Stewardship

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jubilee Year of Mercy.

During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis calls us to share with everyone the tender compassion of God that we ourselves have experienced. In today's Gospel, Luke uses a special Greek word conveying just such tenderness. In the other Gospels, Jesus calls the disciples to be "fishers," haleis, the same word that means catching fish with hooks or nets, to be killed and eaten. But Luke uses zogron, from zoe or "life," meaning "catch or gather people alive," as animal lovers capture without harming, rescue from "the wild" for a better life, and protect in aquarium or zoo, tenderly cared for by professionals committed to the creatures' well-being. So in Luke's vision—and Pope Francis' as well—we who have been "caught alive" by God's mercy ourselves are to become "missionaries of mercy" during this Jubilee Year of Mercy, rescuing fellow sinners from danger and gathering them into Jesus' community to enjoy fullness of life.

Pastoral Services Appeal 2016

To date, our parish has received 192 pledges totaling $103,281. We are most grateful for these pledges and are counting on the participation of all 3,700 families registered at St. Norbert. Each gift is precious and needed regardless of the amount. When we support the Pastoral Services Appeal, we not only make a donation, we make an investment—an investment in the lives of our brothers and sisters in need, and an investment in the future of our Church, ensuring that God's blessings will continue to flow in and through us.

St. Norbert Parish has been asked to support the Diocesan PSA by raising $151,000. We can accomplish this goal if we all do our part. As always, any funds that we raise over our goal will come back to the parish. We will use those funds to continue to pay off the debt that we owe on the Family & Youth Center. We have come a long way in paying that off and we currently owe only $230,000! It would be such a blessing to retire that debt completely this year!

You can find pledge envelopes in the pews, in the Ministry Center, or you can go to our parish website: www.stnorbertchurch.org and click on the PSA button to make your pledge online.

Every Pledge counts, and we are counting on EVERYONE to help!

A delicious catered lunch will be provided to all in attendance. Fasting and Abstinence for Catholics in the U.S.

During Lent, Catholics in the United States abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and on all the Fridays of Lent. They fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

To abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent means not to eat meat on those days. It does not include the omission of eggs or dairy products.

The required fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday involves eating only one full meal on those days. One or two smaller meals may be taken on those days, but may not total one full meal. The required fast does not allow eating anything between meals.

*All Catholics who have completed their fourteenth year are bound by the law of abstinence; all adults are bound by the law of fast up to the beginning of their sixtieth year.

Nevertheless, pastors and parents are to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance. ~Code of Canon Law, #1252

What was happening in the Fifth Century?

Augustine wrote extensively on the matters of grace and sin, developing the doctrine of Original Sin, inherited from Adam and Eve. He taught that all people were born with an inherent tendency toward sin, concupiscence, which could be overcome only by grace from God. Without God's grace, humanity was condemned and had no hope of salvation.

Not everyone agreed with Augustine, and among those was a monk named Pelagius. Although not absolutely certain, it appears that Pelagius was born in Roman Britain in or around 384 AD. Pelagius lived such an ascetical life of devotion that he was known as Pelagius the Pious, and even those who would become his theological opponents would describe him as saintly. However, his writings began to challenge the beliefs of the Church, and, especially as expanded after his death, became known as Pelagianism.

Pelagianism was unlike most of the previous heresies of Christianity. It had nothing to do with the Divine Essence, the relationships within the Trinity, or the Nature of Christ. This heresy had more to do with humans than with God. Augustine taught that mankind was totally corrupted by Original Sin which was inherited from one generation to the next, and could be saved only by divine grace, which was transformative. Pelagius, on the other hand, believed that human nature in its own essence had the ability to choose between good and evil. Pelagius did not deny that God's grace existed, and that it could be beneficial, but he, or at least his followers, taught that grace was unnecessary. A human being, by his or her own will without divine aid, could choose to do what was good, avoid what was evil, and achieve salvation.

