pasillos de la iglesia, dispuestos a ayudar a los feligreses en caso de una emergencia.

LECTORES
Los lectores litúrgicos son responsables de aprender, practicar y enunciar claramente las lecturas litúrgicas durante cada misa. Los lectores son elegidos en base a sus preferencias de misa, y sus itinerarios se publican por anticipado. Este es un ministerio perfecto para aquellos con disponibilidad limitada.

AUDIO / VIDEO / APOYO A LOS MEDIOS DE COMUNICACIÓN
Las nuevas formas de comunicación y tecnologías han brindado nuevas oportunidades para aquellos con experiencia en la producción de videos, sistemas de sonido, fotografía, diseño de sitios de web, diseño gráfico, escritura, medios sociales y promociones. Damos la bienvenida a voluntarios con cualquier tipo de disponibilidad, experiencia, o nivel de interés.

VENTA DE PATROCINIO (Festival Comunitario de Cosecha)
Si tiene experiencia de ventas o desea ayudar a All Souls a adquirir patrocinadores para nuestro Festival Comunitario de Cosecha, este ministerio podría ser para usted. El trabajo crítico de este ministerio consiste de hablar con empresas y otros posibles patrocinadores, para promocionar el Festival y vender una serie de oportunidades de patrocinio. La flexibilidad de realizar esta misión cuando sea conveniente te hace de este un ministerio ideal para aquellos que no pueden dedicar más tiempo a ministerios con un programa más rigido.

ASISTENCIA EN LA OFICINA DE LA PARROQUIA
Las tareas oficiales son una función importante y continua para la operación de la parroquia. Desde deberes sencillos como saludar a los feligreses a la entrada o tritar papeles, hasta procesos más complicados como fijar citas y contestar correctamente los teléfonos, este trabajo se encuentra en el corazón de las funciones diarias de la parroquia. Su ayuda es siempre necesaria y profundamente agradecida.

NOTA: La Diócesis de Orlando requiere a todos los miembros de ministros que tengan un Entrenamiento de Ambiente Seguro (SET). Este entrenamiento se realiza por medio de un video de la diócesis. Algunos ministerios también requieren, además del SET, la verificación de huellas digitales por medio de la diócesis; ya que la verificación realizada por otras entidades no se aceptará. Para obtener más información, refiérase al ministerio o ministerios indicados.

Si desea comenzar este proceso u obtener más información, visite el Escritorio de Asistencia que se encontrará a la salida de la iglesia después de las misas del 27 y 28 de junio. Allí habrá información disponible de cada ministerio, formularios para anotarse, y ayuda con cualquier pregunta que puedan tener. Adicionalmente, el Escritorio de Asistencia podrá proveer información acerca del uso e inscripción de Floknote y otros medios de comunicación de la parroquia. Por supuesto, la oficina de la parroquia está siempre disponible para asistirlos, por teléfono – 407-322-3795, correo electrónico – office@allsoulsSanford.org, y por medio del sitio de web de la parroquia – www.allsoulsSanford.org.

Life, Marriage & Religious Liberty
In this Year of Faith, the Catholic Bishops of the United States have called for a nationwide effort to advance a movement for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty through prayer, penance, and sacrifice. Catholics across the nation are being encouraged to pray, fast, and act for increased protections of religious liberty and to rebuild a culture favorable to life and marriage.

This effort is necessary because life, marriage, and religious liberty are under assault.

Some say the Church should leave politics alone and concentrate on teaching the faith and serving the needy. But what if the State says the Church may not follow her teachings, even in her own institutions? What if the State limits the Church’s ability to serve the needy? What if it says a Catholic nurse has no right to her livelihood because she will not help perform abortions? What if the Church cannot act on her teaching that marriage is the union of one man and one woman?

While believers are seeking remedies at all levels of government, the U.S. bishops have called upon the Catholic faithful to join the movement for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty. Prayer is the ultimate source of our strength—for without God, we can do nothing; but with God, all things are possible.

The New Testament clearly shows Peter as the leader of the apostles, chosen by Jesus to have a special relationship with him. With James and John he was privileged to witness the Transfiguration, the raising of a dead child to life, and the agony in Gethsemane. His mother-in-law was cured by Jesus. He was sent with John to prepare for the last Passover before Jesus’ death. He was privileged to witness the Transfiguration, the raising of a dead child to life, and the agony in Gethsemane. His mother-in-law was cured by Jesus. He was sent with John to prepare for the last Passover before Jesus’ death. He was sent with John to prepare for the last Passover before Jesus’ death.

And to Peter only did Jesus say, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven” (Matthew 16:17b-19).

Paul’s central conviction was simple and absolute: Only God can save humanity. No human effort—even the most scrupulous observance of law—can create a human good which we can bring to God as reparation for sin and payment for grace. To be saved from itself, from sin, from the devil, and from death, humanity must open itself completely to the saving power of Jesus.

Paul never lost his love for his Jewish family, though he carried on a lifelong debate with them about the uselessness of the Law without Christ. He reminded the Gentiles that they were grafted on the parent stock of the Jews, who were still God’s chosen people, the children of the promise.

Harvest Festival Craft Booth
Donate Your One-Of-A-Kind Crafts or Gently Used Items!

Spending your time cleaning out your house/garage? Maybe we can use your never used or gently used items for the Harvest Festival Basket Raffle Booth. Maybe you are cleaning out your craft area? We can use that for the Craft Booth.

During the current Covid-19 situation, when many families find themselves at home, it might be a good time to go through those closets you’ve been meaning to clean out, or to work with the kids on crafts. Please save some of those gently used or new items you may decide to dispose of, or some of those crafts you may create, for the Basket Raffle or Craft Booth. It’s a great way to be doubly productive while at home, and give yourself a boost!

If you are interested in making donations, Contact Sue Mohr 407-415-1918 or Email us at stc32771@hotmail.com.

Peter’s Pence Collection

The purpose of the Peter’s Pence Collection is to provide the Holy Father with the financial means to respond to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, natural disaster, and disease. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

The USCCB National Collections Committee oversees the promotion of the Peter’s Pence Collection which will be taken up at all of our Masses on June 28-29th.
