OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Faith Community, Baptized into Jesus Christ, formed by Word and Sacrament, and Empowered by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Seek to be a visible sign of God’s love. We seek to build the Kingdom of God by: Using our unique gifts to minister to one another, Welcoming all and caring for those in need, Teaching our faith to others and Uniting in worship as a family with the Body of Christ.

DEAR HOLY EASTER PEOPLE OF GOD:

Today’s gospel’s ending, Jesus heralds his gift to humanity: “I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly.” This is total self-giving. It’s enshrined in a mother’s loving heart. Reflect on this story:

One night, my mother, sister and I were sitting at the dining room table, when she said, “I really need a new winter coat.” I looked at my sister, and both of us knew she had gotten a new coat two weeks ago. I asked, “Mom, what happened to your new coat?” She told us about a woman who stopped by to see her during the week. It was snowing heavily and very cold then. As my mother and the woman shared a cup of coffee, my mother realized that her friend had no coat and shivering. So my mother went into her closet and gave her the new coat. I said, “Mom, you have lots of coats. Why did you give her your new one?” My mother quietly said, “Are we not expected to give the best of what we have?”

“Are we not expected to give the best of what we have?” The mother’s generosity is a reflection of the Good Shepherd’s total self-giving to humanity. That gift is his most precious divine coat – his LIFE! That’s Jesus best gift to us. He offered it on the cross for all of us. It is freely given, and not motivated by any notion of self-interest, but foremost, it’s a product of Jesus’ unconditional love. Jesus’ total self-giving establishes a benchmark on how we can become “likeness and image” of the Good Shepherd.

Today, let us go down to our knees in front of the Good Shepherd and sincerely pray that, as his “image and likeness,” his holiness will become our “coat” to shield us from the COVID-19 death-threats:

Most merciful and Triune God, we come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear. We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.
We place before you COVID-19 present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.
Bring wisdom to doctors. Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.
Stabilize our communities. Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts. Fill us with confidence in your care.

Good Shepherd,
we trust in you! Amen.

Easter Season’s blessings!

SAINT PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

Call Philip the gospel’s “Answer Man.” “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Nathaniel asked Philip, who had proclaimed Jesus “the one about whom Moses wrote in the law, and also the prophets” (John 1:45). Jesus asked Philip, “Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?” (John 6:5). Greeks brought Philip their request: “We would like to see Jesus” (John 12:21). Philip’s answer to each question: bring people to Jesus! At the Last Supper, finally, Philip had a request of his own: “Show us the Father!” (John 14:8). Jesus had three last questions for Philip: “You still don’t know me? How can you ask that? Don’t you believe?” And an answer: “I am in the Father and the Father is in me” (John 14:10). Today’s James is not John’s brother, Zebedee’s son, but, tradition says, author of the New Testament Letter of James, who died praying for his murderers in Jesus’ words: “Forgive them, for they know not what they do.” Few historical details for either saint, but lessons aplenty: Bring every question we have and everybody we meet to Jesus; be, as James’ letter challenges, “doers of the word and not hearers only” (James 1:22).

IN NEED OF A SHEPHERD

For a while it was very fashionable to own pigs as pets. The publicity surrounding these creatures informed us that they were—contrary to their popular image—very clean animals, and also quite smart. Sad to say, sheep will most likely never enjoy this sort of domestic vogue. They are neither clean nor smart and are largely defenseless when left on their own, even in large numbers. The biblical image of us as the flock of sheep is not a particularly flattering one. Sheep without a shepherd are truly sad, because they most likely will perish either from their inability to fend for themselves or from their lack of defenses against predators. Placing ourselves in the heart of this unflattering image can reinforce our faith. Until we come to a profound realization of how much we need a shepherd, we cannot appreciate how deeply blessed we are to have been given a Shepherd, one who laid down his life for us and was raised to life eternal in the Spirit, so he might guide us and we might follow him in faith forever.

We like the idea of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, but we seldom like the idea of being sheep—people who blindly follow anyone or anything.

However, that’s not what sheep and shepherds are like in real life. In cultures where sheep are still herded by individuals, a deep bond and trust exist between the shepherd and his flock. The sheep know and trust their shepherd so intimately that all he has to do is call them by name. And he knows each of his sheep so well that he has given them individual names! That’s the kind of relationship Jesus is talking about in today’s Gospel … a deep bond of love that enables us to trust that Jesus is leading us on the path that leads to abundant life. He tells us it is through listening to him and his voice that we can truly find the green pasture and still water that we all desire to have.

But how are we to know and hear our shepherd’s voice? The only way we can hear him is by finding some quiet time away from all the noise of life so that we can concentrate on prayer. This doesn’t necessarily mean the formal reciting of words, but simply being in the presence of the One who loves us. We need to silence ourselves in order that we can begin to discern the small, still whisper in our hearts. It is only when we take that time that we are able to enter into the kind of relationship with God that gives us abundant life here, and in the next world to come.

DIGGING DEEPER FOR DISCUSSION

members can watch the short “Opening the Word” VIDEO free at sptacc.formed.org

Reflect on these following questions with a friend or family:

- When we began our study today, we talked about what our culture thinks it means to be called a “sheep.”... What do you think that Jesus meant when he said he was our shepherd?
- What does the presenter say is essential if we are to hear God’s voice?
- Have you ever had a time when you sensed God’s voice—maybe not an audible voice, but you sensed him speaking to you in your soul?

PRAYER: Imagine you are with the disciples as Jesus begins to talk. He looks directly at you and says, “Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep.” What does this mean to you? Do you see yourself as one of Jesus’s sheep? How is he your gate? Now hear him say to you, “Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.” What kind of pasture does your soul long for?

RESOLUTION: Set aside some time this week and turn off your computer, your cell phone, and any other electronic devices. Go into a private place where you can meditate on what it means to have Jesus as your shepherd.

Cuando Pedro enfrenta a la multitud en Pentecostés, él fue animado por el Espíritu Santo y proclamó apasionadamente la verdad de Jesucristo a aquellos que se reunieron para escucharlo. Seguramente había algo en él que no estaba seguro de que esperar, sabiendo que unas semanas antes, las multitudes habían coreado “crucifíquenlo” cuando Jesús estaba sentenciado a una muerte cruel e injusta. Las personas que escucharon a Pedro se conmovieron por su testimonio, obligados a reconocer su pecaminosidad y a aceptar el anuncio de la salvación por medio de Jesucristo como Buena Nueva, el Evangelio que lo cambia todo.

JESÚS SALVA

Se honesto contigo mismo; ¿te has ido por el mal camino? ¿Has caído en la tentación o en la debilidad? ¿Sientes que algunas veces necesitas a alguien para ayudarte a volver a encarrilar tu vida? Muchas personas podrían responder sí a cualquiera de estas preguntas. Como personas de fe, sabemos que Jesús entiende las dificultades que enfrentamos y da su vida para salvarnos de nuestra humana fragilidad. El Señor sabe que necesitamos ayuda para vivir como el Pueblo de Dios en el mundo. Hay personas y fuerzas que nos inducen al error, que ofrecen un camino que por un tiempo parece atractivo, incluso aunque no nos lleve al verdadero camino de vida, el amor y la paz. Podemos rápidamente ser disuadidos y distraídos del camino de la santidad. Fácilmente perdemos nuestro camino, con señuelos de las trampas de las posesiones materiales, la riqueza o una posición social. Jesús es nuestro único camino verdadero, la puerta que nos guía a un significado y a la paz en nuestro tiempo terrenal y para la vida eterna.
