“The righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.” Mt 13:43a
Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

A weed is defined as any plant that grows undesirably in lawns, landscapes, or even gardens. There are many ways to control or reduce weeds in lawns. Among them are preventive pre-emergent control like herbicides. Unfortunately, weeds can grow faster than a plant can handle, and could die.

Jesus compares the people of God to a field where wheat and weeds grow side by side. However, instead of pulling out these undesirable weeds impatiently, the Master recommends waiting for the harvest. In a world where good and bad live together in the same garden, this prompts us to ask, Why does God allow the co-existence of the wheat and weeds? Have we forgotten that every created being including man, have ups and downs? Every human heart is a mixture of good and evil? Life is more than just answering questions or solving problems.

The 1st reading speaks about a God who governs with leniency.

In the Gospel, His Mercy is more urgent than His judgment. A nature that is best revealed in patience, understanding, and courage to everyone, including those who are critical to His mission, who cares for the safety and health of His people.

Mathew makes it clear that the parable is understood by His disciples who do not only know the answers, but also they live in Faith and Obedience to His teachings. This is how Jesus separates the Wheat from the Weeds.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

La mala hierba se define como una planta que crece indeseadamente en césped, paisajes y hasta jardines. Existen muchas formas de controlar o reducir las malas hierbas en el césped. Entre ellos hay medios de control pre-emergentes y preventivos, como los herbicidas. Desafortunadamente, las malas hierbas pueden crecer más rápidamente de lo que la planta puede soportar, y la planta puede morir.

Jesús compara al pueblo de Dios con un campo donde crecen el trigo y las malas hierbas lado a lado. Sin embargo, en lugar de arrancar las indeseadas hierbas impacientemente, el Maestro nos recomienda que esperemos hasta la cosecha. En un mundo donde el bien y el mal viven juntos en el mismo jardín, esto nos impulsa a preguntar, ¿Por qué Dios permite la convivencia del trigo y las malas hierbas? ¿Nos hemos olvidado que todo ser creado, incluyendo el hombre, tiene altas y bajas? ¿Qué cada corazón humano es una mezcla del bien y del mal? La vida consiste de más que contestar preguntas o resolver problemas.

La primera lectura habla de un Dios que gobierna con benevolencia.

En el Evangelio, Su Misericordia es más urgente que Su juicio. Es una naturaleza que se revela mejor en la paciencia, comprensión, y valentía con todos, incluyendo aquellos que critican Su misión, quien se preocupa por la seguridad y salud de Su pueblo.

Mateo indica muy claramente que esta parábola es entendida por Sus discípulos, quienes no solamente saben las respuestas, sino que también viven en Fe y Obediencia a Sus enseñanzas. Es así como Jesús separa el trigo de las malas hierbas.

For Your Day

“G”race and sin, belief and unbelief, good and evil all exist together. While we wrestle with these two dimensions of reality inwardly, they are also witnessed in the actions and words of others. Many, all too often, beat themselves up because of their sin. We are also all too quick to pass judgment on others whom we perceive to be in error and walking down a wrong path. God does not make rash judgments, nor should we. Patience is the order of the day as is an understanding that God is ultimately the caller of the shots.

Our faith tells us that while God allows the wheat and the weeds to coexist, the wheat will always triumph. As long as we can cultivate even a little faith and a small measure of desire for God, He can produce abundant blessings and good things. Even when the weeds seem to have triumphed, there still may be a small measure of faith remaining that can be cultivated and grown. It doesn’t take much! Unless a person totally allows the weeds to reign, there is always to be found at least a small measure of faith, good, light, and love. With even this small portion, God can produce abundant growth.

Admittedly, it is easy to give into the weeds, and they grow very quickly. Any gardener knows this to be true. Sometimes, the weeds even seem more attractive and vibrant. Dealing with weeds can quickly become a losing battle, and they can look healthier and grow faster than the very plants we are trying to protect. It’s easy to give into them and let them win. While God will deal with all things in due time, we are responsible for keeping things in check in the short term. It is our task to keep our eyes fixed on God’s presence and mercy. We are asked to avoid judgment. And, it is not our responsibility to deal with the weeds in someone else’s garden, only our own. One garden is enough responsibility for anyone.

