What's next?

During the past several weeks of COVID-19 pandemic, maybe you have asked yourself the same question I have many times. "What's next?"

As of this moment, the best answer I can provide to myself is, "I don't know what's next, but I got to keep the faith and be positive, in the midst of the chaos, fear and sadness."

Keep the faith. Maybe, more than ever in our lives, we need the grace of God to get us through the difficulties. We can't lose faith in Him now!

Be positive. There exists too much negativity in people's hearts and minds. Positivity will provide healing to those suffering in so many different ways, as well as to those who are pained for them.

Chaos, fear and sadness. It exists now. It is our reality today.

Undoubtedly, I wish the answer to the question exists. I am confident you do too. However, it doesn't. But, with faith and positivity, let's try our best to face each day, united as children of one God.

We can do this.
Yes, we can.
