Dear Holy People of God:

In today’s gospel, Jesus said to the crowd: “… a man... sowed good seed in the field!” (Mt 13:24)

We’re the good seeds! And good seeds can always conquer any adversity in life. Even the closure of the Church! Masses have been suspended before, but we painstakingly hope for the Church’s re-opening. Our prayers have been answered. Although the “re-opening” was restrictive, we acknowledged it as a moment of grace, and a season of recreating our hearts as a bank of a vibrant faith. Grace after grace have been showered upon us. It’s like the song, “Rain drops keep falling on my head…”

And second closure comes! Immediate reactions are varied: some say, “AGAIN?”; others say, “it’s Calvary, it’s Crucifixion,” still others lament, “it’s painful, when will this end”; and some will cry out, “Enough is enough!”

But we’re good seeds! We can weather this together, we can win this together. This is just a temporary setback. We are at our faith’s best when adversities come our way. We become stronger! You know why? Because we are created God’s image and likeness! We’re not a hybrid-seed but we’re life-forces begotten with the DNA of a loving God. We’re not genetically altered; we’re God’s beloved sons (daughters) to whom I am well pleased.” (Mt 3:17) With that identity and honor running in our veins, God’s heart becomes our holy shelter forever!

Governor Newsom’s order is for us to “shelter in place.” There is only one letter difference between the instruction to “Shelter in place” and “Sheltering place.” That letter is “g!” “God” begins with a letter “g”. You add the letter “g” in “Shelter in place,” and it will read “Sheltering place.” God is our Sheltering place.

As God is our Sheltering Place during this second closure of our Church, let us make the Psalm 91: 1,9,16, as our everyday prayer:

You who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, Say to the Lord, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

Because you have the Lord for your refuge; you have made the Most High your stronghold. No evil shall befall you, nor shall afflictions come near your tent, for to his angels he has given you, that they will guard you in all your ways.

I will deliver [you] and glorify [you]: with length of days I will gratify [you] and will show [you] my salvation. Amen.

Remember, as “good seeds,” God promises you, “See, upon the palms of my hands, I have written your name” (Is 49:16)

Blessings,

Fr. Romy, Seleccion, MS, Pastor

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Those who are just must be kind.

— Wisdom 12:19
On Monday, July 13, 2020, the Governor of California issued an order calling for a second closure of Houses of Worship – Effectively cancelling ALL sacramental celebrations.

The Emergency Operations Center of the Diocese of San Bernardino has reviewed the Governor’s order and made their recommendations to Bishop Barnes.

In light of the Governor’s order and at the recommendation of the Emergency Operations Center of the Diocese of San Bernardino, the following will be implemented immediately:

Effective July 13, 2020, all churches in the Diocese of San Bernardino are close.

Let us once again find hope and strength in the words of St. Paul in his letter to the Romans: “I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.” (Romans 8:18)

Thankful for your ongoing prayers, support and generosity, we are able to continue our broadcast Masses on weekends and weekdays.

It is our hope, that as we continue to move forward, we may be able to bring you additional spiritual experiences from the parish.

Wherever we are, wherever we may find ourselves, let us continue to pray with and for one another.

May we always find victory in the Cross of Christ.

Fr. Mike

Great PLATES DELIVERED for SENIORS
TO ACCESS SERVICES: 888.743.1485

On April 24, 2020, Governor Gavin Newsom announced the launch of a first-in-the-nation Great Plates Delivered program. The program is designed to support adults 65 and older and adults 60-64 who are at high-risk from COVID-19, in staying home and staying healthy by delivering three (3) nutritious meals a day, and also provide essential economic stimulus to local businesses and workers struggling to stay afloat during the COVID crisis. The following Frequently Asked Questions provide guidance to any individual or local community impacted by this program and choosing to participate.

Program Overview
How does the program work?
Aging and Adult Services will work with multiple local food providers to deliver three (3) nutritious daily meals to qualified individuals enrolled in the program. Each community conducts outreach to senior centers and senior populations to enroll qualified individuals in need. The program is locally managed to ensure the needs of diverse communities within California are addressed individually.

Who qualifies for enrollment into the program?
• Individuals who are 65 or older, or 60-64 and at high-risk as defined by the CDC, including:
  • Individuals who are COVID-19 positive (as documented by a state/local public health official or medical health professional),
  • Individuals who have been exposed to COVID-19 (as documented by a state/local public health official or medical health professional), or
  • Individuals with an underlying condition.
• Participants must be currently receiving assistance from other state or federal nutrition assistance programs
• Participants must earn no more than 600% of the federal poverty limit
• Individuals must affirm an inability to prepare or obtain meals

How long will the program run?
The program runs until June 10, 2020, which is the timeframe currently approved by FEMA. The state intends on requesting an extension for the Great Plates Delivered program.

