

Pastor's Message

March 19, 2020

Unprepared and unaware it would arrive, the teenage, virgin Mary suddenly was faced with an extraordinary challenge in her life. What was her reaction, as a sincere believer of the Lord God? See Luke 1:26-38.

Unprepared and unaware it would arrive; the just and faithful Joseph was faced with an extraordinary challenge in his life. What was his reaction, as a sincere believer of the Lord God? See Mathew 1:18-25.

Unprepared and unaware it would arrive; the rich young man was faced with an extraordinary challenge in his life. What was his reaction, as a sincere believer of the Lord God? See Mark 10:17-22.

Today and maybe for at least another several weeks, each of us surely will be faced with at least one extraordinary challenge in our lives, as the pandemic continues. Perhaps, it will be an invitation to do something for someone, which not anyone else you know is willing to do. Or, it could be saying something to someone, others would not say.

Whatever, whenever and however you are faced with an extraordinary challenge today and tomorrow, will you be going away sad, due to the fact at this time of the Coronavirus outbreak, you are being asked too much? Or will you behave like a sincere believer, mirroring the courage of the teenage, virgin Mary and the just faithful Joseph?

Peace,
Fr. Marc
