DEAR HOLY PEOPLE OF GOD:

Fellow pilgrims, today’s gospel, Jesus tells us the drama of forgiveness that we should practice in our lives:

Peter asked Jesus, “Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus answered, “I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.”

The times we must forgive is told to us in number, “not seven times but seventy-seven times.” In other words, it’s “always” or “as long as it takes.” Jesus went beyond what was required by law, he removed all barriers that blocked the proactive act of forgiveness. For Jesus, forgiveness must emanate from the heart. It’s an act of love and must be unconditional. As long as the heart is beating, forgiveness is actively blessing; it never dies and it never ends.

A product of forgiveness is “reconciliation-conversion.” Reconciliation is the charism of the Congregation of the Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette (MS). It’s a Religious Community that myself and Fr. Joseph belong. It’s an international religious congregation of priests and brothers, and was founded in response to the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary at La Salette, France on September 19, 1846, to two children: Maximin Giraud and Melanie Calvat.

The Blessed Virgin Mary – Our Lady of La Salette, has given us a message: one of RECONCILIATION - a call to conversion, which we continue to spread in 25 countries scattered around the world.

In preparation for the 175th Anniversary of the Apparition of the Blessed Mother at La Salette, which will be on September 19, 2021, our Congregation proclaims September 19, 2020 - September 19, 2021 as “Marian Year.” It’s a year-long celebration with the theme: MARY, WAY of HOPE and PEACE AMONG CULTURES. This historic event shall be celebrated in a spirit of synodality with the La Salette Family [the world over] and with the Bishops of the diocese where we work. We hope that this “Marian Year” will become a “true source of grace for a spiritual, charismatic, pastoral and vocational renewal for every La Salette and the people we serve.”

Our local celebration (La Salette California Cluster) will be on September 19, 2020, at Our Lady of Lourdes in Montclair, at 6:00 p.m.

To join us in this “MARIAN YEAR,” is to take an effort to practice in our lives the “Eight Beatitudes of Reconciliation”:

- Reconciliation isn’t easy; it takes time and strength of character. Reconciliation isn’t an occasional act; it’s a constant attitude. Reconciliation isn’t denial; it’s saying, “I am sorry, I love you.”
- Reconciliation isn’t destructive; it’s rebuilding broken relationship.
- Reconciliation ensures conversion that leads to transfiguration.
- Reconciliation values the people rather than their faults.
- Reconciliation is giving people chance to create new beginnings.
- Reconciliation is allowing us to love forever-more.

A reconciling blessings to all!

We are continuing our Ministry Center Building Fund. Planning for the future needs and utilization of the center is under review.
Thank you for supporting the Ministry Center Fund!!

SECOND COLLECTION

THIS WEEKEND there will be a Second for the 2020 Fall Combined Collection (FCC).
We are called to be the Light of Hope! We can do that in such a beautiful way each fall by supporting a special Collection known as the Fall Combined Collection. Our efforts to reach out to parishioners for support of several worthy causes help us to live out the Works of Mercy and give to something bigger than ourselves. The four worthy ministries that benefit are:
- Church Among Black & Native Americans
- Church in Latin America
- Church in Africa
- Catholic Home Missions.
Make Checks Payable to:
St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church or Diocese of San Bernardino.
Thank you for your generosity.

CENSUS 2020

With the deadline to respond to the Census set to end on September 30th, Bishop Barnes and Bishop Rojas would like to remind you all to please take the time to complete the Census. This can be done by visiting: 2020Census.gov
Participating in the Census is part of our call to practicing Faithful Citizenship. Should you have any questions of concerns, contact Abraham Joven, Director of the Office of Advocacy, at 909-475-5351.

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Forgive your neighbor’s injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.
— Sirach 28:2
REVISED OUTDOOR MASS SCHEDULE – MINISTRY CENTER

The Sunday, 7:00 a.m. Mass at the Ministry Center, relies on the “natural canopy” of the large magnolia trees to provide adequate shade for the Mass. However, as the day progresses, the shade from the magnolia trees begins to disappear, allowing both direct sunlight and the heat of the day to significantly affect this area from 11:00 a.m. onward.

Aware that the summer heat is beginning to intensify, and knowing that the Saturday, 6:00 p.m. Mass, is in direct sunlight and bears a significant amount of heat from the day, it only seems prudent that we modify our weekend Mass schedule at the Ministry Center. This modification takes into consideration our desire to minimize the health risk (e.g., dehydration, sun stroke, etc.), and promote the well-being of those attending the outdoor Mass.

