Dear Friends in Christ,

The Second Sunday of Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. It is on this day that we celebrate the love of God offered to us in Jesus Christ. It is in Christ and through His saving Passion, death and Resurrection that we obtain forgiveness of sins and grace to be put again in right relationship with God.

As a fruit of our parish's recent Marian Consecration, we will be joining the parishioners of St. Mary's in Worcester for their Divine Mercy celebration beginning Sunday, April 28, at 2 PM. We will begin with Confessions, continue with prayerful recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, have Mass and then enjoy fellowship and food. It will be a wonderful afternoon! Please join us for this important event.

On the same day, before going to St. Mary's, we will be having our annual Spring Senior Luncheon which will include, this year, a special honoring of Sr. Jeanne Rouillard. We will be dedicating a garden to her on our property in recognition of her years of service to our community. Join us as we gather in community!

The Easter Season has only just begun! We have 50 days during which to contemplate the wonder and glory of Christ's Resurrection, His Ascension into Heaven and the fulfillment of His promise, the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. During this incredible time of grace, Jesus invites us to allow Him to fill our hearts with new life and joy. May we welcome this Easter experience with open willingness.

Our God is so good and rich in merciful love. Let us thank Him for His great care for us and for the Church!

In Christ,
Fr. Michael
