READINGS, REFLECTIONS AND PRAYERS

SUNDAY READINGS IN A WORD

FIRST READING

Wisdom 9:13-18b

No one understands heaven or earth completely, but God sends wisdom and the Holy Spirit to light up the paths of those who search for the way.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 90:3-4,5-6,12-13,14 & 17

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

SECOND READING

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

While Paul was in prison, he begged Philemon to receive back the runaway slave, Onesimus, as a beloved brother and partner in Christ.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 14: 25-33

Jesus taught his followers the hard lesson of the cross: good accounting, careful planning, anticipating changes, decision making and finishing the job.

FOCUS

We are called constantly to renew our commitment to the Lord and free ourselves from the imprisonment of the material world. It is only by the grace of God that we can live faithful lives.

PRAYER CORNER

You have given us, O God, your only Son, our dearest treasure, and he has challenged us to give our all if we would be disciples.

Let the extravagance of your gift call forth from us a love beyond cost or measure; let your Son's self-sacrificing death urge us to carry our cross each day and follow in his footsteps.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

REFLECTION

“Do as the storekeeper does with his merchandise; make profit on every article. Suffer not the loss of the tiniest fragment of the true cross. It may only be the sting of a fly or the point of a pin that annoys you; it may be the little eccentricities of a neighbor, some unintentional slight, the insignificant loss of a penny, some little restlessness of a soul, a slight physical weakness, a light pain in your limbs. Make profit on every article as the grocer does, and you will soon be wealthy in God.”

St. Louis de Montfort

Become A Catholic

The Parish of St. Charles Borromeo, Resurrection and All Saints welcomes men and women who are not currently Roman Catholic to join our Church. This note is an outreach to several groups of people who visit our Churches at St. Charles Borromeo or Resurrection Chapel for worship.

Some non-Catholics attend our Sunday Mass with a friend or with a Spouse who is Roman Catholic. A few have been doing this regularly for many years. If you are Christian but not Catholic or if you are not Christian, you are welcome to have a conversation with me, Fr. Anthony Iroh or with one of our Deacons about becoming a Christian or about joining our Church.

There have been a few teenagers who have asked about becoming Catholic. You are certainly welcome to have a conversation with us about what it means to believe in Jesus Christ and what it means to be Catholic.

Before anyone thinks that she or he would not be welcomed as a Christian or a Catholic, please take the time to speak to one of the members of our clergy.

Si usted es cristiano pero no católico ó si no es cristiano, es más que bienvenido de tener una conversación conmigo, P. Anthony Iroh ó con uno de nuestros diácono sobre convertirse en cristiano o unirse a nuestra Iglesia.

Ha habido algunos adolescentes que han preguntado acerca de convertirse en católicos. Sin duda, puede conversar con nosotros sobre lo que significa creer en Jesucristo y lo que significa ser católico.