Considering the natural shade canopy of the magnolia trees and the cooler temperatures in the early morning hours, we will be moving the Saturday evening Mass to Sunday morning at 9:00 a.m. Noted below is the revised Weekend Mass Schedule (as of: September 01, 2020):

LIVESTREAM MASSES –

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Saturday</th>
<th>6:30 p.m. – Spanish</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sunday</td>
<td>9:00 a.m. – English</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

LIVE AND “IN PERSON” MASSES –

(Reservations obtained through EventBrite)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sunday</th>
<th>7:00 a.m. – Church Courtyard</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7:00 a.m. – Ministry Center</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>9:00 a.m. – Ministry Center</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please be aware that the Saturday evening Mass at the Ministry Center, has been replaced with a 9:00 a.m. Sunday Mass at the same location (Ministry Center).

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we continue moving forward.

REMINDER

OBTAINING RESERVATIONS FOR MASS: To make it easier to obtain a “reservation” for Mass, and to avoid getting a reservation for the wrong parish, please make sure you go directly to our website: www.sptacc.org and follow the instructions.

PLEASE UPDATE YOUR MASS RESERVATIONS: If for some reason your plans change at the last minute and you will not be able to attend a Mass for which you already have reservations, please be sure to go through our parish website and “CANCEL” your reservation(s). That way, someone else can obtain a reservation through our Parish website. We do have a large number of people who “wait” at the door to see if anyone is cancelling their reservation(s), so that they can attend the Mass.

REMINDER FOR WEEKEND MASSES

As a reminder to those who have chosen to once again join us for the “live and in person,” outdoor celebrations of the Mass, we do remind you of the following to help keep you healthy and safe during these liturgical celebrations:

As we are now in the summer months and the outdoor temperatures can reach very high numbers, and knowing that there may be little to no shade in the area where the outdoor Masses are celebrated, we highly encourage everyone to bring the following with you:

- Sunscreen
- Sunglasses
- Hats
- Footwear appropriate for an outdoor setting (e.g., tennis shoes – ladies, no high heels since we are outdoors and the surfaces can be very uneven)
- Bottled water
- Hand Sanitizer

The following items are not permitted:
- Umbrellas
- Personal Fans

♦ Everyone over the age of 2 years, must wear a face mask throughout the entire celebration which covers the nose and mouth. (Note: this mask may only be removed at the moment when one is receiving the Eucharist/Communion, and then must be placed back over the nose and mouth after the Eucharist has been consumed).

♦ Please note that, at this time, restrooms will be for emergency use only.

♦ For those who may be prone to heat/sun stroke, you are cautioned to consider your participation in the outdoor Mass very carefully. We will still be broadcasting the Livestream Masses on Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

RECORDATORIO PARA LAS MISAS DE FIN DE SEMANA

Como recordatorio para aquellos que han optado a unirse una vez más a nosotros para las celebraciones al aire libre "en vivo y en persona" de la Misa, le recordamos lo siguiente para ayudarlo a mantenerse sano y seguro durante estas celebraciones litúrgicas:

Como estamos ahora en los meses de verano y las temperaturas exteriores pueden alcanzar números muy altos, y sabiendo que puede haber poca o ninguna sombra en el área donde se celebran las Misas al aire libre, pedimos a todos que traigan lo siguiente:

- Protector solar
- Gafas para el sol
- Sombreros
- Zapatos apropiados para a fuera (ejemplo, tenis, damas, no tacones ya que estamos afuera y los suelos están muy irregulares).
- Botella de agua
- Desinfectante para las manos

Los siguientes son objetos no permitidos:
- Sombrillas
- Abanicos personales

♦ Toda persona de más de 2 años debe usar máscara facial durante toda la celebración que cubra la nariz y la boca. (Nota: esta máscara facial sólo se puede quitar en el momento en que se reciba la Eucaristía/Comunión, y luego se debe volver a colocar sobre la nariz y la boca después de que se haya consumido la Eucaristía).

♦ Tenga en cuenta que, en este momento, los baños serán solo para uso de emergencia.

♦ Para aquellos quienes tal vez sean propensos al calor/insolación, deben tener precaución y considerar muy cuidadosamente su participación en la Misa al aire libre. Seguiremos transmitiendo las Misas en vivo el sábado por la noche y el domingo por la mañana.

FORGIVENESS

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: “Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?”

