MESSAGE FROM FATHER SATTLER

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with a deep sadness that the measures needed to respond to the COVID-19 virus continue to unfold. Please know of my prayers for each one of you. It will be very difficult in this time to not physically gather together as a community of faith. You will be missed! Our roots of communion will need to stretch forth even more deeply. Remember that we remain one in Christ. As many beautiful avenues through which we are privileged to receive spiritual nourishment will be detoured for a time, let us open our hearts to the ways in which Our Lord will continue to draw us together in Him. While spending six years in the hermitage, I learned the clear distinction between solitude and isolation. Solitude is our time spent alone with God, isolation is simply being alone. One wise soul recognized how we are never less alone than when we are alone with God, and another came to appreciate how invisible links of grace keep the hermit in communion with countless others for the whole of mankind. As I celebrate Mass each day in the chapel at the rectory, please be aware of those spiritual links being extended to you. As a visible link, you are now able to participate in daily and Sunday Mass by means of a video; that link is now on our website. Our Lenten call to fast, pray and give alms could not be more timely.

God bless you,
Father Sattler

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Even though we may not receive the Eucharist at this time because of Mass being suspended, we may still make an Act of Spiritual Communion. This applies not just to Sundays, but every single day that we are without the Eucharist. What a beautiful gift from God!

- 1) Read the Daily Readings (available on our website and listed on the previous page of the bulletin).
- 2) Make an Act of Spiritual Communion using the prayer below.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

CULTIVATING YOUR FAITH AT HOME

In the absence of our regular parish celebrations of the sacraments, we cannot forget to hope and keep faith in Christ. We must not cease to pray and deepen our understanding of our beautiful Catholic faith. By increasing our focus on our faith at home, we will find innumerable opportunities to put our faith into practice and to connect with our faith family around the globe.

Are you someone who loves to attend Mass every day?

- ◆ Fr. Sattler's daily recording of the Mass is available on our website (<https://www.stannesbismarck.org/mass-times>) and are posted by 9:30am.
- ◆ Livestreamed Mass is available on our local FOX TV affiliate on Sundays at 10am and 11:30pm
- ◆ Livestreamed Mass is available on the diocesan website (<https://bismarckdiocese.com/news/mass-availalbe-on-livestream>)

Are you someone who loves to attend Eucharistic Adoration?

- ◆ St. Anne's will be open from 7am-7pm for you to stop in and pray privately before the Blessed Sacrament
- ◆ Livestreamed Eucharistic Adoration is available on the EWTN website (<https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/adoration>)

Do not forget the importance of cultivating your understanding of the Scriptures. Make time to turn to God in His written Word. Are you not sure where to start? A good place to start may be one of the Gospels. Take a chapter a day, and open your heart to hear God's voice speaking to you.

Are you someone who thrives on routine and set schedules? If so, you may find yourself missing your well-established routines. Consider taking up the Liturgy of the Hours. The Liturgy of the Hours are prayed by the clergy and consecrated religious all over the world each day at five different times throughout the day (Morning, Daytime, Evening, Night, and Office of Readings), and while it may not be possible for you to participate in each hour during their designated timeframe, you can consider taking up one of the hours as your schedule allows you. Contrary to what the name may suggest, these hours do not actually take an hour to pray; they take roughly fifteen to twenty minutes. You can use an app on your phone, such as iBreviary, a book titled "Christian Prayer: The Liturgy of the Hours," or you can use a website, such as <https://catholicexchange.com/divine-office>. In this way, you can still join others around the globe in prayer in a scheduled and routine way.

AN OCCASION FOR GRATITUDE

St. Teresa of Calcutta approached any suffering with this mindset: "A gift of God!" Every time you encounter a new suffering or an added depth to your present sufferings, ask St. Teresa of Calcutta to help you see your sufferings as the precious gifts that they are from God.

*Thank you, God, for the gift of having the sacraments in the past;
thank you for the opportunity to appreciate them more deeply now when they are not as readily available!*

Thank you, God, for the gift of the unknown and its accompanying uncertainty; thank you for the opportunity to deepen my trust in You!

Thank you for the gift of being at home with my family; thank you for the opportunity to remember just how much I love and appreciate them!

Thank you, God, for your continuous presence with me even when I feel alone; thank you for the opportunity to share this journey with You!

