Godparents/Sponsor affirmation of Faith and Morals

I. Some Basic Church Norms Concerning Godparents/Sponsor.

It is the very ancient custom of the Church that at the celebration of the sacrament of Baptism or Confirmation, a godparent/sponsor is present. The function of the Godparent/Sponsor is a) together with the celebrant who baptizes or confirms, to represent the Church in receiving the into the communion of the Church; and b) to support the person in living the Christian life.

In accord with Canon 874 of the code of Canon Law, the church can admit a person to the role of godparent/sponsor if: a) he or she is more than sixteen years of age; b) is a baptized catholic who has been Confirmed, has already received the Blessed Eucharist, and lives a life of faith which befits the role to be undertaken; and c) is neither the father or the mother of the person being baptize o confirmed.

Given the functions and role a godparent/ sponsor exercises, a non-Catholic Christian cannot be admitted as a godparent/sponsor; however, he or she can serve as a Christian witness, provided that there is a catholic godparent (c.874 2). A baptized Catholic who is sacramentally or canonically ineligible to serve as a Godparent may not serve as a Christian witness. These include those who subsequently renounced the faith in favor of another church community or entity. Those un-baptized and those whose Baptism is not recognized by the Catholic Church may not serve in the role of Christian witness but are welcome to be present at the ceremony.

Note that the Catholic seeking to be admitted as a godparent/sponsor “lives a life which befits the role to be undertaken “. This means that the candidate for godparent/sponsor: a) sincerely believes and strives to put into practice the Word of God as taught by the Catholic Church; b) prayerfully attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation; and c) if married, was married in accordance with the requirements of the Catholic Church. Only one godparent/sponsor is required. Two godparents/sponsors may be appointed provided one is male and the other female.

II. Individual Criteria for Admittance as a Godparent/Sponsor

A sponsor must be fully initiated into the Catholic Faith. When and where did you receive the three Sacraments of Initiation? (Fill below.) If unsure, a Certificate of Baptism can be requested from the church of baptism and will list the sacraments listed below.
