COLLECTION

October 30.....$3,222.00

Thank you for your support.

The Parish Office will be closed at 3:30 PM on Veteran's Day, Friday, November 11th.

The National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS) will be taken this weekend, November 5/6.

The guiding mission of The Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS) is to bring Christ in Word and Sacrament to you, the men and women on the front lines of service to our country, as well as our veterans who sacrificed so much. You can provide your support for "Serving Those Who Serve" when you pray and participate in the sacraments. Spiritual outreach by the Church is made possible by our military priests and Catholic coordinators who are sent by the AMS to serve military members and their families even while displaced, separated or far from home, as well as veterans in VA medical centers.

As this year's annual Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) begins, we need you to support our mission more than ever. Many young men and women in the military seek comfort in their faith. For a military member in the field, the opportunity to receive Holy Communion or the sacrament of Reconciliation may be more valued than it has ever been before.

I encourage you to pledge your support. The AMS fulfills many needs and receives no federal funding of any kind. Your one-time gift is much needed and appreciated.

GIVING TREE

Each year the Ministry of Social Concerns Committee has an activity called the Giving Tree. The goal of this activity is to collect gifts and clothing for children from infant to eighteen years of age for Christmas. A tree is set up in the back of church and decorated with tags. Each tag has a child's name, age, and information about a particular gift that they could use. If you take a tag, please return a gift to ensure that every child will receive a gift. If you do not have the time to purchase a gift, you can leave a monetary offering at the Parish Office.

Our tree will be up on Saturday, November 19th through Sunday, December 11th.

Thank you.

What Does the Church Believe About Cremation?

One of our most important beliefs as Christians is the belief in life after death. As Christians, we believe that through our baptisms we are intimately united with the death and resurrection of Christ and so come to share in the new life that Christ promises (cf. Romans 6:3-11). We also believe that who we are as individuals is a union of body and soul, and that both are redeemed through the death and resurrection of Christ. The resurrection we await, then, is one in which our souls will be reunited with our transformed bodies. This is most evident in the Gospel accounts of the resurrected Christ's appearances to his disciples. In each, it is clear that they are interacting with a transformed physical being, not just a spirit; they eat and drink with him, break bread, and touch the wounds in his hand and side. All Christians are called to proclaim this faith in our words and actions.

One important way we proclaim this faith is through the way we treat the remains of those who have died. To treat the bodies of the dead with dignity and respect shows in a concrete way that we believe that the now lifeless body will someday be reunited with the soul and live again in the Kingdom of God. For this reason, the Church has always taught that the bodies of our deceased relatives and friends should receive a full Christian funeral in a Church (and not just prayers at the funeral home) and be buried in a dignified place reserved for that purpose. This respect for human remains is also why the Church prohibited cremation for much of its history, seeing it as too closely associated with pagan religious practices which denied resurrection.

The Church, recognizing that attitudes and associations change, lifted the ban on cremation in 1963, provided that cremation was not requested as a denial of the resurrection or of other essential Christian dogmas. The Church prefers that the cremation take place after the funeral mass, as having the full body present is a clearer sign of our belief in the resurrection, but it is possible to celebrate the funeral with cremated remains for just reason. The fact that cremation is permitted, however, does not abrogate the requirement that a person's remains be buried or interred in a dignified and dedicated place. The Church absolutely prohibits, therefore, the scattering of ashes in any way; the division of the remains between family members; or the preservation of ashes in jewelry or other objects. Any person who requests such a disposition of their remains is to be denied a Catholic funeral and burial according to the laws of the Church.

The problem with such practices is that they are drawn from non-Christian traditions which do not share our beliefs about life after death or respect for human remains. As such, when practiced, they weaken our faith in Christ and in the salvation of body and soul we receive from him through baptism. Also, such practices all too often lead to accidents or acts of disrespect to human remains contrary to Church teaching. Finally, the interment of human remains, bodily or ashes, makes it easier for the faithful departed to be remembered in the prayers and devotions of the Church, according to our ancient practice.

How we treat the dead is always an expression of what we believe about the life to come. As such, it should never be taken lightly or seen as unimportant. I encourage all of our parishioners to keep these truths in mind when they plan the funerals for family members or when considering what arrangements they would like made for themselves. As always, Fr. Frank and myself remain ready and available to assist in making these plans.

Peace & All Good,

Fr. Stephen

FEEDING THE POOR AND HUNGRY

Our St. Bonaventure community generously supported the food collection for the Father English Center, on Saturday, October 22nd. Contributions included:

30 frozen dinners	1 frozen chicken
30 bags of groceries	10 cartons of canned goods
5 bags of used housewares
14 bags of used clothing	150 lbs. of rice

These totals include 19 bags of groceries and 1 carton of canned goods contributed by our Knights of Columbus Council #240. Thanks to all who made this donation possible and particularly to that parishioner who provided 8 frozen dinners with the help of neighbors and friends.

As we prepare to enter the holiday season, let us remember particularly the poor and hungry in our midst, many of whom rely on us for their Thanksgiving dinner. While most of us are not able to host them at our family table, our hearts will be filled with joy knowing we have unselfishly provided food for them and their children. Remember that many are in such dire circumstances, through no fault of their own, and we are privileged to serve as the hands of God in lifting some of their burdens.