EXCERPTS FROM BISHOP KAGAN'S IMPORTANT MESSAGE

March 18, 2020

To the Catholic Faithful of the Diocese of Bismarck,

The most serious health crisis we are now experiencing, the COVID-19 virus has required unprecedented measures be taken by our national, state and local governments and, as devout Catholics and responsible citizens, we all have a share in this responsibility not to spread this virus, but to do all we can reasonably do to stop its spread and to pray and work for its end. As Catholics this is our moral responsibility in justice and in charity.

Thus, after long hours of prayer and consultation, I must make the hard decision to cancel all public celebrations of the Mass, the sacraments and devotions until further notice that it is safe for us to gather again for public worship. This is a great sorrow for me as your Bishop but, in justice and charity to you and to all in our diocese, I make this decision.

Thus, the following directives are to be observed in the Diocese of Bismarck and may not be changed or modified by anyone but the Diocesan Bishop:

Effective Thursday, March 19, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. and until further notice, all daily and Sunday Masses are cancelled in the Diocese of Bismarck. This applies to all parishes, oratories, and chapels used for public worship. The Catholic faithful within the territory of the Diocese of Bismarck are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days.

Confirmation - As a result, all of the scheduled celebrations of the sacrament of confirmation between Sunday, March 22, 2020 through Sunday, May 17, 2020, are cancelled and will be rescheduled for the fall between September and December 2020.

Communal Penance Services - All Communal Penance Services are cancelled. All parish priests are to keep the regular schedule of confessions in their parishes but both priest and penitent are to use a screen for the celebration of the sacrament until further notice.

Weddings - All weddings already scheduled may take place but are to be limited to the bride and groom, the two witnesses, the parents of the bride and groom and the priest or deacon who is to witness the marriage. The Church's Rite of Matrimony Within or Outside of Mass may be used.

Funerals - All funerals are to be private not public, that is to say, for the immediate family only and for the priest or deacon who is the celebrant. The Rite of Christian Funerals Within or Outside of Mass may be used. There is to be no wake and/or vigil observed the day before or day of the funeral. No luncheon or dinner is permitted in the church hall after the funeral.

Baptism - Infant baptism may be administered but may have only 10 persons including the priest or deacon present. All RCIA classes are cancelled. The sacramental initiation of adults by a Profession of Faith or by baptism may take place at the discretion of the priest but must be done individually and with no more than 10 persons present.

Religious Education - All parish religious education classes are cancelled until further notice. Our Catholic schools are following the directives of the State and will remain closed until such time as it is deemed safe to reopen. Parents are asked to follow the directions given by their local Catholic schools.

Televised/Livestream Mass - All pastors of parishes with the capability to livestream are to offer one daily and one Sunday Mass without a congregation or other ministers present and have that available for their parishioners on the parish website. If any parish does not have this capability, the parishioners may go to the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit website and view daily and Sunday Mass from there (as available). As always, the televised Mass is available on the FOX TV affiliate in your viewing area on Sundays at 10 a.m. and 11:30 p.m. Please check the diocesan website and social media for updates and more details about livestream Masses.

Chrism Mass - The Mass of Chrism will be celebrated without a congregation present on Monday, April 6, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. CDT from the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit and this will be able to be viewed on the diocesan website. In order to protect our priests, there will be no general concelebration of this Mass, but our priests are asked to participate in the Renewal of their Ordination Promises via live stream.

Priests will be expected to offer Holy Mass privately every day if possible and to be available to provide the anointing of the sick and viaticum to all the Catholic faithful. Please call your parish office with any special sacramental and spiritual need. Each Parish is to keep its Church open during the day for the benefit of those who wish to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

What all of us must do in these days is not lose hope in the merciful goodness of Almighty God. Even though we will not be physically close to one another at this time, by our fervent and humble prayer for each other and all who are ill and affected, we remain united in the powerful Communion of Saints. Let us continue to beg Our Mother of Perpetual Help and Saint Joseph, Guardian of the Holy Family and Patron of the Universal Church, to assist us in our time of need by their powerful intercession.

I offer to all of you my daily prayers and my blessing. Let us accompany one another and everyone on this holy journey of healing and purification.

The Most Reverend David D. Kagan
Bishop of Bismarck

In Memory/Honor of: _____

Bishop Kagan has asked us to pray the Memorare during this time, asking for our Blessed Mother to intercede for us.

The Memorare

Remember, O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother, to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.