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus’ parable in today’s Gospel reminds us of God’s compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

Forgiveness is never easy. We can identify with Peter, who wonders how many times he has to forgive someone who harms him. He had to be shocked when Jesus says seventy-seven times, meaning an unlimited number of times.

Since most of us have trouble forgiving even once or twice, such a standard is hard to comprehend. To help Peter, and us, understand that we are to forgive so much because we have been forgiven so much, Jesus tells the parable of the servant who owed a great debt to his master.

When we hear this story, we often miss the magnitude of it because we don't understand the currency. The first servant owed 10,000 talents, which would be about 3.6 billion dollars! When he says he would pay back the debt, Jesus' audience would have realized that was ridiculous. No one could ever repay such a debt. In contrast, the servant himself was owed 100 denari, which would be about $6,000, a not insubstantial amount, but something that could be repaid in time.

Jesus wants us to realize that our debt to God is like 10,000 talents—utterly unpayable—and yet God willingly and lovingly forgives us our debt. The things people do to us are like the debt of 100 denari — hurtful and challenging, but not insurmountable. Jesus is telling us that if God can forgive us our enormous debt, we must be willing to forgive the much much smaller debts owed to us by those who have hurt us.

When we refuse to forgive, as we learned last week, the grudges we hold become chains that bind us. The more we cling to our unforgiveness, the tighter the chains wrap us and, like the servant who was handed over to the torturers in this week's Gospel, we too are handed over to the torture created by the hardness of our own hearts.

DIGGING DEEPER FOR DISCUSSION: FORMED members can watch the short “Opening the Word” VIDEO free at sptacc.formed.org. Reflect on these following questions with a friend or family:

- What effect does the generosity and compassion of the master have on the first servant? What effect should God’s generosity and compassion have on us?

MEDITATION: We all know that we have sinned. As you think about your life and areas where you have failed to do the good you know you could have done, imagine Jesus reaching out and saying to you, "My dear Servant, I have paid this debt for you. It is completely erased, taken off my Father’s books. It is no longer held against you. As the Father has forgiven you, now, go and do the same to anyone who has harmed or offended you." As you consider this, offer your own prayer of gratitude to the Lord.

RESOLUTION: Is there someone you need to forgive? Set aside some time this week to spend before the Blessed Sacrament—either in an Adoration Chapel if your parish has one or before or after Sunday Mass—thanking Jesus for having paid the debt of your sins and asking for the grace to forgive those who have sinned against you.

Reflections reprinted here with permission from Augustine Institute.
Cuando Pedro le preguntó a Jesús cuántas veces debía perdonar, probablemente se quedó perplejo con la respuesta que Jesús le dio. Pedro había preguntado: “¿hasta siete veces?” Siete se consideraba el número perfecto, seguramente Pedro pensó que eso era suficiente. La respuesta de Jesús parece más abundante que la proporción. “Te digo que no siete, sino setenta veces siete.” Jesús entiende la plenitud de la misericordia de Dios y enseña que los discípulos están llamados a esa misma efusión de misericordia. Dios derrama compasión sobre la humanidad, más allá de los que podría parecer sensato o inteligente; sin embargo, estamos llamados a “recordar la alianza del Altísimo y pasar por alto las faltas” para dar a los demás el beneficio de la duda, sabiendo que Dios hace esto y más con nosotros, todos y cada uno de los días. Como beneficiarios de la compasión de Dios, debemos ofrecer el perdón y la asistencia más allá de lo que podría parecer razonable, porque el amor de Dios está más allá de la razón humana.

¿CUÁNTO ES DEMASIADO? Todo esto nos podría parecer demasiado. Una cosa es reconocer el perdurable amor de la alianza de Dios; y otra cosa es comprender que estamos llamados a la misma clase de generosidad en la misericordia y el perdón. San Pablo nos ayuda a ponernos esto en perspectiva. Ya no vivimos para nosotros mismos, sino para el Señor. En la vida y en la muerte pertenecemos a Dios y estamos llamados a ser testigos del amor de Dios, incluso en las circunstancias más desafiantes. Un amigo se aleja de nosotros, estamos llamados a dirigirnos con misericordia hacia el amigo. Un compañero de trabajo nos lastima, estamos llamados a acercarnos a él o ella con perdón, setenta y siete veces, no menos! El amor de Dios siempre se trata de lo que es justo y correcto. Como pueblo de Dios, vivimos y morimos por el Señor, perdonamos incluso cuando no tiene sentido hacerlo, y dejamos el resto en manos de Dios.
