

Pastor's Message

May 28, 2020

Faith: Hey, daddy, there is our church...we just drove past it!

Dad: Yes, Faith. That's our church.

Faith: Don't we go there anymore?

Dad: That's still our church. But, the doors are locked. We can't go in.

Faith: Why daddy? I want to go in. Isn't Jesus home anymore?

Dad: Yes, Jesus still is there. But, they said if people go in, they might get sick.

Faith: In church? Get sick? We just sit and talk to Jesus!

Dad: But, people who are sick may come and make us sick.

Faith: Umm... Daddy, where are we going now?

Dad: To the store to get Daddy's tickets. I hope I win today!

Faith: Then, where?

Dad: Then we'll go to the other store. The store with the washing machines. It will be just for a little while.

Faith: (After a short time) Daddy, can I ask you something?

Dad: Sure honey...what is it you want to ask Daddy?

Faith: Can we get sick at the store for your tickets to win and at the store with the washing machines? People are there.

Dad: Oh, don't worry. You will not get sick, you will wear a mask and I got gloves for you. Just stay next to me. You will be okay at those stores.

Faith: Then, why can't I do that with you at Jesus' house?

Peace,
Fr. Marc