Weeds have power. We have to realize this. While they can appear attractive and healthy, they can quickly choke us off from God’s presence. Our task is one of maintenance and cultivating a desire for God. Even the smallest kernel of faith can grow into something wonderful. In God’s time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul
Last Thursday morning, I woke up early and embarked on a 31-mile bike ride. Usually during the ride I take the opportunity to pray one of the mysteries of the Rosary. That morning, being it was Thursday, I prayed the luminous mysteries, but for some reason was inspired and I didn’t know why, to pray the joyful mysteries as well. Upon arriving back home at the rectory, while preparing to make breakfast, I received a very unexpected phone call from Archbishop Christophe Pierre (apostolic nuncio to United States) informing me that the Holy Father, Pope Francis, has appointed me as the 15th Bishop of the Diocese of Savannah. Needless to say, I was very surprised and, as you can imagine, my mind went blank for a few moments. I was very glad that I had prayed those extra mysteries earlier on the bike ride. I am humbled by the confidence that the Holy Father has placed in me to be the next shepherd of the beautiful Diocese of Savannah. As we all know, our diocese has an incredibly rich and longstanding history. When it was founded in 1850, it included the state of Georgia and a large part of Florida, including the area of Central Florida that I’ve called home for the past 37 years. My family has roots here, as my grandparents relocated to the Augusta area in the late 1940s and my father spent part of his childhood there. Bishop Emeritus Boland and I have something very unique and special in common in that we both have older brothers with whom we have shared not only the bonds of family, but also of the fraternity of the priesthood. Over the past few years, I’ve had the pleasure of getting to know my predecessor Archbishop Hartmayer while attending the board of trustees meetings at St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary. I know that you are appreciative of his fine leadership these past years and remember him in prayer as he assumes his new responsibilities as the Archbishop of Atlanta. In the very brief time since my arrival here, you have made me feel very much at home. I look forward to getting to know you and to ministering with you, the priests, deacons, religious, seminarians, and the holy people—the faithful people of God. I am grateful for the seeds of our Catholic faith that have been planted in the hearts of God’s people here in the 90 counties of the Diocese of Savannah. Together may we have the grace and vision to continue to tend and nurture these seeds of faith and to plant new ones as missionary disciples for years to come. In my past 22 years of priesthood in the Diocese of Orlando, I have realized my deep love for parish ministry and have been blessed in my assignments in the parish communities of Annunciation and Most Precious Blood and in campus ministry at the University of Central Florida. I am grateful to all who I have looked up to as mentors in the Diocese of Orlando, but also to the people who I have served. They’ve taught me not only about ministry, but I have learned from them the inexhaustible nature and presence of God’s love, of His goodness and of His mercy. My parents were dedicated to our Catholic faith and provided a beautiful example of family life to their sons. I am blessed with a special bond of family and priestly fraternity with my brother, Bishop Gregory Parkes of the Diocese of St. Petersburg. As his younger brother, I always looked up to him, believe it or not, in physical stature as he is four inches taller than I am, but also I appreciate his advice, his guidance and his love. Along with our sister-in-law and niece, we are a small family but blessed to be a close family. I also have relatives in North Carolina and I look forward to being within just a few hours driving distance of them. It is interesting today that I also want to acknowledge those who join us on the livestream. My friends, we are living in extraordinary times as we face a pandemic and recent social unrest. For all of us, now more than ever, we need hope and healing. We need recognition of God’s image that is in the life of every human person. Over the past few months of challenge and unprecedented circumstances I’ve often reflected upon the words of Saint Paul from Romans Chapter 12 Verse 12, “Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer.” Today I ask you to please pray for me that I can be the shepherd that God has called me to be and that you need and deserve. I also make my commitment to pray for you, your loved ones and your intentions. We may not see each other each day, but, my friends, may we meet each day in our prayers. Amen.

St. Camillus de Lellis

(3550 - July 14, 1614)

Humanly speaking, Camillus was not a likely candidate for sainthood. His mother died when he was a child, his father neglected him, and he grew up with an excessive love for gambling. At 17, he was afflicted with a disease of his leg that remained with him for life. In Rome he entered the San Giacomo Hospital for Incurables as both patient and servant, but was dismissed for quarrelsomeness after nine months. He served in the Venetian army for three years.

Then in the winter of 1574, when he was 24, Camillus gambled away everything he had—savings, weapons, literally down to his shirt. He accepted work at the Capuchin friary at Manfredonia, and was one day so moved by a sermon of the superior that he began a conversion that changed his life. He entered the Capuchin novitiate, but was dismissed because of the apparently incurable sore on his leg. After another stint of service at San Giacomo, he came back to the Capuchins, only to be dismissed again, for the same reason.

Again, back at San Giacomo, his dedication was rewarded by his being made superintendent. Camillus devoted the rest of his life to the care of the sick. Along with Saint John of God he has been named patron of hospitals, nurses, and the sick. With the advice of his friend Saint Philip Neri, he studied for the priesthood and was ordained at the age of 34. Contrary to the advice of his friend, Camillus left San Giacomo and founded a congregation of his own. As superior, he devoted much of his own time to the care of the sick.

Charity was his first concern, but the physical aspects of the hospital also received his diligent attention. Camillus insisted on cleanliness and the technical competence of those who served the sick. The members of his community bound themselves to serve prisoners and persons infected by the plague as well as those dying in private homes. Some of his men were with troops fighting in Hungary and Croatia in 1595, forming the first recorded military field ambulance. In Naples, he and his men went onto the galleys that had plague and were not allowed to land. He discovered that there were people being buried alive, and ordered his brothers to continue the prayers for the dying 15 minutes after apparent death.

