

Pastor's Message

April 22, 2020

Yesterday, the Queen of the United Kingdom, Elizabeth II, celebrated her 94th birthday. She is the longest reigning monarch in British history.

On April 12th, Queen Elizabeth II, released an Easter message to the world. It was the first time in 68 years as the Queen, she did so.

She penned a beautiful line in her message which is very much worth considering. The Queen wrote, “May the living flame of the Easter hope be a steady guide as we face the future.”

What is the “the living flame of the Easter hope?”

How could it be a “steady guide as we face the future?”

Here is a challenge to anyone reading this Pastor's Message, if you have children living in your household or, if you have grandchildren who live elsewhere. Ask the children to share in writing their answers to the aforementioned questions. Have them, as believers in the Risen Lord Jesus Christ, provide responses.

As you well know, very often, children can put into words exactly what we need to hear and/or read. They have that gift.

Give it a try. I bet you'll be surprised by the child's answers.

God bless you.
