

Pastor's Message

April 21, 2020

Joe: What are you doing? Lou: Same thing as I did yesterday.

Joe: What's that? Lou: Exactly, what I did the day before!

Joe: Why don't you find something else to do! Lou: Well, smart guy, what are you doing?

Joe: I am doing the same thing as yesterday too. Lou: I can't believe it. When will this thing end?

Joe: Soon, I hope. Lou: But, when? I can't take it anymore!

Joe: Guess what? Neither could I. Lou: What could we do to make it end?

Joe: Your kidding? It's not in our control. Lou: We got to do something!

Joe: Shut up! As soon as grandma someday finds the key to the door, we'll be out of this attic crawl space!

Every now and then, as we live in the world of the COVID-19 pandemic, it does feel like we're right beside our friends "Joe and Lou," locked in an attic crawl space. Yes, it is not easy for us.

However, unlike, Joe and Lou, we don't have to wait for the key to unlock multiple possibilities to live every day, to a certain degree productively, and with as much positivity as we can muster. So, don't deadbolt yourself into a depressive state of helplessness. You're in control!

With the help of God, and relying on those we love giving us love in return, we'll get through it all, sooner or later. Yes, indeed.

Again, you're in control!

God bless you.
