CHESTERON, G K, on Easter morning

"On the third day the friends of Christ coming at daybreak to the place found the grave empty and the stone rolled away. In varying ways they realized the new wonder; but even they hardly realized that the world had died in the night. What they were looking at was the first day of a new creation, with a new heaven and a new earth; and in a semblance of the gardener God walked again in the garden, in the cool – not of the evening – but the dawn." G. K. Chesterton, The Everlasting Man

Yesterday,
the King was crucified
and battered with sufferings;
today, by His Resurrection,
He has shone victory.
Yesterday, His side was pierced by a lance;
today, in His compassion,
He opened up for us
the waters of Baptism.
Yesterday, He was crowned with thorns;
today He has adorned His Church
with a crown of splendor.
Yesterday, sadness covered all creation;
today the joy of Resurrection has pervaded the entire universe!

FROM THE PASCHAL LITURGY OF THE CHRISTIAN EAST

It is the day of Resurrection, O people, let us be enlightened by it.
The Passover is the Lord's Passover, since Christ, our God, has brought us
from death to life and from earth to heaven.
Therefore, we sing the hymn of victory!

Let us cleanse our senses that we may see the risen Christ in the glory of his Resurrection and clearly hear Him greeting us: Rejoice! As we sing the hymn of victory!

Let the heavens rejoice,
and let the earth be glad,
and let the whole visible
and invisible world celebrate;
for Christ, our everlasting joy is risen!

Come, let us partake of a new drink,
not miraculously produced
from the barren rock,
but from the Fountain of Immortality,
springing up from the tomb of Christ.
In Him is our firm strength!
