St Vincent de Paul Society
good works

In this Gospel the love that Jesus reveals through the symbol of the cross is: self-giving, sacrificial, healing, forgiving, in solidarity with the weak, confident in the power of God.

During the hot summer months many of the elderly, especially those who are sick, are not able to find relief from the heat. Please help the Society to bring respite and hope to them.

For the month of July we helped 59 people and provided $1,615.00 worth of assistance, mostly utilities, food and emergency gasoline.

Meditation Park

The SJB Meditation Park is open daylight hours for quiet reflection, in a natural environment, of several aspects of our Catholic Faith. Appreciation and thanks are extended to the Legion of Mary, Steve and Becky Hibbs, Dawn McLennan, Gert Sternberg, Pete Pietrowski, Jim Senko, Anne Sakson, Frank and Virginia Chargualaf, Tony Quitagua, John Green, and Ian Thompson, those who help keep the Park in shape, especially during the recent hot weather. We are in the midst of a new member recruiting drive. Thanks to Issabella Anderson, the Pace Family, Maria Sullivan, and Richard Klumph for offering to help. There are several ways to help in the park. Some persons adopt an area within the Park to maintain on their own time. There is also a group effort the first Monday of each month, 9:00 - 12:00pm. There are also a few one-time projects to be done. The Park needs a new brochure, electrical work, mowing the field area, and creation of display signage. Please call Paul Mernaugh at 253-324-0245 if you are interested. Weather permitting, morning Mass on Thursday may be in the Park Grotto.

CRS Parish Ambassador Corps

Inspired by Pope Francis, Catholics across the United States are being asked to live their faith in active engagement - to encounter and respond to excluded and suffering people. To help SJB and IC parishioners to answer this call, Catholic Relief Services (CRS) has developed the CRS Parish Ambassador Corps. Each parish in the Archdiocese is asked to recruit two or three parishioners with a heartfelt commitment for the work of CRS to volunteer to represent us.

CRS Parish Ambassadors will be asked to collaborate with parish staff to coordinate three (which is why we need a team of two or three ambassadors) global solidarity initiatives within the pastoral year-September through August—that help their fellow parishioners respond to the Gospel call to care for those in need. Ambassadors make a 2 year commitment to the program. After that, they may renew their commitment annually. Parish Ambassador training will be conducted at the Archdiocese on Saturday, 9/29.
