

Pastor's Message

March 18, 2020

Sometimes in our lives there is less pressure from others on our precious time, than during other times in our lives. Right now, due the present pandemic, we have less pressure from others on our precious time, even though life is far from easy, as we try to be safe and healthy.

Interestingly, the precious time given to us now, which seems to feature less pressure and more flexibility, may be utilized in ways which would make the Lord even more proud of you.

While each of us are marching through the days of the presence of the pandemic, why not consider enhancing the following three “Bes” in your good life?

1. Be more thoughtful of others.
2. Be someone exercising more charity and kindness.
3. Be a person with an increased willingness to reach out to those in greatest need.

Jesus said, “The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever, (John 2:17).” At this time, with seemingly less pressures placed on us, in spite of the fact life is far from easy, as we try to stay safe and healthy, God could be leading you to most precious moments today and tomorrow of doing His will. And, in truth, there is not much more we can do that is more precious with our time, if it is His will to spend it for the enrichment of someone else, thoughtfully, charitably, kindly and fulfilling their greatest need.

Peace
