St. Kilian Pray For Us
THE SUPREME COURT AND CATHOLIC TEACHING

When the United States Supreme Court, in the decision Roe versus Wade (1973), permitted abortion on demand, that decision did not change Catholic teaching on the sanctity of life. We believe that life is sacred and inviolate from its earliest beginnings in the womb of the mother until the time of natural death. For the past 42 years, the Supreme Court decision, the most liberal abortion law in the world, has resulted in many millions of abortions. The Catholic Church has made a concerted effort, along with other religious groups, especially Evangelical Christians to put pressure on legislators for a constitutional amendment to change the court’s decision. The annual March for Life in Washington DC, non-violent protests outside of abortion clinics, relentless letterwriting campaigns to legislators, pro-life committees in parishes throughout the country, prayer vigils and more will win out eventually. Alternatives to abortion, homes for unwed mothers and counseling as well as spiritual and economic support provided by the Catholic Church and other concerned religious groups, are a powerful witness to our pro-life stance. A large majority of the American public disagrees with the Supreme Court decision. Roe versus Wade is centered on life and death; the highest degree of moral gravity is involved.

The recent Supreme Court decision legalizing same-sex marriage Obergefell v. Hodges (2015) involves same-sex marriage which the Supreme Court has stated is a civil right. That civil decision does not change the church’s teaching regarding the sacrament of matrimony. Marriage beautifully joins male and female, a man and woman in a lifetime and loving union. By the grace of God their generative love will bless the couple, the church, and the world with children.

While as a church we disagree categorically with same-sex marriage, the Catholic church’s pastoral approach to love and respect and be sensitive to all people regardless of their sexual orientation, remains steadfast. We can work hard to bring about the best for gay people, while disagreeing morally with any acting out of gay sexual orientation. Discrimination against gays simply because they are gay is morally wrong. We follow a Divine Master whose public ministry was centered on the rejected people of his own day and time. He surrounded himself with public sinners, along with his disciples, and his ministry was marked by table fellowship. As a prophet of God, he deliberately ate meals with prostitutes, tax collectors, and those considered by religious leaders as untouchable and unlovable.

As the body of Christ, the Catholic Church must be in the forefront of compassionate care. When we meet another human being, we know that we are spiritually meeting Christ, an image of the Creator. We who follow the Master pray for the Holy Spirit to live the life of self-emptying, forgiving love and action toward others that Christ, the Word of God embraced. Archbishop Gregory of Atlanta understands the Supreme Court decision as “an opportunity to continue the vitally important dialogue of human encounter, especially between those of diametrically differing opinions regarding (the ruling’s) outcome.”

Bulletin Reflection:
"Every worthwhile gift, every genuine benefit comes from above,” says St. James in the second reading. But, he reminds us, true worship of God involves using those good gifts to benefit the less fortunate. Good stewardship is not optional; it is the hallmark of our faith!

Living Stewardship:
We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who demonstrate by their generosity that they understand God is the Source of all they are and have.
Sacraments

Baptisms are celebrated on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Sunday of the month at 2:00 p.m. in the church. Spanish Baptisms are celebrated on the 4th Sunday of the month at 2 p.m. Parents are required to participate in one Sacramental Preparation session. These meetings are held on the first and third Sunday of each month. After attending the 9:30am Mass, parents should proceed to the Parish Center (below the church) for the Baptism Preparation Class. Godparents are welcome. Please call the rectory to arrange an interview with a deacon or priest to register for the preparation session and the Baptism ceremony. Additional information on Baptism is available on the parish website: www.stkilian.com.

Reconciliation - Confessions are heard in the church on Mondays, 1:00-2:00 p.m.; Saturdays, 4:00-4:45 p.m.; and in the rectory by appointment. Confessions are not heard on Mondays that are Holy Days or public holidays. Confessions in Spanish by appointment. Please call the rectory at (516)249-0127.

Matrimony - Marriage arrangements should be made with a deacon or priest at least six months before the proposed wedding date. No dates for marriage will be given over the phone. Note: The interview to schedule the marriage date at St. Kilian should be completed before commitments are made with a catering hall. Additional information is available on the parish website: www.stkilian.com.

Anointing of the Sick - The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick may be received by any Catholic who is preparing for surgery, or is of advanced age, or is seriously ill. The sacrament is the Church’s prayer for health and healing and should not be delayed until there is danger of death. Please call the rectory to speak with a priest. Also, to arrange for Communion to be brought to the homebound, please call the rectory to have a priest visit. After the priest visits, arrangements can be made for a Eucharistic Minister to regularly bring communion to the homebound.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
RCIA (Becoming A Catholic) Anyone who is inquiring about becoming a Catholic, and who has not been baptized, or who has been baptized in another Christian community is invited to inquire into the RCIA. Please call the rectory for information at (516)249-0127.

The 4 Steps of prayerful reading with Scripture or LECTIO DIVINA

1. LECTIO: Read a Scripture passage aloud slowly. Notice what phrase captures your attention. Be attentive to its meaning. Pause silently.

2. MEDITATIO: Read the passage aloud slowly again, reflecting on the passage. Allow God to speak to you in the silence of your heart through the passage.

3. ORATIO: Read the passage aloud slowly a third time, allowing it to be your prayer or response to God’s gift of insight to you. Pause silently.

4. CONTEMPLATIO: Read the passage aloud slowly a fourth time, now resting in God’s word.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

On September 9, the Church celebrates the feast of Blessed Frederic Ozanam, the founder of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Frederic heard the call of Jesus to love and serve those who are suffering. And in the poor he found the face of Christ.

This month through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to carry on the mission of Bl. Frederic Ozanam. God Bless You!

If you are in need of assistance or would like information about joining or contributing to the Society, please call 516-473-9562. Leave a message and a phone number. A member will return your call as soon as possible. You may visit our website at www.svdprvc.org. Please remember the Poor Boxes at the exits of the church. They are the Bread Boxes of the poor and hungry.

Ciclos de Fe

30 DE AGOSTO DE 2015
22º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Por varios domingos estuvimos reflexionando sobre el Evangelio de Juan. Desde la multiplicación de los panes hasta el discurso del Pan de Vida. Hoy regresamos a Marcos y su Evangelio nos instruye a dar honor a Dios con el corazón y con nuestros labios. Jesús nos da un mensaje claro, vivir nuestra fe con integridad. Saber vivir honestamente es una virtud, sólo practicándola día a día podremos llevar una moral que muestre la verdadera pureza. ¡Pureza de intención, pureza en la acción! Se atribuye a San Francisco de Asís la siguiente frase: ¡Predica el Evangelio siempre, cuando sea necesario usa palabras! Con esto nos quería decir que, no hace falta tanta palabra; basta el ejemplo moral.

¿Soy honesto en mis decisiones? ¿Las reglas que tengo en casa con la familia son justas? Jesús, invitaba a sus seguidores a escuchar y entender con un corazón abierto sus enseñanzas. ¿Nada que entra de fuera puede manchar al hombre; lo que sí lo mancha es lo que sale de dentro? Cuando nos enojamos, gritamos y criticamos a otras personas, aparte de la falta de sentido moral, nos estamos destruyendo nosotros mismos. Todo lo malo y lo bueno sale de lo profundo del corazón. Para vencer la crisis que vive el mundo actual de falta de moral y de Dios, necesitamos un compromiso comunitario que transforme la vida de todos. Jesús dice que la separación de Dios no viene por no observar la ley de lo que comemos o dejamos de comer sino por el mal que existe dentro de nuestros corazones.
