SEEKING THE LIGHT

In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes: "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — God has restored the land, and brought great joy to the people (Isaiah 8:23 — 9:3).

Psalm — The Lord is my light and my salvation (Psalm 27).

Second Reading — Paul exhorts the believers at Corinth: As there is one Christ, so too must there be no divisions among you (1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17).

Gospel — After calling his first disciples, Jesus goes throughout Galilee (Matthew 4:12-23 [12-17]).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Ordinary" is not always a desirable adjective. Who would not be insulted to receive a thank-you note for your "ordinary birthday gift," or "the ordinary hospitality at the dinner party"? No restaurant advertises its "ordinariness," no car dealer seats a customer at the steering wheel and whispers, "Look how ordinary it is!" Yet here we are in "Ordinary Time." The word carries a different meaning here: it does not mean these days are dull, boring, pedestrian, uninteresting. It means "ordinal," or "numbered" Sundays, a season of the year when we follow the story of Jesus' life and ministry in an ordered way, with each Sunday assigned an ordinal number.

You can amaze your friends with this example of Catholic arithmetic: the "Ordinary Sundays" begin with the last Sunday of Christmas, the Baptism of the Lord, continue until the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, and resume after a cluster of feasts following Pentecost Sunday. The numbers are calculated by counting backwards from the Solemnity of Christ the King, the Thirty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Now you know there is nothing "ordinary" about "Ordinary Time!"

CHRISTMAS REVIEW AT OLVSTA 2020

It was a great three weeks of commemorating the Nativity of Christ. So much work and effort went into making the season one to remember here at our parish. With decent weather, so many came to our Church for Mass, to attend our wonderful concert or to pray before the Lord, our Lady or light a candle before one of our saints.

Some observations:

–So many visitors from all over joined us during Christmastide. Many did not hesitate to comment on how beautiful our liturgies are and how they wish they could experience the same back home. Also mentioned was how beautifully decorated and clean both church's are.

–Speaking of "beautiful," I lost count of those who took pictures of the sanctuary at O.L.V. from Christmas right up to the Solemnity of the Baptism of Lord. People were thrilled with all the poinsettias and made comments about how great it was that we had "real" candles in front of our statues in the front and the back of the Church.

–Decorating was a group effort this year at OLV so thanks to Sarah Hughes (our Office Manager), Patricia Molinari (our Receptionist) and Father Edwin Ezeokeke.

A special shout-out to Carlos Gomez, our Sexton, who did such a great job decorating as well as getting and keeping our Church clean and beautiful not only at Christmas but year-round.

–Thanks to Don Barnum and our Canon Choir who did such a great job with Christmas Concert that was attended by over 90 people. They also did a splendid job with all our Masses during the Christmas Season which ended on the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord.

–Thanks to our parochial vicars, Frs., Gonsales & Ezeokeke for all their assistance and dedication to our parish as well as Msgr. Aquino and Frs. Blackwell, Chacko, Ene & Vricella, who assist us with Masses at both Churches when they are able.

–Finally, thanks to all of you for your being a part of the life of Our Lady of Victory & Saint Andrew. Your presence, prayers & generosity go into making our parish the important and fine one that it is in serving not only the local community but visitors from afar and the thousands who travel from throughout the tri-state area to work in the area.

God bless & keep you all,

Fr. Myles Murphy

God's Creation

In the beginning, God created the earth and rested.

Then God created Man and rested.

Then God created Woman.

Since then, neither God nor Man has rested.

SAINT ANGELA MERICI (c. 1474-1540)

January 27

Born in Northern Italy, orphaned in childhood, Angela Merici faced a society in which education was largely the privilege of wealthy young men and based primarily in monastic schools. This reality shaped Angela's insightful conviction that society's disorder was caused by disorder in the home, and a lack of model Christian mothers the result of neglecting the education of young women.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Transform the Christian family by placing an educated wife and mother at its heart, Angela believed, and the whole world would be renewed in Christ! So she gathered a small group of unmarried women, many of them Franciscan Tertiaries (lay affiliates) like herself, and set out to educate poor girls, free of charge, in their homes. She and her band of teachers called themselves companions, pioneering a new form of non-cloistered religious life for women, bearing witness to evangelical simplicity in the midst of the world, not as a formal "order" but as the Company (compagnia) of Saint Ursula. Known today as the Ursulines, Angela Merici's spiritual daughters continue serving the Church and society in a rich diversity of ministries.

SUNDAY CONTRIBUTIONS

But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount." — (LUKE 19:8)
