Dear parishioners,

I'm sure you have heard that I've been out of commission since Holy Week. I have been under a doctor's care since that time. On Wednesday it became apparent that things were not progressing as planned. I contacted my doctor and he ordered me to the emergency room. I was admitted Wednesday evening.

I am undergoing a battery of tests and have been given medications. I'm on the mend and the doctor expects me to be released from the hospital this coming Monday.

This evening I heard a rumor circulating that I am on a ventilator, and I want to assure you this is completely false. The main reason for being admitted to the hospital was due to dehydration. The staff at the hospital has done a tremendous job and my heartfelt gratitude goes out to them.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support and now I ask you to join me in praying for the doctors, nurses, grocery clerks, delivery services and so many more professions working on the front-line to keep our world moving forward.

God bless,

Msgr. John
