

Advice on Masks from A Good Shepherd Parent

“As I mentioned in our phone call my family is treating masks like shoes. I know some of my children have struggled with the feel of wearing shoes. For us it isn’t an option to leave the house without shoes, there isn’t an option to leave the house without a mask. It is up to the parent to find the fit that feels the best for each child. Here are four different options if other families are struggling. The first is from a local store the others were bought online.”
