SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This week, our readings want us to reflect on the need to share our bread, treasure, blessings, and gifts with one another. Whatever we share with one another, the Lord multiplies a hundred-fold. Elisha insisted, “Give it to the people to eat.” And when they have eaten, there was some left over, as the Lord had said (2 Kgs 4: 43-44). When Jesus asked Philip, “Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?” Philip answered him, “Two hundred days’ wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little.” For the miracle to happen, it needed the generosity of the boy with five barley loaves and two fish to offer it. Jesus used the generosity of the boy to bless and feed the multitude of people. The scripture says, “When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, gather the fragments left over”. The readings remind us that we can rid the world of poverty if all men and women would learn to share their bread, their surplus, their treasures, their blessings, with one another.

Again, the readings remind us that nothing on this earth will truly satisfy the deepest longing and hunger we experience for God. A great multitude had gathered to hear Jesus, no doubt because they were hungry for the word of life. Jesus’ disciples wanted to send them away at the end of the day because they did not have the resources to feed them. Jesus the bread of life satisfied their hunger. Jesus is the true bread of heaven that can satisfy the deepest hunger we experience. The sign of the multiplication of the loaves when the Lord says the blessings, breaks, and distributes through his disciples prefigures the superabundance of the unique bread of his Eucharist or Lord’s Supper. When we receive from the Lord’s table, we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ, who makes us sharers in his body and blood. This supernatural food is healing for both body and soul and strength for our journey heavenward.

Pope Francis in declaring the First World Day for grandparents said, “I am with you always”. This new celebration in honor of all grandparents and the elderly, who are so important to our communities and our Church would need our time, our bread, our treasure, our sacrifices to make our grandparents feel loved and cherished. May we always remain close to the grandparents and the elderly in times of their weakness, pain, and loneliness of life. And may our grandparents always rejoice in their blessings and continue to be a blessing to their families and humanity. We also pray for the peaceful repose of all grandparents, that they may reap the fruits of eternal happiness with God in Heaven.

We remember our eleven young adult parishioners associated with the Pierre Toussaint Scholarship Program who are on their way to college or returning to college, that they will continue to be great ambassadors of our parish to the world.

The Delta Variant of Covid-19 was declared a “variant of concern” by the World Health Organization in May. It also made clear that this variant is more transmissible and causes more severe illness. Therefore, we continue to appeal to all parishioners to be cautious of this strain and to get vaccinated to protect themselves and others.

~ DECIMOSÉPTIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO ~

Esta semana, nuestras lecturas quieren que reflexionemos sobre la necesidad de compartir nuestro pan, tesoro, bendiciones y dones entre nosotros. Todo lo que compartimos unos con otros, el Señor lo multiplica por cien. Eliseo insistió: "Dáselo a la gente de comer". Y cuando terminaron de comer, sobró, como el Señor había dicho (2 Reyes 4: 43-44). Cuando Jesús le preguntó a Felipe: "¿Dónde podemos comprar suficiente comida para que coman?" Felipe le respondió: "El salario de doscientos días de comida no sería suficiente para que cada uno de ellos tuviera un poco". Para que ocurriera el milagro, se necesitó la generosidad del niño con cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados para ofrecerlo. Jesús usó la generosidad del niño para bendecir y alimentar a la multitud. La escritura dice: "Cuando se hubieron saciado, dijo a sus discípulos, recojan los pedazos que sobraron". Las lecturas nos recuerdan que podemos librar al mundo de la pobreza si todos los hombres y mujeres aprendieran a compartir su pan, sus excedentes, sus tesoros, sus bendiciones entre sí.

Una vez más, las lecturas nos recuerdan que nada en esta tierra satisfará verdaderamente el anhelo y el hambre más profundos que experimentamos por Dios. Una gran multitud se había reunido para escuchar a Jesús, sin duda porque tenían hambre de la palabra de vida. Los discípulos de Jesús querían despedirlos al final del día porque no tenían los recursos para alimentarlos. Jesús el pan de vida satisfizo su hambre. Jesús es el verdadero pan del cielo que puede satisfacer el hambre más profunda que experimentamos. El signo de la multiplicación de los panes cuando el Señor dice las bendiciones, parte y reparte a través de sus discípulos prefigura la sobreabundancia del pan único de su Eucaristía o

Cena del Señor. Cuando recibimos de la mesa del Señor, nos unimos a Jesucristo, quien nos hace partícipes de su cuerpo y sangre. Este alimento sobrenatural es sanador tanto para el cuerpo como para el alma y la fuerza para nuestro viaje hacia el cielo. El Papa Francisco, al declarar el Primer Día Mundial de los abuelos, dijo: "Estoy contigo siempre". Esta nueva celebración en honor a todos los abuelos y ancianos, que son tan importantes para nuestras comunidades y nuestra Iglesia, necesitaría nuestro tiempo, nuestro pan, nuestro tesoro, nuestros sacrificios para hacer que nuestros abuelos se sientan amados y apreciados.

Que estemos siempre cerca de los abuelos y los ancianos en los momentos de su debilidad, dolor y soledad de la vida. Y que nuestros abuelos siempre se regocijen en sus bendiciones y sigan siendo una bendición para sus familias y la humanidad. También oramos por el reposo pacífico de todos los abuelos, para que puedan cosechar los frutos de la felicidad eterna con Dios en el Cielo. Recordamos a nuestros once feligreses adultos jóvenes asociados con el Programa de Becas Pierre Toussaint que están en camino a la universidad o regresando a la universidad, que continuarán siendo grandes embajadores de nuestra parroquia ante el mundo. La variante Delta de Covid-19 fue declarada una "variante preocupante" por la Organización Mundial de la Salud en mayo. También dejó en claro que esta variante es más transmisible y causa una enfermedad más grave. Por lo tanto, seguimos haciendo un llamamiento a todos los feligreses para que sean cautelosos con esta cepa y se vacunen para protegerse a sí mismos y a los demás.
