Further, we want to say thank you to everyone who has already made a commitment to this important effort. We are truly one parish family, and one extended archdiocesan family, helping each other.

Book Club Part III

Fr. Marc's book club will meet Saturday, July 14th at 6:05pm in the conference room.

We will use a new evocative-contemplative method for an extended study of Henri Nouwen's work "Open Hands", a classic Catholic text on prayer and meditation in times of distress. Please DO NOT purchase the book, as Fr. Marc will hand out copies of individual chapters for you to take home, pray and reflect with.

In the Gospel today, we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members visit in pairs "two by two", those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in a family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and tender assistance.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Did you bring a dish for an event and were wondering....Where is my bowl, plate, or serving spoon?

If you volunteered to bring food items for a funeral or another event, please double check that you did not leave any personal items behind. We have a variety of items that were left in the kitchen dating back to December 2017.

Franciscan Hospice and Palliative Care

Consider Franciscan Hospice as a way to help bear a neighbor's burden. A growing number of families in Pierce County need help to support a loved one at the end of their life. Franciscan Hospice embraces the spiritual, emotional, and physical needs of each person and honors their unique life journey. They record a person's life stories, run errands for them, visit them in homes and nursing homes, and read to them.

One day trainings are offered monthly September through June. Training is accompanied by ongoing support and education. Anyone 18 years and older who has 1- 4 hours a week to give and wants to offer hospice presence and support can apply. To apply or learn more please contact: James Bentley, Volunteer Coordinator at....