Camillus himself suffered the disease of his leg through his life. In his last illness, he left his own bed to see if other patients in the hospital needed help.

Faith Formation Updates

Sacraments are outward signs of God’s grace given to us through Jesus Christ.

SACRAMENT PREPARATION & READINESS
At least ONE year of formal Faith Formation (whether in a parish program or Catholic School) is expected prior to introducing sacraments. Please be aware that while children are enrolled in a parish program (or Catholic School) immediate preparation for the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Eucharist (Communion) and Confirmation are separate and in addition to classes. It should not be assumed that program enrollment means sacrament preparation is being conducted within individual classes. IMMEDIATE SACRAMENT PREPARATION IS NOT CONDUCTED IN FAITH FORMATION but rather is given to an entire program on its own. Because parents are the primary catechist they have the right and responsibility to prepare their child(ren) to receive and celebrate the sacraments.

SPECIAL NOTE: Unbaptized children over the age of seven would be welcomed into the Catholic Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (Children) where the Sacraments of Baptism, First Eucharist and Confirmation are celebrated during the Easter Vigil Mass. For adults seeking to become fully initiated into the Church, All Souls Church welcomes you. Please call the parish office at 407.322.3795 for additional information.

FAITH FORMATION 2020/2021
As All Souls Faith Formation looks to the upcoming 2020/2021 year adjustments are being made to all of our programs so that we may keep both participants and volunteers safe as well as healthy. Please continue to watch the bulletin, our website and your e-mails for updates to Faith Formation.

PREPARACIÓN SACRAMENTAL
Los sacramentos son señales externas de la gracia que nos da Dios por medio de Jesucristo.

Our Faith Community

PREPARACIÓN Y DISPOSICIÓN SACRAMENTAL
Se requiere por lo menos un año de clases de Formación de la Fe (ya sea en el programa de la parroquia o en una escuela católica) para introducir los sacramentos. Tengan en cuenta por favor que la preparación inmediata para los Sacramentos de Reconciliación, Primera Eucaristía (Comunión), y Confirmación son programas separados y clases adicionales, aunque los niños estén matriculados en el programa de educación religiosa de la parroquia (o en una escuela católica). No se debe asumir que la inscripción en el programa común significa que la preparación para los sacramentos se esté llevando a cabo en las clases individuales. LA PREPARACION INMEDIATA PARA LOS SACRAMENTOS NO SE LLEVA A CABO EN LA FORMACION DE LA FE, sino que es un programa que se administra completamente por su cuenta. Ya que se considera que los padres son los principales catequistas, ellos tienen la responsabilidad de preparar a sus hijos para recibir y celebrar los sacramentos.

NOTA ESPECIAL:
Los niños no bautizados que tienen más de 7 años de edad son bienvenidos a la iglesia por medio del Rito de Iniciación Cristiana para Adultos (Niños), donde se celebran los sacramentos de Bautismo, Primera Eucaristía y Confirmación durante la Misa de Vigilia de Pascua. Para los adultos que buscan unirse completamente a la iglesia, la Iglesia All Souls les da la bienvenida. Por favor llamen a la oficina de la parroquia al 407.322.3795 para obtener más información.

FORMACIÓN DE LA FE 2020/2021
A medida que All Souls se prepara para el año 2020/2021, estamos realizando ajustes en todos nuestros programas para mantener a nuestros participantes y nuestros voluntarios seguros y saludables. Por favor continúen leyendo el boletín, nuestro sitio de web, y sus correos electrónicos para recibir actualizaciones sobre el Programa de Formación de la Fe.

Psalm 91
Security Under God’s Protection
1 You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shade of the Almighty,
2 Say to the Lord, “My refuge and fortress, my God in whom I trust.”
3 He will rescue you from the fowler’s snare, from the destroying plague,
4 He will shelter you with his pinions, and under his wings you may take refuge; his faithfulness is a protecting shield.
5 You shall not fear the terror of the night nor the arrow that flies by day,
6 Nor the pestilence that roams in darkness, nor the plague that rages at noon.
7 Though a thousand fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, near you it shall not come.
8 You need simply watch; the punishment of the wicked you will see.
9 Because you have the Lord for your refuge and have made the Most High your stronghold,
10 No evil shall befall you, no affliction come near your tent.
11 For he commands his angels with regard to you, to guard you wherever you go.
12 With their hands they shall support you, lest you strike your foot against a stone.
13 You can tread upon the asp and the viper, the punishment of the wicked you will see.
14 Because he brings to me I will deliver him; because he knows my name I will set him on high.
15 He will call upon me and I will answer; I will be with him in distress; I will deliver him and give him honor.
16 With length of days I will satisfy him, and fill him with my saving power.
