It's all about Him, not about me!

In our relationship with God, I believe the right attitude is as aforementioned. When we make it all about "me," then we lose our way to attain inner peace and happiness.

Someone very wise, anonymous to us, declared, "Most people wish to serve God, but in an advisory capacity only." We should remember, all that God knows, we don't. All that God can do, we cannot. All that God has already done for us, we cannot fathom.

Keep it all about Him, instead of yearning for Him to do what we would want done.

If we do, when we meet God face-to-face in heaven, He'll make it all about us for eternity! Then, the inner peace and happiness we longed for will never end, praising God with our loved ones, forever.

Peace,
Fr. Marc