This has far-reaching effects. Taken to extremes, as it did with those who followed Pelagius, it meant that the sacraments, including baptism, were unnecessary. In fact, Pelagianism later opposed the baptism of infants, since they were unable to commit personal sin, and denied Augustine's doctrine that Original Sin affects all persons and is inherited at conception. Pelagianism also denies that virtue and good works are done by the power of the Holy Spirit, but that a person's will can on its own discern and choose what is good. It denies that it is a human impossibility to avoid sin altogether and that grace is the only antidote to sin, as Augustine taught. At its most extreme, it even denies the need for a church at all, since human beings can achieve their own salvation without the assistance of God's grace or the sacraments of the church. The monk Pelagius himself was at the more moderate end of this spectrum of beliefs, but his followers expanded on these ideas, taking them to the point of heresy.

Pelagianism was first challenged at a local Council at Diospolis in 415 AD, but at that Council found to be within the bounds of Orthodoxy and permitted. It was again addressed, three years later, in 418 AD at another local Council held at Carthage in North Africa. At this council, Pelagianism was declared to be heretical and eight canons were established intended to contradict Pelagian teaching and provide clarity to the faithful. The Ecumenical Council of Ephesus in 431 AD ratified the decision of Carthage and the eight canons.

Augustine devoted more than twenty years writing against the teaching of Pelagius.

Another movement of a modified version of Pelagius' ideas rose up some time later and was known as semi-Pelagianism. Elements from this were still being debated at the time of the Protestant Reformation.

And, so the history of the Church continues...

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

Durante este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia, el Papa Francisco nos llama a compartir con cada uno la tierna compasión de Dios que nosotros mismos hemos experimentado. En el Evangelio de hoy, Lucas utiliza una interesante palabra en griego que conlleva dicha ternura. En los otros evangelios, Jesús llama a sus discípulos a ser pescadores “haleis”, una palabra que significa atrapar peces con ganchos o redes, para matarlos y comerlos. Pero Lucas usa la palabra “zogron” cuya raíz es “zoe” que significa vida; esta palabra que usa Lucas significa “atrapar o reunir personas vivas”, así como las personas que gustan de atrapar animales sin lastimarlos, rescatarlos de la “vida salvaje” para darles una vida mejor y protegerlos en acuarios o zoológicos, tiernamente cuidados por profesionales comprometidos al bienestar de esas criaturas. Así que en la visión de Lucas y también la del Papa Francisco, nosotros que hemos sido “atrapados vivos” por la misericordia de Dios nosotros mismos nos convertimos en “misioneros de la misericordia” durante este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia, rescatando a nuestros prójimos pecadores del peligro y reuniéndolos en la comunidad de Jesús para disfrutar de la plenitud de la vida.

Campaña para los Servicios Pastorales 2016

A la fecha, nuestra parroquia ha recibido 192 promesas dando un total de $103,281. Estamos muy agradecidos por estas promesas y contamos con la participación de las 3,700 familias registradas en la parroquia de San Norberto. Cada donativo es valioso y necesitado sin importar la cantidad. Cuando apoyamos la Campaña para los Servicios Pastorales, no sólo estamos haciendo una donación, estamos haciendo una inversión— una inversión en la vida de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en necesidad, y una inversión en el futuro de nuestra Iglesia, asegurando que las bendiciones de Dios continúen fluyendo en nosotros y a través de nosotros.

A la parroquia de San Norberto se le ha pedido que apoye a la PSA recaudando $151,000. Podemos lograr esta meta si todos hacemos nuestra parte. Como siempre, todos los fondos que excedan nuestra meta serán devueltos a la parroquia. Usaremos esos fondos para continuar pagando el adeudo que tenemos con la diócesis sobre el Centro Familiar y Juvenil. ¡Ya hemos recorrido un largo camino para terminar de pagar nuestra deuda y a la fecha únicamente debemos $230,000! ¡Sería una gran bendición que pudiéramos terminar de pagar esa deuda este año!

Pueden encontrar los sobres para las promesas en las bancas, en el Centro de Ministerios, o pueden ir al sitio de nuestra parroquia: www.stnorbertychurch.org y hacer clic en el botón que dice PSA para hacer su promesa en línea.

¡Cada promesa cuenta, y nosotros contamos con TODOS para ayudar!
