

Pastor's Message

May 29, 2020

Father: Wow, is that you, Jesus!

Jesus: Yes. What are doing in my Father's house, the church?

Father: Just finished the virtual mass....Hey, no mask! Put on this mask!

Jesus: Mask? (He puts on the mask). Okay, done.

Father: Back up! You're too close to me. We got to be six feet apart!

Jesus: (He backs up to six feet from Father). Okay, done.

Father: Hey, don't touch the pews. Sanitize your hands. Here use this!

Jesus (He sanitizes His hands thoroughly with Purell). Okay, done.

Father: Now, put on these gloves. You got to do this or else you got to leave!

Jesus: (He puts on the gloves). Okay, done.

Father: No, stop! Don't sit down in the pews. I just sanitized them.

Jesus: (He steps back from the pews). What's wrong, where is everybody?

Father: Nobody is allowed in the church. It's locked, until it is safe to come in.

Jesus: Wait a minute, Padre! You're telling Me, if they wear a mask, remain six feet apart, sanitize their hands, put on gloves, then sit in your sanitized pews, my brothers and sisters are forbidden in my Father's house even for five minutes? Do you think that's acceptable, while people are doing their own thing in other places on a Sunday?

Father: Silence. (Why is Father speechless? Our Main Man is correct. It's unacceptable when you do all of the above, but the church doors must stay locked. All you want to do is to go inside, at least for one simple prayer, on a Sunday. Correct?)

God bless you,

Fr. Marc