Enrollment
How can I enroll into the program if I believe I qualify?
Aging and Adult Services will establish a streamlined process to enter into the program and will conduct a screening process to ensure individuals meet program criteria.

Meal Delivery
Will I be charged for meals delivered?
No, meals are delivered free of charge through this program.

How many meals may be delivered per day?
Each individual is allowed a maximum of three (3) nutritious meals per day.

How are meals selected and delivered?
Aging and Adult Services determines how meals are selected and delivered. Meals meet specific nutritional requirements. Individuals delivering meals are subject to background checks.

This week we read three of Jesus’s most famous parables: the sower and the seed, the mustard seed, and the yeast in the three measures of flour.

What do all of these have in common? You might say they are stories about faith and how it grows and develops. This is correct, but they also have something else in common: the theme of patience.

The farmer who sows the seed has to wait until both the wheat and the weeds mature before he can begin to sort them out. If he uproots the plants too early, he risks destroying his crop along with the weeds. The mustard seed, which is miniscule, eventually becomes a huge bush. But patience is required for the seed to take root and reach maturity. Finally, the woman who kneads the yeast into the flour has to wait for the bread to rise before she can bake it.

In all three cases, it’s necessary to wait until you see the final result. You may know that there will be a crop of wheat, a large bush, and loaves of bread, but it takes time and patient waiting before you can see them. You have to trust in the process.

The same is often true with our desire to share the Faith. We want people to embrace the Gospel right away; we want an immediate, enthusiastic response to the Good News of salvation. It didn’t work like that in the time of Jesus, and it doesn’t today. Most of the time (there are always exceptions), we have to sow the seed or mix in the yeast—and then sit back and wait. No matter how much we might want to rush things, we need patience as we wait for faith to develop … from tiny seeds and grains of yeast.

DIGGING DEEPER FOR DISCUSSION: FORMED members can watch the short “Opening the Word” VIDEO free at sptacc.formed.org. Reflect on these following questions with a friend or family:

- What is the common theme in all three of Jesus’s parables in this week’s Gospel?
- Which one of the three parables in today’s Gospel (sower and seed, mustard seed, woman with bread) do you relate to the most? Explain how the parable might apply to your life?

P RAYER: Picture yourself in a kitchen. There is a large bowl of flour on the counter and a measure of yeast. Mix the yeast into the flour. Now imagine Jesus says to you, “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast.” What thought comes to mind? Is there a question you would like to ask Jesus about this? What does he say?

RESOLUTION: Think of at least two ways you might be “yeast” for the Kingdom in your family or your work. How important is it to you to be that yeast?

Reflections reprinted here with permission from Augustine Institute.

Vivimos en un mundo instantáneo de microondas, comida rápida entregada en ventanillas y en una sociedad deseable en la que las cosas se vuelven obsoletas tan rápido, por lo que el mensaje de hoy es muy extraño. En todas las lecturas de hoy y especialmente la del Evangelio, vemos la transformación, pero no es algo que ocurra de la noche a la mañana, ni tampoco pasa sin esfuerzo. Nos encontramos con parábolas de un Dios paciente y amoroso que puede ver un resultado positivo al final y está dispuesto a esperar, a alimentarnos y ayudarnos a todos a llegar allí. Las semillas del sembrador necesitan de un tiempo para crecer y de cuidados. Para preparar el pan, se debe amasar la masa y esperar pacientemente. Al plantar una semilla de mostaza, algo tan pequeño que produce grandiosos resultados, pero solo hasta que cumpla un período de inactividad y espera.

¿CUÁL ES NUESTRA LEVADURA?

En nuestro propio crecimiento, por lo general algo nos estimula y nos llama a cambiar. Para una pareja joven que descubre que están esperando un bebé, esto puede ser el impulso para “crecer” y fortalecer sus hábitos de gastos. Para otros, un ataque al corazón o una enfermedad terminal y prolongada puede llamar a un despertar y dar una segunda oportunidad en la vida. Perder un trabajo, una esposa o sobrevivir a un accidente automovilístico puede significar que es la hora de “volver a empezar”. ¿No es asombroso darse cuenta de que estamos bendecidos con un Dios cariñoso y amoroso que pasará por todos estos cambios en nuestras vidas, que nos está engatusando para que sean mejores? Aquí hay un Dios que no se desconecta a causa de nuestros pecados, sino que está dispuesto a esperar, clasificar y “reunir el trigo.” Seamos agradecidos por este regalo de amor misericordioso. Recordemos la sencilla oración que está en el salmo 86:15-16 “Mas tú, Señor, eres un Dios compasivo y lleno de piedad, / lento para la ira y abundante en misericordia y fidelidad. / Vuélvete hacia mí, y tenme piedad; / da tu poder a tu siervo, / y salva al hijo de tu sierva.”
