What legacy will you leave? What objects do you have that you plan to pass down in your family? Jewelry? Perhaps a punch bowl or a vase? We are often urged to make arrangements for the material possessions we have accumulated in this life to be passed on to others. We appreciate and cherish objects and the accompanying stories passed down to us. Through these, we provide for future generations and we connect with our past.

So, what about matters of faith and the spirit? What is the spiritual heritage that was passed on to you? For example, who taught you to pray? What is your favorite hymn? What spiritual legacy would you like to leave?

The Spiritual Legacy Guide© provides an easy way to document aspects of your faith life for posterity. You will find it on the Church's website. You may fill it out and give a copy to a relative for safe keeping. If you are a registered parishioner of St. Charles Borromeo and would like the Church to keep a copy of your completed Spiritual Legacy Guide© on file you will be able to do so. If you are interested, you will also be able to state your preferences for a Catholic funeral. To access the Spiritual Legacy Guide, go to the Church home page. <https://schrchurch.org>.

Thanksgiving Pantry: Simple yet Outstanding

Our Parish should be extremely proud of the work of the St. Vincent de Paul Society (at St. Charles) and the Fr. Creavin Pantry (at Resurrection) for the outstanding work done in Feeding Our Neighbors and Parishioners for Thanksgiving. Both Pantries addressed the reality of the Coronavirus Pandemic by limiting the scale of the Thanksgiving Food giveaway. Although there were many people who signed up for Thanksgiving groceries, the Pantries limited the number of Turkeys and replaced them with gift cards which could be redeemed in local area Food Markets. In addition, each family received groceries to round out the holiday meal. The Pantries also limited the number of volunteers who were needed for Food distribution. In the end the entire assembly and distribution process was made simpler than ever before. The restrictions placed upon our Pantries by the Coronavirus have taught us something about simplicity which we should use in less restricted times.

Hope, Even in the Pandemic

The Coronavirus Pandemic has certainly affected every aspect of our New York life. At the moment things affecting our social lives together are getting somewhat worse rather than better because the incidence of coronavirus infection, and even deaths, are increasing.

We are more than fortunate in our Parish, we are blessed that groups of the lay members of the Church continue, nevertheless, to bear witness to the saving power of the God of Jesus Christ in the midst of suffering. The following is list of lay-run Parish ministries who are active in our Parish on a weekly basis for the benefit of our Parishioners and our neighbors:

Social Justice Ministry (addressing civic responsibility, racism, community violence, fairness) Ms Tanya Douglas— Socialjustice@scbrchurch.org

New Media Ministry (addressing how to take our Church message about Jesus Christ beyond 141st Street and 151st Street) Ms Danielle Beckford— mediaministry@scbrchurch.org

St. Vincent de Paul Society (addressing need of neighbors who are hungry and homeless and in need of clothing) Yollette Green-- yolie721@gmail.com

P. Gregory Chisholm~ Mensaje del Párroco

Despensa de Acción de Gracias: simple pero excepcional

Nuestra parroquia debe estar extremadamente orgullosa del trabajo de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl (en San Carlos) y el P. Creavin Pantry (en Resurrección) por el excelente trabajo realizado en Alimentar a nuestros vecinos y feligreses para el Día de Acción de Gracias. Ambas despensas abordaron la realidad de la pandemia de coronavirus al limitar la escala del sorteo de comida de Acción de Gracias. Aunque hubo muchas personas que se inscribieron para los comestibles del Día de Acción de Gracias, las Despensas limitaron la cantidad de pavos y los reemplazaron con tarjetas de regalo que se podían canjear en los mercados de alimentos del área local. Además, cada familia recibió víveres para completar la comida festiva. Los Pantries (Despensas) también limitó la cantidad de voluntarios que se necesitaban para la distribución de alimentos. Al final, todo el proceso de montaje y distribución se hizo más sencillo que nunca. Las restricciones impuestas a nuestras despensas por el Coronavirus nos han enseñado algo sobre la simplicidad que deberíamos usar en tiempos menos restringidos.

Esperanza, incluso en la pandemia

La pandemia del coronavirus ciertamente ha afectado todos los aspectos de nuestra vida en Nueva York. En este momento, las cosas que afectan nuestra vida social en conjunto están empeorando un poco en lugar de mejorar porque la incidencia de la infección por coronavirus, e incluso las muertes, están aumentando. Somos más que afortunados en nuestra parroquia, tenemos la bendición de que grupos de miembros laicos de la Iglesia continúen, sin embargo, dando testimonio del poder salvador del Dios de Jesucristo en medio del sufrimiento. La siguiente es una lista de los ministerios parroquiales dirigidos por laicos que están activos en nuestra parroquia semanalmente para el beneficio de nuestros feligreses y vecinos:

Ministerio de Justicia Social (abordando responsabilidad cívica, racismo, violencia comunitaria, equidad) Sra. Tanya Douglas— Socialjustice@scbrchurch.org

Ministerio de Nuevos Medios (abordando cómo llevar el mensaje de nuestra Iglesia sobre Jesucristo más allá de la calle 141 y la calle 151) Sra. Danielle Beckford— mediaministry@scbrchurch.org

Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl (se ocupa de las necesidades de los vecinos que tienen hambre, están sin hogar y necesitan ropa) Yolette Green-- yolie721@gmail.com

Father Creavin Food Pantry (atendiendo las necesidades de alimentos de los vecinos en Resurrection) Ken Radcliffe-- kenneth.l@verizon.net

Proyecto Lazarus (abordando las necesidades de todos y cualquier persona que haya sufrido la pérdida de una persona que aman) Martha Sullivan-- marthaasullivan@gmail.com

Los Rosarians (animando la devoción semanal a Nuestra Santísima Madre) MaeRose Creque-- maerosecreque@aol.com

Grupo de oración de resurrección (animando la oración carismática semanal) apena@hostos.cuny.edu

The Gospel Lites (animando a la alabanza de Dios a través de la música y la oración) —Amy Campbell amymcam@gmail.com
