Stewardship

Reflecting on God's Word

Going to movies these days can be an immersion in blood. I go to movies fairly regularly and friends in the parish will ask me my reactions now and again. Often over the years, I have found myself responding, "It's well made, but . . . it's pretty bloody." Or "I'm not sure if you want to see all this bloodshed."

It might be surprising to listen to the three readings that all have to do not just with shedding blood, but sprinkling it on people, as Moses did out in the desert, and presenting Jesus as the great high priest who goes into the sanctuary bearing his own blood, which will "cleanse our consciences from dead works" (Hebrews 9:14) so we can worship the living God.

And then there is the more familiar reading of Mark's account of the Last Supper, when Jesus tells his disciples to drink his blood. Perhaps we have gotten used to hearing these words since they are spoken at every Mass. But if you stop and think about it they are rather shocking.

In the biblical world blood is sacred, blood is life. From the beginning animals were offered in sacrifice. But with the offering of the body and blood of Christ, a new relationship has been entered into with our God. Through Jesus' gift of his body and blood, salvation was won for us and is present to us when we gather in his name to praise the Father.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Ir al cine en estos tiempos puede ser una experiencia de inmersión en sangre. Yo voy al cine con bastante regularidad y mis amigos en la parroquia me piden de vez en cuando mi opinión. A menudo en el transcurso de los años he respondido: "Está bien hecha, pero . . . es muy sangrienta". O si no: "No estoy seguro que quieras ver todo este derramamiento de sangre".

Pudiera sorprender que las tres lecturas que escucharemos hoy tienen que ver no sólo con la efusión de sangre, sino también con rociarla sobre la gente, como hizo Moisés en el desierto; y después se nos presenta a Jesús como el sumo sacerdote que entra en el santuario dando su propia sangre, que "purificará nuestra conciencia de las obras que conducen a la muerte" (Hebreos 9:14) para que podamos dar culto al Dios vivo y verdadero.

Y además tenemos la lectura más familiar de la narración de la Última Cena por Marcos en donde Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que beban su sangre. Quizás nos hemos acostumbrado a oír estas palabras, ya que se pronuncian en cada Misa. Pero si les prestamos una cuidadosa atención veremos que son bien estremecedoras.

En el mundo bíblico la sangre es sagrada, la sangre es vida. Desde los meros comienzos los animales eran ofrecidos en sacrificio. Pero con el ofrecimiento del cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo ha comenzado una nueva relación con nuestro Dios. Por medio del don que Jesús nos ha dado con su cuerpo y sangre la salvación fue ganada para nosotros y la tenemos presente cuando nos reunimos en su nombre para alabar al Padre.

Give the Former St. Callistus Playground Equipment New Life

The playground equipment at the former home of St. Callistus School in Garden Grove has been removed by Diocese of Orange volunteers and will be sent to a school and orphanage run by the Poor Clare Sisters outside of Tijuana, Mexico. The St. Callistus school moved to the Christ Cathedral campus in 2013, becoming the Christ Cathedral Academy. The Diocese wants to ensure this equipment is provided to children that would never be able to afford such recreational equipment.

Donations to help cover the costs of shipping the playground equipment to Mexico can be made here: <https://www.rcbo.org/give-the-former-st-callistus-playground-equipment-a-new-life/>
