READINGS, REFLECTIONS AND PRAYERS

SUNDAY READINGS IN A WORD

FIRST READING Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses encouraged the people to follow the law of the Lord their God with all their hearts and all their souls. This command is not "mysterious and remote" but already in your mouths and in your hearts."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 69:14, 17, 30-31,
33-34, 36, 37

Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

SECOND READING Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the new image of God; before anything came to be, he was. In him resides the fullness of power to restore to God all things: in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible.

GOSPEL READING Luke 10:25-37

A lawyer asked Jesus what a person must do to gain eternal life. Reminded of the command to love God and neighbor, the man inquired, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied by telling him the story about the good Samaritan.

FOCUS

We are not called to pursue spiritual matters and ignore people, for it is in serving others that we serve God.

PRAYER CORNER

The commandment you give us, O Lord our God, is neither too hard nor too distant. For in Jesus, the Good Samaritan, you have shown us your love in our own flesh, love of God and love of neighbor.

Open our eyes, then, that we may always see how near is your word, and how near is our neighbor.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

REFLECTION

"Where there is love and wisdom, there is neither fear nor ignorance. Where there is patience and humility, there is neither anger nor annoyance. Where there is poverty and joy, there is neither cupidity nor avarice. Where there is peace and contemplation, there is neither care nor restlessness. Where there is fear of God to guard the dwelling, there no enemy can enter. Where there is mercy and prudence, there is neither excess nor harshness."

St. Francis of Assisi

~ Reflection for 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~

The Good Samaritan is a gospel with which we are all familiar. Even when we hear the phrase 'Good Samaritan' we automatically think of someone who does a good and kind deed for someone who is in need. But as always, when Jesus first told this parable, it was a very radical and dangerous point that he was making.

So, who is my neighbor today? My neighbor is far more than the person who lives near or next to me. My neighbor is anyone who is in need. It's that simple and that challenging! Every day in so many ways, we meet people who desperately need our help. How we respond is our choice. We can be like the priest and Levite; we can cross to the other side and ignore them. We can close our eyes and hearts to them. Or, like the Samaritan, we can go out of our way to help them in whatever way we can.

My neighbor is anyone who is in need. St. James reminds us; 'If we see one of our brothers or sisters who is in need of clothes or food and do not have enough to live on, and we say, I wish you well...without giving them the necessities to live, what good is that? It is the same with faith, if good deeds do not go with it, it is quite dead.'

Lord, When I see someone who needs (my) help, may I be moved with compassion. May I reach to help them; may I do what I can to care for them in whatever way I can, no matter how small I think it is.

Br Michael Moore OMI

REFLEXION

"Donde hay amor y sabiduría, no hay miedo ni ignorancia. Donde hay paciencia y humildad, no hay enojo ni molestia. Donde hay pobreza y alegría no hay codicia ni avaricia. Donde hay paz y contemplación, no hay preocupación ni inquietud. Donde hay temor para guardar la morada la morada, no enemigo que pueda entrar. Donde hay misericordia y prudencia, no hay excesos ni dureza."

LECTURAS, REFLEXIONES Y ORACIONES

Lecturas Dominicales En Una Palabra

PRIMERA LECTURA Deuteronomio 30:10-14

Moisés animó a las personas que siguieran la ley del Señor su Dios con todo su corazón y su alma. Este mandamiento no es "misterioso y remoto sino "ya está en nuestros labios y nuestros corazones"

SALMO RESPONSORIAL 69:14,17,30-31,33-34,36,37

Vuélvete al Señor en tu necesidad, y tu vivirás

SEGUNDA LECTURA Colosenses 1:15-20

Cristo Jesús es la nueva imagen de Dios, antes que todo existiera, Él ya estaba presente. En Él reside todo el poder de restaurar, el Dios de todas las cosas: en el cielo y en la Tierra, visible e invisible.

LECTURA DEL EVANGELIO Lucas 10:25-37

Un maestro de la ley le preguntó a Jesús que una persona debía de hacer para ganar la vida eterna. Jesús le recordó el mandamiento de amar a Dios y al prójimo, el hombre preguntó "¿Quién es mi prójimo?" Jesús le respondió contándole la parábola del Buen Samaritano.

Rincón de Oración

El mandamiento que Tú nos diste, Oh Señor nuestro Dios, ni es muy duro ó distante. Porque en Jesús, el buen Samaritano, tu nos ha mostrado Tú amor en nuestra propia carne, amor de Dios y amor de hermano.

Abre nuestros ojos, así podremos ver siempre que tan cerca está Tú palabra, y que tan cerca está nuestro hermano.

Te lo pedimos a través de Nuestro Señor Jesús Cristo, Tú hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

FOCUS

Nosotros no estamos llamados de perseguir asuntos espirituales e ignorar a las personas, porque es sirviendo a los demás que servimos a Dios.
