

Prayers of the Faithful

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

That we and all people of faith will model God's message of love and forgiveness in concrete ways through our prayer, words, and treatment of others in our daily lives...we pray to the Lord,

That those seeking public office and voters will use the power of their positions and the strength of their respective voices to encourage dialogue across races, justice for the disenfranchised and to promote healing and hope for the future in these chaotic times...we pray to the Lord,

That we may have the courage to shout into the winds of complacency and do the work necessary to ensure that every person is treated with dignity and has adequate food, shelter and a safe place to rest at days end...we pray to the Lord,

That this community will continue to serve as a refuge for people of faith, striving together to be a source of mercy and compassion, and working to make amends for past transgressions...we pray to the Lord,

That Solomon, baptized in water through the power of the Holy Spirit this weekend, may grow, with the guidance and love of his family, in grace and wisdom, we pray to the Lord.

That those suffering from COVID-19 or other illnesses of body, mind or spirit and those who walk with them may they find peace...we pray to the Lord,

For those whose lives were lost in the attacks of September 11, 2001 and the subsequent violence and related health issues, and for Lawrence Paola, Fr. James Vaughan,

5:00 – Dan Foley

8:30 – Joe Schalbe, Gerard Blais

11:00 – Susan Flanigan

and all the dead (pause) may they now see God's forgiveness and grace with clarity and rest peacefully in the presence of the source of all love...we pray to the Lord,

Let us place the concerns written in our Book of Intentions and those held in silence before the Lord with patience, forgiveness and hope in our hearts (pause) we pray to the Lord,
