JANUARY 19, 2020

CALLED TO BE HOLY

With this Sunday we begin Ordinary Time. The readings tell us about God's relationship with Israel and John the Baptist's relationship with Jesus. Israel's relationship with God is so close, so intimate, that it is through Israel that God's "salvation [will] reach to the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 49:6). But we know from John the Baptist that for Israel to accomplish God's will, it must also recognize that Jesus is the Son of God. During these weeks we also get to know Jesus. We begin to understand more deeply our relationship to Jesus and what that relationship means for us, who are "called to be holy" (1 Corinthians 1:2).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The glory of the LORD shows through Israel, a light to all nations, that salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (Isaiah 49:3, 5-6).

Psalm — Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will (Psalm 40).

Second Reading — All those who call upon the name of the Lord are called to be holy (1 Corinthians 1:1-3).

Gospel — John the Baptist testifies: The one who comes after me, on whom the Spirit comes down and remains, is the Son of God (John 1:29-34).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every year, close to the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on January 25, and before the feast of the Chair of St. Peter on February 22, the cause of Church unity is commended to Christians everywhere. Sadly, Protestants, Orthodox, and Catholics have settled to a status quo of separation. When baptized people become Catholic, we speak of them as being received into "full communion." That means we already share a communion in faith in many ways, including the Word of God. Many Protestant denominations have received and revised the three-year cycle of readings first arranged by Catholics in the early 1970s. Therefore, many of your neighbors who are not Catholic are celebrating and reflecting on the same readings we are savoring on most Sundays of the year. This makes for a new spirit of cooperation among preachers of the gospel, and gives hope that the cause of reunion, desired by Christ, has great vitality at the table of God's Word, and will one day lead to unity at the table of the Lord's Body and Blood.

CHRISTMAS REVIEW AT OLVSTA 2020

It was a great three weeks of commemorating the Nativity of Christ. So much work and effort went into making the season one to remember here at our parish. With decent weather, so many came to our Church for Mass, to attend our wonderful concert or to pray before the Lord, our Lady or light a candle before one of our saints.

Some observations:

–So many visitors from all over joined us during Christmastide. Many did not hesitate to comment on how beautiful our liturgies are and how they wish they could experience the same back home. Also mentioned was how beautifully decorated and clean both church's are.

–Speaking of "beautiful," I lost count of those who took pictures of the sanctuary at O.L.V. from Christmas right up to the Solemnity of the Baptism of Lord. People were thrilled with all the poinsettias and made comments about how great it was that we had "real" candles in front of our statues in the front and the back of the Church.

–Decorating was a group effort this year at OLV so thanks to Sarah Hughes (our Office Manager), Patricia Molinari (our Receptionist) and Father Edwin Ezeokeke.

A special shout-out to Carlos Gomez, our Sexton, who did such a great job decorating as well as getting and keeping our Church clean and beautiful not only at Christmas but year-round.

–Thanks to Don Barnum and our Canon Choir who did such a great job with Christmas Concert that was attended by over 90 people. They also did a splendid job with all our Masses during the Christmas Season which ended on the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord.

–Thanks to our parochial vicars, Frs., Gonsales & Ezeokeke for all their assistance and dedication to our parish as well as Msgr. Aquino and Frs. Blackwell, Chacko, Ene & Vricella, who assist us with Masses at both Churches when they are able.

–Finally, thanks to all of you for your being a part of the life of Our Lady of Victory & Saint Andrew. Your presence, prayers & generosity go into making our parish the important and fine one that it is in serving not only the local community but visitors from afar and the thousands who travel from throughout the tri-state area to work in the area.

God bless & keep you all,

Fr. Myles Murphy
